their claims. The work was done at the time the Mammoth was under the management of Mr. H. A. M. Butler Johnstone, who, according to advices received from Europe, has been particularly unfortunate. First meeting with a reverse in his business here through the failure of a bank in London, the money he had invested in the Mammoth was lost, and he returned to Eugland; financial misfortune still followed him, until at last he became a "tramp, although it is stated that at the same time the government of Turkey owehim half a million pounds sterling His friends are trying to bridge over his monetary difficulties so as to enable him to again take part in public affairs, as he is said to be well-in formed on the Eastern question, which is now brought to the fore in the complications between great Britain and Russia, Mr. Johnstone is also a gentleman of considerable literary attain-
