The scarcity of Diamonds, Gold and Silver, and the difficulties met with in securing them, is a sure indication of their value.

Thus it is with a valuable medicine: Dr. Aug. Kalber's Celebrated German Pulmonic Elixir, through the jealousy of rivals, has met with the most bitter opposition, and apparently almost insurmountable obstacles have been thrown in its way; but its opponents might as well try to change the course of the sun, sweep back the ocean with a broom or put out a prairie fire with a hair.

For the cure of Throat and Lung diseases, such as Coughs, Colds, Consumption and Bronchial Affections, it is unequalled. Its cure is truly magical. Ask your Druggist for it. The genuine bears the Prussian Coat of Arms, the facsimile signature of Dr. Aug. Kalber, and has his name blown on every 75 cent bottle. Trial bottle, 25 cents.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

High Council.—The members of the High Council of this Stake are requested to meet at the Council House, on Tuesday morning, the 4th inst., at 10 o'clock. Also on Wednesday, the 5th inst., at 10 a. m. and 6:30 p. m.

W. W. TAYLOR, Clerk.

Expected this Evening.—Mrs. E. B. Wells and Mrs. Zina Y. Williams are expected home this evening.

Correction.—It is noticed the death of Ezra Oakley an error occurred as to the date of his birth. It was printed April 10, 1778; it should have been April 10, 1788.

Release and Appointment.—Elder William N. Williams is released from the position of Traveling Elder in the Welsh Conference, and appointed President of the Welsh Conference.—Millennial Star, Jan. 13.

Soldiers.—Quite a number of soldiers from Fort Douglas were noticed in town yesterday and today, too many of them hanging around bar-rooms. Has pay day again arrived?

Explanation.—The name of the man who was so mysteriously assaulted on Saturday evening was published as Jos. McMurrin, Jr., a son of our well-known friend who is employed in the Tithing Office.

Color.—A man was fined $5.00 and costs to-day, for assaulting and beating another man. Both were evidently of African descent, and if "black eyes" were claimed by the assaulted party, they were not very distinctly marked.

This Evening.—The ball to be given by the members of the 10th Ward Brass Band in the School-house that Ward takes place this evening.

Mr. C. W. Stayner will this evening deliver his interesting lecture on "Life" in the Twelfth Ward Assembly Rooms. All are invited.

Those who seek either instruction or pleasure now know where to find it.

Police Business.—The persons charged with selling beer without a license were, yesterday, discharged, and the case was dismissed.

The woman arrested for prostitution pleaded guilty, this morning, and was remanded to the custody of the County Court for fifty days, during which time further steps will be taken to look after her.

Two drunks were brought up and attended to.

District Court.—The February term of the Third District Court adjourned till to-morrow at 2 o'clock, when the case of Louise Bopp vs. H. J. Bopp will come up for adjudication. Efforts will be made to complete the session of the Supreme Court by noon to-morrow.

General R. T. Burton's counsel announced that they were preparing for the trial of his case on the 17th inst., a week from next Monday.

Information Wanted.—A letter has come to this office containing inquiries concerning James Falkinburg, who left Crawford County, Pennsylvania, in 1862, the writer thinks. One letter was received from him, in which he said he was in Salt Lake City and was married here. Any information concerning him may be sent to S. W. Falkinburg, Spartansburg, Crawford County, Penn., and will be given to his aged parents, who are very anxious to know whether he is alive or dead.

Good Wishes.—We clip the following from the Ogden Junction of this morning:

"Born.—In this city, February 2nd, 1879, to the wife of Mr. C. G. Richards, a fine daughter."

We can do no less than congratulate the happy young parents, and hope that the little lady thus announced may in her future life display the fine looks, the amiability, and better than all, the real goodness which she has so perfect a right to inherit from her parents and grandparents.

Pine Nuts.—We recently saw in a California paper a short article from a doctor in San Francisco, in which the virtues and medicinal properties of pine nuts are set forth. These well-known nuts are very common in the southern and southwestern and perhaps in nearly every part of this Territory, but except in a few cases, no one has ever taken the time and trouble to secure any large amount for sale. To be sure, the Indians, especially the Pikes, consume large quantities of them, and in fact, during certain seasons of the year, they live almost entirely upon them. It is a noticeable fact among observant people that where the pine tree is well supplied with cones there the Indians are fatter, better-natured and more noble-looking. The physician above referred to states that his examinations have convinced him that where these nuts are generally eaten bronchial diseases are unknown, and that the slight taste of pine or balsam which they impart, and which is by no means unpleasant, is one of the surest preventives for all throat and kidney affections. It is also stated that in the rarified atmosphere of this Territory they will certainly be found more healthy than the tropical nuts, of which many of our people are annually sick. Give the honey production a trial.

