CAME INTO

MY yard, about the first of December last, a yearling HEIFER, yellow and white pided; no perceivable brands.

The owner is requested to pay charges and take her away. JOSEPH HENRIE, Stoker's Ward. 48-1*

WHO CAN PROVE

HIS claim to a pale red and white three year old HEIFER which has been with my cows since October? If any one can, he can have her on fair terms; she is forward with calf, has no brand.

JOSEPH FIELDING, One mile south of Sugar Works, S. Mill Creek. 48-1*

STRAYED OR STOLEN

FROM the range on South Mill Creek near the mountains, in May last, an Indian mare PONY, chestnut sorrel; hind feet and one fore foot white, some saddle marks—had a small leather strap round her neck sewed with fine wire; no brands; was expected to foal soon when she left.

Whoever will return or give information of her to the subscriber will be amply rewarded.
