Festival in Honor of Bishop Gardner - Death of Franklin Fan.

Special Correspondence. Spanish Fork, Utah Co., April 24. Friday last was a great day in the First ward, when a program and banquet were given to do honor to Henry Gardner who had retired from the bishopric of the ward to become one of the ceunsellors to the president of the Nebo Stake of Zion. A meeting was held in the afternoon, Bishop Robert W. Mc-Kell, successor to Bishop Gardner, presided. A fine program was carried out, speeches, recitations and songs and finally a set of resolutions were offered in a neat speech by George H. Jex late counselor to Bishop Gardner, and present counselor to Bishop McKell. and

The resolutions were printed on card board, 14x20 inches in size, the printing being in blue and gold, and framed in an elegant gilt frame. Following are the resolutions:

Sad Death of a Little Child-Drown. ed in a Creek.

Special Correspondence.

Woodruff, Rich Co., April 24.-A sad and fatal accident befell the only child and son of Mr. Charles Stone on April 17th. The little one was about 4 years of age, and was riding in a buggy with his aunt. In trying to turn the horse around the animal backed towards a creek and the carriage was thrown over a high bank. The child was struck in the head by the buggy and thrown into about two feet of water, and was drowned, never coming to the surface. His body lay in the water for two hours, as there were no men folks around to rescue it sooner. The family came from Rhode Island last December, and have been living on the Wal-ton place, on Salaratus creek. The little fellow seemed to have a premonition of its death as he told the family the night before that he was going to die, and asked them to pray for him, and bid them good bye. The funeral was held Friday, April 19th. The family have the sympathy of the community. Joseph Neville of Randolph has the contract to plaster the new Stake office building in Woodruff.
