There was considerable excitement on south Main street this morning when Bicycle Policeman Dan Grundvig fired a way bicycle thief. A youth giving the name of Ray Cays, aged 20 years, and claiming to hall from Helena, walked into the bicycle shop of Meredith & Guthrie this moraing and offered for sale a valu-able Pierce wheel. He stated that he came from Helena and needed the mon-ey with which to get something to eat. Mr. Meredith looked up the number of the wheel and the record and learned that it was sold by a Salt Lake firm. He remarked to the young man that the latter did not bring the bike from Helena. Clays then ran out of the store and started to hol foot it down the street. Patrolman Grundvig happened to be outside and took after the fleeing thief. He fred a shot in the air and Clays came to a sudden stop. He was marched over to the station and locked up on the charge of petit larceny. Grundvig is now trying to locate the owner of the wheel. Clays confessed that he stole it but sald he took it from the front of some building but don't know where. LUMBER DEALERS. BURTON COAL & LUMBER CO.
