DEATH OF SISTER SNOW.

Aged Wife of the President Expired at Her Home in Brigham City.

Mary Adaline Goddard Snow, the aged wife of President Lorenzo Snow, died at 12 o'clock yesterday at her home in Brigham City, of old age, having reached her 87th year. Sister Snow was a very estimable lady, and was greatly beloved by all who knew her in her long life of usefulness. She was born at Hartford, Conn., on March 5, 1812, and was married to Lorenzo Snow in Illinois.

On November 8th of this year Sister Snow slipped and fell, as a result of which she was very severely shocked, and undoubtedly this had some effect in hastening the day of death. Five children survive the deceased, and they, with numerous other relatives, will mourn her loss. President Snow has the heartfelt sympathy of all classes of people in the loss of the loving sharer of his joys and sorrows.

Burglary at Richfield.

Richfield Advocate: Nielson & Moore's meat market was robbed last Friday night, and between $15 and $12 in small change was taken from the money drawer. Everything was all right when Mr. Moore closed up at 9 o'clock. Having occasion to go to the building about 11 o'clock, Mr. Nielson discovered the robbery. Nothing was taken except the money. The burglar had gained entrance through the window on the north side. The proprietors have a strong suspicion as to who the guilty party is, but without proof, cannot take any action.

"Second—Are you in favor of requiring that petitions for liquor licenses shall be endorsed by a certain stated proportion of the legal voters, both men and women, of the township, voting precinct or municipal ward in which the business is proposed to be established?"

The next attraction at the Theater will be The Chimes of Normandy, on New Year's afternoon and evening.
