

WRECK OF THE BARK FRANCOIS COPPEE.

Nine of the Crew Picked Up in an Open Boat by the Steam
Schooner Scotia.

THE STORY OF A SURVIVOR.

Thrilling and Full of Hairbreadth Escapes—Not Given Much Credence
By Rescuing Captain.

San Francisco, Nov. 23.—The nine men from the French bark Francois Coppee, who were picked up in an open boat by the steam schooner Scotia, are still at Gualala bay, on the northern California coast. They will be brought to this city tomorrow. Their names are given as follows: James Webb, Fred Olsen, Samuel Ray, Edward Anderson, W. G. Taylor, Jean Convinis, Niel Louis, Fred Briken, C. Augustus.

STORY OF A SAILOR.

Their story of the wreck of the bark was told by Briken, all of the others refusing to talk. He said:

"It was about 8:30 Friday night that the Francois Coppee dashed upon the rocks some place north of Point Reyes. The weather was very thick. The sea was heavy. The big bark had been tossed around for a couple of days and Capt. Inry seemed unable to fix his bearings. When she struck we got ready to launch the three life boats. We had time to provision the boats and then they were launched. In the boat with me were eight others. We got away safely.

"The boat taken by the captain was dashed against the foundering vessel and the men in it were thrown into the sea and washed away. It was an awful sight. That was the last we saw of the boat and men. We had been drifting around for more than 24 hours when picked up by the Scotia."

This story is not given much credence by Capt. Johnson of the Scotia. He thinks it strange that the boat should have no officers in it and that, under the alleged circumstances it should have no officers in it, and that, under the alleged circumstances it should have been provisioned as though for a long voyage, a case of wine and canned goods being among the stores. The boat also contained extra clothing for the men and a spare sail.

NO WRECKAGE FOUND.

No wreckage has been seen along the coast, and mariners are inclined to doubt that the Francois Coppee was wrecked, as stated. They hint of possible trouble on board, and await with much anxiety further news of the missing vessel.

Louis Blum of the shipping firm of Roth, Blum & Co., agents of the French bark Francois Coppee, went to the French consulate today to request the consul-general, Iolme Lanel, to order the detention of the nine sailors from that vessel who are taken to Bowen's Landing by the steam schooner Scotia after being picked up at sea. It is proposed to fully investigate the story they have told of the wreck of the bark.

Shipping men are hoping that the Francois Coppee, navigated by her officers and men who did not leave her, will still make this port.

Quite a fleet of vessels, most of them from the same port, came today. These vessels had no news of the French bark. The French bark Francois Coppee struck the rocks on the eastern side of Tomales bay and was wrecked on Friday night. Four of the survivors floated ashore on driftwood and are now at Pierce's ranch, near Marshall. It is reported that two bodies have been washed ashore.

NOT A MUTINY.

A raft containing the first mate and three sailors of the wrecked bark Francois Coppee came ashore in Tomales bay this afternoon and the men, after securing a room at a neighboring ranch, were driven to a railway station and reached this city tonight.

These survivors are all Frenchmen and the story they told disproves the earlier suspicion of a mutiny on board. They say that the night was very stormy and huge waves were dashing violently against the ship after she struck. It was deemed advisable to launch the life boats, but these were lost in the angry sea, but fortunately they had no occupants.

The small boat containing two pairs of cars, a life-preserver and a hat drifted ashore in Tomales bay this afternoon. The boat was from the Coppee. This is believed to be one of

FOUR YEARS FOR MANSLAUGHTER.

Frank Keefe, Slayer of Rawlins
Policemen, Sentenced by Judge Carpenter.

DEFENDANT MADE A SPEECH.

Thought He Should Have Been Acquitted—Rawlins People Wroth
And May Lynch Him.

(Special to the "News.")

Laramie, Wyo., Nov. 23.—At noon today Judge Carpenter sentenced Frank J. Keefe to four years in the pen for manslaughter. Keefe killed Policemen Baxter and King at Rawlins last spring, his case being brought to this county on a change of venue, as it was feared he could not get a fair trial in Carbon county. Judge Carpenter delivered a 10-minute talk in rendering his decision and Keefe responded. He said he thought he should have been acquitted. He admitted killing Baxter and King, but said he was on his own property and the killing was done in the heat of passion. He believed the jury should have followed the court's instructions and found him not guilty. He gave notice that in all probability he will appeal the case to the supreme court, his motion for a new trial being today overruled by Judge Carpenter.