Sunday School Union.—Last night the regular monthly meeting of the Deseret Sunday School Union was held in the 14th Ward assembly room, and a large number of the number of persons present.

The question called for consideration was in relation to prices and the best mode of distributing them.

Remarks were made by a number of the superintendents of the city Sunday schools, and most of the speakers expressed themselves in favor of giving prizes as inducements to punctuality and general merit, though there was a diversity of ways to distribute them.

One of the Sunday school missionaries reported having visited most of the Sunday schools on the west side of Main Street, in this city during the past two months, and spoke of the cordial reception he and his associate had received and the good spirit and influence felt in the Sunday schools.

Superintendent Goldard and his assistants, W. Willes and S. L. Evans, had visited a number of the wards since the last meeting. The latter expressed the pleasure he had had in being present at the jubilee in the different wards, and the satisfaction it gave the children to have their parents witness the improvement made by them through attending their Sunday school.

Superintendent Reynolds spoke of the benefit to pupils of having them pursue a course of study on special subjects, and then reviewing them every quarter.

The 14th Ward choir furnished the singing, and judging from the attentive audience and good order preserved, all seemed to enjoy themselves.

Can it not be Stopped?—Last evening at the performance of the Josh Hart combination in the Theatre, and to a greater or less extent, at every performance given for some time past, a unpleasant disturbance has been created by some senseless persons generally occupying the two upper galleries. This is exceedingly disagreeable to the more refined portions of the audience, and must be especially so to the performers. We do not wish to make any reflections upon the conduct of the doorknobs or ushers, among whose duties the quelling of such disturbances may not be included, but we remember days when such things could never be complained of, and when a lady or gentleman of the highest refinement and delicacy could sit in any part of the Salt Lake Theatre, and during a whole evening, never hear so much as a whisper which would in any way shock her or her feelings.

We therefore ask, cannot this disagreeable yelling and boistering be stopped? We suggest that one or more of the police officers, every one of whom is a gentleman, be invited to be in attendance and see that no disturbance be allowed. The sight of the star on the policeman's vest will stop all noises sooner than two or three doorknobs can, and we think if a few offenders are captured and punished, the effect on the rowdy element will be salutary.

Funeral Services.—The funeral services over the remains of Elder Dimick B. Huntington were held on Sunday, at 12 m., in the 10th Ward Meeting House. A large assembly of the friends and relatives of the deceased were present. The services opened by the choir singing the "Resurrection Day," after which a prayer was offered up by President Angus M. Cannon. The choir sang "The Invocation," and comforting and instructive remarks were made successively by Bishop Hardy, Elders Theodore McKean, Jesse Fox, Joseph E. Taylor, President John Taylor and Bishop Keeler.

The life and labors of the deceased were reviewed, and his honest, earnest and useful career highly commended.

The last speaker prefaced his remarks by reading a request of Brother Dimick's, regarding the manner in which his funeral should be conducted.

The closing prayer was given by Elder D. O. Calder and the meeting came to a close.

The members of the martial band were present and formed a part of the funeral procession, one clause of the request named being that they should play on the occasion.

A spirit of peace and comfort rested upon all the proceedings, which were very satisfactory in every respect.

Josh Hart's Troupe.—The attendance at the Theatre last night, was unusually large, every seat being occupied and many extra ones provided for the accommodation of the audience. The performance, too, fully justified the liberal patronage and the rapturous applause bestowed upon it. From first to last it was a first class entertainment, and indeed it would be difficult, the actors being all so good, to mention which ones were deserving of special mention. Carroll is as funny as he can be and an excellent singer, Bush is a fine mimic, Robby Newman and Dave Reed are very good in their songs and dances, Scanlon and Cronin and Murphy and Shannon are two full teams in their specialties, and so are Fostelle and Armstrong, the former being one of the best female personators we have ever seen.

The ladies, Miss Blinde, Miss Smith and Miss Engle are also perfect in their songs and dances, Miss Smith being exceedingly graceful.

All who want to have a good laugh and get their money back with interest, should go and see the Hart Combination, to-night in an entirely new programme.

