BY TELEGRAPH.

WASHINGTON, 11.—The President of Honduras, with Senators Ramon, Rosa and J. J. Palmer, and Mr. T. R. Lombard, of New York, Honduras' consul, have arrived here from New York. They were met at the depot by Commodore Stevens and Chief Clerk Hogg of the Navy Department, who escorted the distinguished visitors to their hotel. Hon. John Davis, Acting Secretary of State, and Lewellyn Brown, Chief Clerk of the Department of State, paid their respects immediately after their arrival, and arranged a programme for to-day, which will consist in a brief visit to the White House, and a tour of the city, after which the party will proceed to the Naval Arsenal, where they will embark for Mount Vernon. The President leaves by the evening train for Chicago, whence he departs for San Francisco.
