PLAN TO "FORCE" MARKET FAILED

Peculiar Situation Caused in Lumber Circles by Scheme Of Oregonians.

LOSE AT OWN LITTLE GAME.

Reductions - Northwest's Yards Flooded-Supply Shut Off.

Stock and grain markets are not the only ones subject to flurries, corners and other things of the world of speculation. The local lumber market has been on the climb and decline lately as a result of the manipulations of wholesalers and jobbers. The recent drop, ranging from $1 to $2.50 per thousand feet on all grades of lumber, was the first event noticed in this connection. Since then a gradual strengthening has been noticeable. The inside history of these fluctuations is interest-

In brief it is as follows: Some time ago the Oregon manufacturers and jobbers started to force the local market. This appeared an easy task as the California market is utterly demoralized. Prices dropped but the market was not swamped, not forced because dealers in this territory believed further reductions were coming during the summer.

In their attempt to swamp the market the Oregon manufacturers were the "biters bitten." The intermountain dealers would not buy and as a result Oregon lumber yards themselves were Oregon lumber yards themselves were soon swamped with rapidly accumulating stocks. Orders for logs from the Columbia camps were cancelled. This series of events brought about a most unsatisfactory condition generally and this still prevails. The Oregon yards are filled with stock, not being bought; the loggers are not at work and will not be for several weeks and the intermountain market is anything but reliable or firm.

Some lumber is being bought by the local merchants who want to be well local merchants who want to be well stocked up during present and probable future flightiness, but this is not helping the Oregon manufacturers any, as they are exhausting their supplies with nothing coming in to replenish them. It's a case of "everything going out; nothing coming in." This scarcity, brought on peculiarly, has caused a strengthening in prices. Some dealers look forward to drops during the summer, others dare not make guesses. The lumber being brought to this city is under contract before the consign-ments arrive.

Chief Togincer Code of Indian Service Supervising Improvements.

Chief Engineer W. H. Code of the Indian service was in town a few hours yes terday afternoon and left in the evening for Fort Hall, where the government will expend $35,000 in irrigation improvements. These will be largely done by the Indians themselves, 40 acres being provided for each Indian. Mr. Code will spend two weeks in Idaho, and then go to Uintah county, where the government is expendent. weeks in idaho, and then go to Uintan county, where the government is expending $600.000 in irrigation, with 15.000 acres of land already covered by a system of canals. The visiting official says that the plan of the government is to give the Indian land and water, and then let him work out his own agricultural salvation. He does not believe the "noble redman" is dying out, but that he is holding his own.

Striking Linemen Looking for Reconciliation in Near Future.

The linemen of the telephone companies have now been out for seven weeks, and for only two weeks have they been rebeiving strike aid, it is stated. The telephone officials say the men and the companies appear to be as far apart as ever. The men, however, are looking for a reconciliation in the near future.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

SOME BIG CATCHES OF TROUT.

Wandamere Preserves Ruthlessly In vaded by Gangs of Youngsters With Poles and Licenses.

Who stole the fish? is the deep and absorbing question on the part of the management of Wandamere and the fond parents of a number of youngsters residing in the southeastern part of the city. Since the fishing season opened, youngsters with fine strings of trout have been seen wending their way homewards at dusk, and in answer to questions, claimed they caught them in Big Cottonwood creek. On Tuesday, in anticipation of hig business on the Fourth, the manager of the restaurant at Wandamere made a prelimmary stocktaking at the secluded private pond, where he has been wont to corral the fish in anticipation of trout dinners to be ordered during the season.

$500 IN FISH VANISHES.

The result was awful to contemplate. In brief, the management declares that possibly $500 worth of the speckled beauties have disappeared.

CAUGHT REDHANDED.

Then followed an investigation with Then followed an investigation with the sequel that yesterday a 12-year-old boy was caught redhanded in the act of landing a beauty which weighed a little over a pound. He was promptly nabbed, and an investigation started. Accompanied by the official he made the rounds of a number of fine residences as far north as Ninth South. At every place evidence was forthcoming that trout breakfasts had been en regale "since Johnnie took out a license and went fishing."

SOCIETY PEOPLE IN IT.

Parents whose names appear in the society columns were astounded at the developments, and then, relenting, offered all kinds of inducements to drop the cases against their boys, but the stern representative of the resort was as adamant and in his forcible vulgar way declared that he was "going to make everybody sweat for it."

BOYS WILL BE BOYS.