In the case of Herman Brisacher vs. the state, Judge Morse yesterday rendered judgment in favor of plaintiff for $4,158.62, the amount found to be due on two promissory notes executed by defendants on April 7, 1899, and June 15, 1902.

The estate consists of real property valued at $1,000, and personal property valued at $100. There are nine heirs to the estate. The petition will be heard by Judge Hall on Friday, Dec. 4.

Judge Stewart yesterday dismissed the case of Frank C. Rutan et al. vs. Louis C. Hawk at plaintiff's cost upon a stipulation entered into by the parties to the action. SUN AND SNOW.

Sometimes Help the Hair to Go.

In any changeable climate the hair is apt to become brittle and to break off stubby here and there. This makes a hair-dressing almost a necessity, especially to ladies. In using a hair dressing which not only gets the hair to combine with it the efficiency in killing the dandruff germ, the germ that eats the hair off at the roots, causing what is called falling hair, and in time the hair becomes thin and the scalp is kind of a hair dressing. You have no idea how delightful your scalp will feel, and how stylish your hair will appear, after an application of one of the Horpicide Co. products. It is certainly a wonderful innovation as a scalp antiseptic and hair-dressing. Sold by leading druggists. Send for a sample to The Horpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. For sale by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

the small boats that were lost in the launching. The body of the captain's small dog also came ashore today.

LOCATION OF WRECK.

San Francisco, Nov. 24.—The exact location of the wreck of the French bark Francois Coppee has not yet been defined, although it is known to have taken place on a reef some 11 or 12 miles north of Point Reyes, near the entrance to Tomales bay. It is generally believed that the bark has gone to pieces. Two men and one reported washed ashore at Bodega bay in addition to the two already reported from Point Reyes.

All the statements of survivors go to show that the best of order prevailed on board after the vessel struck and that Capt. Inry was the last man to take to the boats. He is still numbered among the missing, the boat he was in having foundered.

Out of a crew of 24 men only 14 are so far reported saved, as follows:

Edward Anderson, seaman; W. G. Taylor, seaman; Jean Convinis, seaman; Samuel Reyes, seaman; Fred Berkin, seaman; Fred Olsen, seaman; James Webb, seaman; Neil Larbet, seaman; C. Gauzein, seaman; Alopie Victor, seaman; Daniel O'Neil, seaman; Edward Molines, mate; Auguste Victor, donkeyman.

Those unaccounted for and believed to have been lost in addition to Capt. Inry, are:—
Janaeu, carpenter;—Oliver, boatswain;—Souson, cook;—Nicholas, steward;—Carr, seaman;—Clement, seaman;—Fredrickson, seaman;—Gray, seaman;—Evarts, seaman;—Hillman, cabin boy.

The Sultan Has Cancer.

New York, Nov. 23.—The sultan of Turkey, frequently reported to be ill from one cause or another, is now alleged by the Vienna correspondent of the World, to be suffering from a cancer in the intestines. He is said to have refused to undergo an operation.

Butte Laborers Reach Washington

Washington, Nov. 22.—The seven representatives of the labor unions of Butte, Mont., who arrived in Washington today are to be entertained by President Roosevelt at luncheon Tuesday. The visitors were the leaders of an entertainment committee who received the delegates at Butte. The committee was headed by Mr. Roosevelt's western trip, and Mr. Roosevelt now desires to return the courtesy. In Washington they have become the special charge of Representative Joseph Dixon of Montana, who will be a member of the party to lunch at the White House.

High Winds in Germany.

Berlin, Nov. 23.—The high winds which have been sweeping over Germany for 36 hours, accompanied by a heavy rainfall, continue to delay traffic and interrupt telegraphic communication and have caused several railroad accidents. At Schleiburg the wind started several freight cars which were blown off the tracks and derailed rapidly, and finally they ran on to the main line, and they collided with an express train. No one was badly hurt. The Hamburg-American line steamer, Dauterode, during the storm on Saturday, tore out the pile to which she was moored while unloading at Hamburg, and went adrift. The mooring chain and the pile struck the vessel and broke a plate forward. She is now at Cuxhaven and will go to Kiel or Stettin for repairs.

THE GREAT BUTTE CASE

Montana Supreme Court Now Hearing Arguments in It.

