shanghal, Aug. 14, evening .- It is expected that the Russian protected cruiser Askold, which arrived at Woosung on Aug. 12, will dock tonight. On the deck of the cruiser everything was in confusion and it was noticed that no attempt had yet been made to put things in shipshape. There were many evidences of a hurried flight and s running fight. There was a remarkable spirit of cheerfulness and confidence on all sides. The members of the grew generaly appeared to be healthy, strong and in good spirits, although some of the men seemed to be down-

A GOLDFIELD TRAGEDY.

W. L. Elliott, Saloon Keeper, Kills Jack Madigan.

Goldfield, Nev., Aug. 14 .-- W. L. Elliott, a saloon-keeper, shot and instantly killed Jack Madigan and probably fatally wounded John Hemilton. Madigan had recepeatedly threatened Elliott and when he and Hamilton came into Elliott's saloon early this morning they started to make trouble. Elliot cautioned them and took hold of Ham Elliott ilton. Madigan drew a pistol and El-liott grappled with him and took it away and knocked him down with the butt of it. Madigan jumped for Elliott again, and the latter shot, killing Madigan instantly. Hamilton grappled with Elliott, and during the struggle Elliott shot him twice. Hamilton is not ex-pected to live. Madigan, it is said, has two brothers, wealthy dry goods merchants of Chicago.

A Very Tame Bull Fight.

Butte, Mont., Aug. 14 .-- Despite the Butte, Mont., Aug. 14.—Despite the attempts of the local ministers to stop the affair an alleged buil fight was held here this afternoon on the flats south of the city. The affair was wide-ly advertised as a humane buil fight. The animals were not pierced or other-wise maltreated, the buil fighter using other animals to britting the animals while mattreated, the bun ingret wing only a red cloak to irritate the animals. He avoided their mad rushes by his quickness. A small crowd saw the ex-hibition, which was somewhat tame. The Butte ministers attempted to stor the exhibition by appealing to Gov. Toole. The governor referred the matter back to the county authorities.