For the present, names are suppressed, because, apparently the boys turned poachers—just because they were hoys and not criminals at heart. In the meantime there is an investigation under way to find the originator of the scheme to loot the Wandamere private fish pond, and the fairy stories of two-pounders caught in Cottonwood creek and the subsequent realistic epicurean repasts in which the entire family participated are now things of the past.

ALL HAD LICENSES.

It is a source of gratification, however, to the fish and game warden to learn that nearly every boy—and there are thirty or more implicated—took out a fishing license before participating in the raid.

This morning bright and early the majority of the juvenile suspects took to the canyons with a promise to be absent from the parental roof tree for the summer.

PATRIOTIC SERVICES.

Presbyterians Urge the Opening up of Revival Services Here.

Special patriotic services were held last night, in the Third Presbyterian church, with Rev. Drs. McNiece and Stevenson, right, in the Third Presbyterian church, with Rev. Drs. McNiece and Stevenson, and Dr. Thome, as the speakers of the evening. Dr. McNiece spoke on "The Needs of the City." and said in part:

"The divorce laws of the west are too lax and I fail to see where the standard of morality is improving throughout this country. There is room here in Sait Lake for moral reform measures and there is room for such measures throughout the length and breadth of Utah. Perhaps no more than any other state in the Union or this part of the country, but there is need, nevertheless. There is too much breaking of the Sabbath. The day is being broken not only by amusement, but more and more by work. Men are forming the habit of working on Sunday when they should be resting."

In referring to the liquor question, the speaker said that he could not see that the increase in the licenses is having any par sular effect on the liquor bumness, and that the amount the state spends annually for hospitals. Infirmaries and other institutions in which victims of liquor are cared for, exceeds many times the amount which the state receives from the licenses of the saloons within its borders.

Dr. Stevenson discussed Sabbath break-ing in eastern cities, and expressed the belief that "we are making as good prog-ress here in the line of reform as any-where in the country," Dr. Thome urged the opening up of a revival of religion in Salt Lake City. WESTERN MARKET LETTER.

Special Correspondence.

Kansas City Stockyards, July 1.—The moderate supply of $6,000 cattle received here last week left buyers in good shape to handle the run of 10,000 head today. Prices declined last week on fed steers, but she stuff held steady because of the limited offerings, and grass cattle in the southern division also sold steady during the week. Prices on all classes are steady to strong today, with stockers and feeders 10 to 15 cents higher. Cattle receipts at this point during June were heaviest on record for that month, at 160,000 head, not including 17,000 calves. Liberal marketing of quarantine cattle helped to swell the total, although there was also large numbers of fed steers included. The large supply and the good prices realized are remarkable in view of the fight between commission men and packers, and the reduced supplies of she stuff received in consequence of this. An early settlement of the difficulty is anticipated, favorable to the shippers. Fed native steers reached 7.00 last week, bulk of sales 5.75 to 6.60, grass native steers, and those fed corn on the grass, 4.50 to 6.00, cows 2.50 to 4.75, heifers 3.75 to 5.25, bulls 2.75 to 5.00, including grass bulls, calves 4.00 to 6.00, stockers 3.50 to 4.75, feeders up to 5.00. Sheep and lamb receipts were fairly liberal last week at 25,000 head, and the total receipts for June were 113,000 head, also establishing a new record for that month at this market. Prices are regularly declining, buyers claiming a bad outlet in the east for the product. Supply is 8,000 today, market weak. Texas sheep for the country today at 4.25. Arizona wethers and yearlings 5.25 to 5.50, goats 3.00 to 3.60, lambs 6.75 to 7.50. The first shipment of Utahs arrived last week, selling at 5.10 to 5.35, not extra good quality. There is apparently nothing very hopeful in the immediate future of the sheep market, as the hot weather makes it difficult to work up the consuming trade, which is already in a bad condition.

PILGRIMAGE OF THE UTAH PIONEERS SIXTY YEARS AGO TODAY.

SUNDAY, JULY 4, 1847.

The day was fine and warm in the Pioneer camp on Green river. In the morning the five men started back, taking with them instructions to the Saints whom they should meet, and also a short synopsis from some of the company's journals as a reference, containing the distances, good camping places, etc; and if they should meet the detachment of the Mormon Battalion, under Captain Brown, one was counseled to return as a guide to the detachment if desired. President Young, Kimball and others returned with the men to ferry them over the river. While they were gone, the camp met for public worship under the presidency of the Bishops. At 2:30 p. m. the leaders returned from the ferry, accompanied by 12 of the Battalion man who had started for the mountains, but 13 men had been detached by Captain Brown to go in advance of the main body, in order to obtain some horses that had been stolen from them while at Pueblo. The Bridger. These 13 Battalion boys met the five returning Ploneers at Green River ferry, and one of them, William Walker, returned with the five Ploneers to meet hits wife. When the 12 soldiers arrived at the Ploneer camp they were greeted with three hearty cheers. Following are the names of the 12 Battalion boys: Sergeant Thos. G. Williams, John Buchanan, Allen Hampton Jesse J. Terrill, Francillo Durfee, Andrew J. Shupe, Samuel Gould, Benjamin Robert, James Oakey, George S. Clark, Thos. Bingham and William W.

