WHITE BLOUSE WITH EMBROIDERY PLASTON.

From Paris itself comes this dainty blouse, which is made of the sheerest cotton crepe. A shaped band of the crepe outlines the neck, and this band is effectively embroidered in three shades of violet silk grading from pale lavender to quite a deep amethyst. The blouse has a guimp and sleeves of finely touched white net which will prove very cool for summer wear. A black satin blouse with red and gold embroidery would be very effective for cooler weather, and the model might be carried out in various ways.

Prepared by Dr. T. HOPKINS, Proprietor of GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM. For sale by WILLES-HORNE DRUG CO. No. 1 Main St. By the Monument. SALT LAKE CITY.

WHITE FROCK OF EMBROIDERY FLOUNCING.

Embroidery in combination with lace makes a specially effective white dress for summer wear. Two styles of flouncing were used for this skirt, one strip being used up the side, so that the two scalloped edges come together. An entire deck of lace and lawn joins these scallops, and more of the lace is used for the yoke and front panel of the bodice and also in a panel down the outside of the sleeve. The rest of the bodice is built entirely of embroidery insertions. With this frock is shown one of the new parasols with a parrot handle, these bird parasol knobs being all the rage in Paris and New York just now.
