J. N. Spalding, an "American" party mominee for the lower house of the leg-islature, and formerly president of the state Federation of Labor, was present at a raily of the Independent Labor party held at Federation of Labor half hast night. He tried to have the labor vote endorse the "American" party candidate for county attorney, but did not succeed. The party maintained that had aiready nominated Willard Han-on and decided to stay with him. D. 1. Elton was in the chair, and it was when he had left to attend to other business that Spalding appeared to ask for favors for the "American".

Briant S. Young, assistant secretary of the Republican state committee, has withdrawn from the Republican legisla-tive ticket, and gives place to William McMillan.

In voting the voting machines, the last trick in the art of operating one is to learn that any legislators may be voted, and that by cutting a man on one ticket it is not necessary to vote for the man just below or above him to fill the place. Any number may be cut on any ticket and any others substituted, just so the total number is made up correctly. correctly.

SWEET CHARITY. Fairchild Children Now in Good Hands Of Doctor and Nurses. The trustees of the Infants' Home have returned a vote of thanks to Dr. S. C. Baldwin and the Dr. Groves' L. D. S. hospital for services and kindness

D. S. hospital for services and kindness to Maude Martin Fairchild, the unfor-tunate little one who was taken recently together with her sister from the cus-tody of her parents by the juvenile court. The children were removed to the Infants' Home and it was found that their condition was dephorable. Maude was found to be suffering from hip joint disease. At the solicitation of the trustees of the Home Dr. Baldwin took up the case and provided the nec-essary attendance, braces, shoe, etc., for the child, and caused her to be moved to the hospital. Both the phy-sician and the hospital are taking care of the child free. A vote of thanks was also tendered which took charge of the infant, Olive Fairchild, whose condition also was pith-able. The hospital is looking after the confort of the little one who cannot, under the most hopedul auspices, sur-vive long, say the doctors.

CONFERENCES TOMORROW.

Special Sunday School Exercises in Twentleth and Twenty-first Wards.

The Twentieth ward Sunday school vill hold its postponed annual conference tomorrow morning, beginning at 10 o'clock, and concluding with an evening meeting, which commences at 6:30. Special programs have been prepared for both sessions and it is anticipated

Mr. Bowen sees in the present situa-tion, an imperative need of cordial co-operation on the part of all local inter-ests. A close alliance of all citizens, regardless of political or religious dif-ferences, will be the means, in his view, whereby our future development in all legitimate fields, will be achieved. Ac-quainted with the agencies which are building up other corspicuous indus-trial centers and cognizant of the dis-paraging contrast which other situa-tions present when compared with this, he regards this field as presenting unfor both sessions and it is anticipated that an extraordinarily large attend-ance will be in evidence. The Twenty-first ward will also hold its annual Sunday school conference to-norrow. The gathering in this ward was postponed from last Sunday, owing to the fact that the elemental disturb-ances were so violent as to prevent the program of that date from being car-ried out. However, good sessions and an interesting time are anticipated at tomorrow's exercises. tomorrow's exercises.

TO ENTER STOCKBROKING.

CORDIAL CO-OPERATION.

R. K. Cobb. traveling freight agent of the Oregon Short Line with head-quarters here, has handed in his resig-nation effective Nov. 1. Mr. Cobb is the latest employe of the traffic department of the Short Line to forsake railroad-ing for stockbroking. He has formed a partnership with John A. Kirby, the well known mining engineer, to deal in mines and stocks. The new company is to be known as R. K. Cobb & Com-pany, and has secured commodious of-fices at 17 west Second South street. Mr. Cobb is well known in this city and has been with the Oregon Short Line for the past seven years. He com-menced as a stenographer in the general freight department. He was later pro-moted to be private secretary to T. M. Schumacher, then traffic manager for the system. His next advancement was to that of chief clerk for D. R. Gray, district freight and passenger agent. Fifteen months ago he was again pro-moted to traveling freight agent. He was generally looked on as a young man with a railroad future. However, he has concluded to leave the business, and with some good backing both finan-cially and otherwise he proposes to em-bark in the stock broking business. cially and otherwise he proposes to bark in the stock broking business.

RAILWAY CLERKS MEET.

RAILWAY CLERKS MEET. Salt Lake lodge of the Brotherhood of Railway clerks held its first regular meeting since organized last night. The meeting took place in the Federation of Labor hall. The application for a charter which was received this week bore 54 names, and 50 more were en-rolled last night. About 100 in addi-tion have signified their intention of joining after the first of next month. The next regular meeting is scheduled for Friday night, which will be the regular meeting night of the organiza-tion.