RESORTS CLAIM THIER THOUSANDS

Big Migration to Cool Retreats Started Early This Morning With a Rush.

FOURTH OF JULY OFFERINGS.

Thousands Are Celebrating Independence Day in the Characteristic American Fashion.

The population of Salt Lake today is perhaps not more than one-tenth of what it was yesterday, as the exodus in all directions from the city was simply astonishing. In the first place cheap rates on the various railroads carried hundreds to visit with friends in other cities and towns of this and adjoining states. Adjacent canyons were the meccas sought by those who love the mountain breezes and delight to stroll by the willow-fringed stream that is, if they had a vehicle of their own or were able to hire one.

But the resorts are claiming seekers of rest and pleasure by the thousands today, the lakes proving the greatest today, the lakes proving the greatest attraction. By the term "lakes" is meant the Great Salt lake, Wandamere and Lagoon, respectively; the common English; the Anglo-Saxon and the Spanish for such bodies of water. The city has in its immediate vicinity three lake resorts, and each of them will doubtless witness a record breaker in the way of attendance before the day is over.

The Salt Palace, too, is thronged, and with the exercises scheduled for the evening, the capacity of the grounds will be taxed to the uttermost.

HAVEN AT LIBERTY PARK.

But the place that is the haven of the oldest and the youngest, with the many of intervening years who seek shade and quietude rather that, crowded resorts, is Liberty park. There thousands are gathered today, parents and grandparents resting beneath the trees, and the children gamboling upon the spacious lawns. The city is fortunate in having such a variety of places for recreation and rest, for all who are able to be out of doors can find some nook or corner suited to their tastes. But the place that is the haven of the HORCE RACING AT WANDAMERE. At Wandamere the principal feature of the day is horseracing, something of the day is horseracing, something that is enjoyed by old and young. The temperature of the water is delightful, the price is the same as last year, and with the completion of 200 new rooms there are available nearly 1,100 individual bath compartments, for the use of the public. All four places will be running today and this evening, and a blanket reduced admission ticket takes the purchaser through the four attractions. The steamer plying the lake is crowded every trip, giving excellent satisfaction. The music by the Twentyninth Infantry band is said to be first class, and altogether the capacity of the beach resort promises to be tested by visitors today. FIREWORKS AT LAGOON.

FIREWORKS AT LAGOON.

FIREWORKS AT LAGOON.

Despite the explosion of Tuesday afternoon, which tore up a portion of the track of the Salt Lake & Ogden railroad, that line will be able to offer transportation today to all who desire to visit Lagoon. Repairs have been made and everything is in readiness for the crowds that will go to the pretty Davis county resort. A special musical program has been arranged by Prof. Willard Youngdale, leader of the orchestra, and there will be every facility for patrons of the place to have a thoroughly enjoyable time. The festivities will wind up tonight with fireworks, a very large consignment having been secured for the occasion.

AT THE SALT PALACE.

AT THE SALT PALACE.

Besides the usual attractions at the Salt Palace, there will be a concert in the afternoon by Held's band, and big racing events at the bicycle saucer in the evening. A display of fireworks is scheduled for the evening. The musical program commenced at 2:30 o'clock, and comprised the following selections:

STILL IN STATU QUO.

Coal Prices Remain the Same With Great Uncertainty Ahead.

Local dealers are still taking orders for coal, subject to price at time of delivery The increase threatened is not expected to be announced for a couple of weeks to be announced for a couple of weeks yet. The Rock Springs mines are working below capacity, owing to a scarcity of miners. The conference scheduled for the near nuture between the miners and operators has not been held yet but when it is held, it is believed a demand for further increase in wages will be made. The recent strike was ended temporarily by the granting of a 10 per cent increase and a promise from the operators to meet their employes later to fix a wage scale permanently.

CAR COLLIDES WITH WAGON.

A South Temple street car ran into mea market wagon belonging to William Woods early last evening, near Second East street, throwing the driver of the wagon into the roadway. The vehicle was partly demolished, but the driver was not much hurt.
