COMING OF MRS. FISKE.

Phillip Jacques En Route to San Francisce to Arrange for Month's Run.

Phillip Jacques, advance man for Mrs. Fiske, is in Salt Lake today, en route to San Francisco where he is going to make arrangements for a month's run at the Grand Opera House and also to confer with the local management as to the repertoire. It is expected that this will not only include "Mary of Maglada" but "Hedda Gabler," "The Doll's House" and possibly one or two other Ibsen plays. Mrs. Fiske comes to Salt Lake the week after next and will appear at the Grand Theater. Concerning her visit Mr. Jacques says: "The bill here will be "Mary of Mag-and it will be presented on the dala' nights of March 16 and 17. It will be elaborate-prodigious. There will be nore than 80 people upon the stage at one time. Frank Gilmore will play Flavius and Hobart Bosworth does the part of Judas while Max Figman has the role of the High Priest. It will thus be seen that she has exceedingly strong support, and that there will be 10 disappointments.

Speaking of Mrs. Fiske's plans for next year Mr. Jacques said she had acsepted a new play from the pen of Hugh Morion, who hitherto has con ined his stage writing to musical com dies. The drama is unnamed as yet out is said to be a production of high framatic excellence and one with which Mrs. Fiske expects to create a ensution.

Commercial Club Committee on Public Improvements Met Last Night.

The Commercial club committee on pu public improvements met last evening at the club rooms, and discussed plans of improving east South Temple street proposed by Spencer Clawson and Col. E. A. Wall. The model of Mr. Clawson's plan has been on exhibition for some time, but a model of Col. Wall's plan will now be made also, and placed on exhibition in the Commercial club rooms. The committee received a recommendation from James K. Shaw advising that the city be divided into paving districts and a sub-committee will inves-tigate and report on this proposition The city engineer and most of the board of public works met with the club committee on improvements.