Helena, Mont., Nov. 23.—The supreme court today is hearing arguments in the case of John MacCinnis and James Forrester against the Boston and Montana company, the action in which Judge Clancy at Butte granted an injunction restraining the Boston and Montana company from transferring its stock or paying dividends to the Amalgamated Copper company. A. J. Shores, chief counsel for the Amalgamated, and Cornelius F. Kelley of Butte appear for the appellants and Judge J. J. McFadden, chief counsel for F. Augustus Heinze, for respondents. The hearing must be completed by 5 o'clock p. m., when court will take appeal and revision.

It was Clancy's order in this case that caused the Amalgamated company to shut down all its properties in Montana.

GEN. WOOD'S CASE.

Committee Will Be Sent to Cuba To Investigate Charges.

Washington, Nov. 23.—The senate committee on military affairs will designate a sub-committee to go to Cuba to take testimony regarding the conduct of Gen. Wood. The personnel of the committee has not yet been agreed upon, nor the number of members. It is asserted that so much has already been said about the conduct of Gen. Wood in Cuba that it will be necessary to examine witnesses in that island who cannot come to the United States.

Eastern Sugar Discounts Stopped

New York, Nov. 23.—The American Sugar Refining company has announced a change in their selling terms and reduced their list prices 15 cents per hundred pounds for 11 grades, making standard granulated $4.65. This price is not less than 1 cent for each seven days and five cents per 100 pounds from invoice. No further discounts or gratuities are allowed, thus eliminating the 10 cents per 100 pounds formerly in force and making the net cost unchanged.

SENATORS MUST BE CLOSELY WATCHED.

So Says a Delegate to the American Federation of Labor Convention.

TAKING AWAY PEOPLE'S RIGHTS

Creating Conditions That Make Legislation in Other Directions Useless.

Boston, Nov. 23.—In the convention of the American Federation of Labor today the committee on grievances handed in several reports. The convention accepted the committee's recommendation that no action was necessary in the case of the dispute between the riggers and the Bridge and Structural Iron Workers. A favorable report instructing the Amalgamated Society of Carpenters to withdraw its members from any work on which the union of the United Society of Carpenters have struck was laid upon the table.

Some discussion followed on a grievance resolution affecting the Amalgamated Association of Wood Workers and the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners. The former organization had charged the latter with inducing several wood workers' unions to join the carpenters and joiners.

The report of the committee advocating the reappointment by the executive council of the legislative committee to follow the legislation at Washington on occasion of one of the most earnest debates. Delegate Barnes of Philadelphia declared that the committee was unnecessary, and he was supported by other delegates. Mr. Duncan of the executive committee defended it, and he was followed by another member, Delegate Fueserth of San Francisco, the organizer of the Seamen's union, and one of the leading members of the convention. In justifying the existence of the committee, Mr. Fueserth in a forceful manner delivered an arraignment of the United States senate.

"I tell you," he said, "and I want to leave these words with you, that there is in the senate a party without a name that deliberately and with malice aforethought, step by step, is taking from the working people every right the men have, and that is creating conditions which will make all your legislation in other directions of no use."

Mr. Fueserth closed by telling the convention that Senators Platt of Connecticut, Lodge of Massachusetts, Hanna of Ohio and Morgan of Alabama should be watched with the greatest care.

"A few more I could name, but if I don't mention them I will get along better," were his words.

The report of the committee was concurred in. The committee on boycotts recommended the greatest caution in establishing boycotts.

In adjourning the convention, President Gompers declared that it had been unquestionably one of the most memorable and significant sessions in the history of the whole labor movement, and that matters of the greatest moment had been decided.

WHAT THE OLD DOCTOR SAID.
"Doctor," said I, "you say appendicitis is much more common than it was thirty years ago."

"Indeed it is," replied the old doctor. "That we encountered this disease then, is true, but not with such appalling frequency. Appendicitis, these days, is almost as common as sore throat."

"To what, doctor, do you attribute this increase of appendicitis?"

"To hasty eating and to the use of foods which have a tendency to clog and fret the intestines and deaden peristaltic action. The way to avoid appendicitis and the surgeon's knife is to shun unnatural foods that beget intestinal torpor and constipation."

People who eat Shredded Wheat Biscuit do not have constipation and hence need not fear appendicitis. This perfectly natural food preserves the tone of the digestive tract and induces every excretory gland to subserve the body's interests. Have you tried this most delicious of all cereal foods?

"I have been eating your Shredded Wheat for over a year and it has completely cured me of constipation, with which I had been troubled for twenty years." — Joseph Jessop, Helicon Hall, Coronado Beach, Cal.
