CONFERENCE AT INDEPENDENCE

Lady Missionaries Bear Testimony And Create Favorable Impression.

The following report is dated Kansas City, Mo., March 20, and signed by El-ders Thos. M. Hamilton, J. R. Bennett, thon H. Lund. and J. H. Wood, presidency of the Mis souri conference

On March 14-15 the mission conference convened at Independence, Jackson county, Mo. After trying, without success, to get the Hedrickite church and other buildings, we finally obtained the Music hall, situated just opposite the old court house square.

Saturday morning we commenced our conference, with all the Elders, 16 in number, also two lady missionaries, Sisters Amelia B. Carling of Orderville, structions. and Sarah A. Giles of Provo Utah, and the mission presidency being Three Priesthood meetings were held in which the Elders gave reports of their labors for the past six months. The reports were very encouraging.

There were six public meetings held in which the subjects of continued revelation, faith, and the necessary preparations to receive it, also other sub-jects of importance were spoken upon by a number of the Elders present. In the afternoon meeting, Sunday, Sister Sarah A. Glies was called to speak, She bore a strong testimony that the Gospel as taught by the people she represented was true. Sister Amelia B. Carling said she was pleased to have been called to the ministry, and to have the privilege of bearing her testimony of the truths of the Gospel. The remarks of the sisters were listened to with deep interest by all present. In the evening Elder Duffin occupied the greater por tion of the time.

Monday, the 16th, Elder Duffin entertained the Elders with a dinner, pre-pared by the sister missionaries.

In the evening the Relief society of he Missouri branch celebrated their Perceptine Sessions, were the first to Lettle in Davis county, Utah. Elders Abraham O. Writing from Greenville, Pftt county, March 17, Elder J. R. Adamson reports ( as follows:

Our regular semi-annual conference convened at Kinston, Lenoir county, N. C., March 11, 1902. Elder Rich did not attend on account of important and unlooked for business, but sent in blu stead Elder C. A. Strong of Chattanou ga. Both meetings were well attended and some good instructions were received. The Elders left for their several fields of labor, feeling encouraged and strengthened.

Two days later (March 12) we had seven new arrivals from Zion, viz : El-ders Spencer, Wiley Dalton, J. T. Davis, Oscar J. Evans, Joseph D. Lester, D. H.