Musical Lecture.—The regular musical lecture at the rooms of the Utah Conservatory of Music, is postponed from this evening till to-morrow (Wednesday) evening, at 7:30, when Mrs. Dr. Ferguson will be pleased to meet her pupils and invited friends.

Supreme Court.—Proceedings at the Supreme Court yesterday, Chief Justice Schaeffer and Associate Justices Emerson and Borenson on the bench.

E. Anthony et al., respondents, vs. C. R. Savage, appellant. Argument on motion for new trial in progress.

In the case of the People of the Territory of Utah, respondents, vs. George Gough, appellant. An appeal on motion for new trial was ordered filed.

Court adjourned till this morning at 10 o'clock.

His UNDERSTOOD.—When the black clouds gathered in the north and betokened the coming thunderstorm, a citizen of Detroit, who was coming down on a Jefferson avenue car, remarked to an elderly man beside him:

"A storm is portending."

"Hey?" inquired the other.

"I say there are tokens of a storm," continued the first.

"Hey?" was the brisk inquiry again.

"Appearances indicate a storm," exclaimed the citizen, a trifle embarrassed.

"Hey? what did you say about indications?" queried the other.

"There's going to be a thunderstorm," shouted the citizen, dropping his big words all of a sudden.

"Ah! Now I understand," said the old man, "there to be a thunderstorm. Well, what do you want me to do about it?"

Skating is very healthful exercise. It not only puts in play all the muscles of the legs and arms, but it creates bumps on the head for future phenologists to feel and report on.

A bright little three-year old, while her mother was trying to get her to sleep, became interested in some outside noise. She was told that it was caused by a cricket, when she sagely observed, "Man, I think he ought to be killed."

THEOLOGICAL students reason that if there be counterfeit money, there must be genuine; so, if there be infidels, there must also be Christians. If this be true of money and religion, will not the same rule apply to "put up" medicine? Do not the cheap and worthless nostrums prove that there are genuine and meritorious "put up" medicines? The great popularity of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has resulted in the manufacture of many shoddy alterative and tonic remedies, but one after another of these have disappeared, the proprietors have found that, no matter how loud they advertise, success depends upon merit. In South America, as well as in this country, the discovery of the standard remedy for all scrofulous and eruptive diseases. It acts promptly on the stomach, liver, and blood, toning up, regulating, and purifying the system. It is a powerful and bronchial irritation, and cures the most stubborn cough or cold in half the time required by any other remedy. dsw1

DIED.
In this city, February 2, 1879, of diphtheria, JOSEPH M., son of William and Elizabeth Cooper, aged 6 years, 5 months and 23 days.

On the morning of the 1st inst., GEORGE W., son of George W. and Mary L. Young, of Waship, Summit County, aged 2 years and 3 months.

Deceased was grandson of Ebenezer R. Young, Sen., of Waship, who was immediately summoned, and came to the city accompanied by his sons, Ebenezer, Jun., and Robert W. He was also grandson of Jacob Gibson, Esq., of Sugar House Ward. His parents brought him to the city on a visit to his grandfather's home, where he was taken sick with diphtheria, and died after a short but severe illness.

The funeral services were performed on the 3rd inst., in Sugar House Ward, and were conducted by Bishop Hardy, Bishop D. Woolley, and Bishop J. C. Roundy, of Waship.

The following hymn, on page 159 of Eliza R. Snow's poems, was selected by Mary Y. Appleby, and sung upon opening the services:

Your sweet little rose-bud has left you,
To bloom in a holier sphere;
He that gave it in wisdom bereft you,
Then why should you cherish a tear?

Your babe in the grave is not sleeping,
He has joined his dear brothers above;
Bright beams now have them in keeping,
In a mansion of beauty and love.

They're treasures you've laid up in heaven,
For a season removed from your sight;
To your bosom again they'll be given,
With fullness of joy and delight.

They're gone where life's end cannot find them—
They're secure from each danger and fear—
O, how cruel the love that would bind them
To years of affliction and care.

Look up, and you'll find consolation,
Which God by his spirit will give;
And through faith, the rich manifestation
Of those, your sweet children, yet live.

At Durfee, Scotland, Dec. 30, 1858, of natural causes, ROBERT JACOB ARNOLD, aged 62 years, 9 months and 10 days.

He was born at Cooper's Angus, England, Nov. 12th, 1822, and was 55 years of age. He was a very good man, and lived an exemplary life and passed his last hours in hope of a glorious resurrection.—Millennial Star.
