BREVITIES.

A vein hope—prospecting for gold.

A natural slave—the surf of the sea.

A marine plant—The beach of the sea.

An intellectual spirit—The ghost of a thought.

The only tolerated murderers are the lady-killers.

The wife makes the home, and the home makes the man.

The best timber for sleigh runners—slippery elm.

It is human to err, but devilish to brag on it.

The cattle plague has broken out in Egypt and Russia.

Hay has recently been shipped from New York to England.

32,696 scorpions were killed in Durango, Mexico, during the month of May.

A biscuit manufacturer of Rheims, France, uses 23,000 eggs daily in making his biscuits.

A French writer on gastronomical subjects has defined indigestion to be the ingratitude of the stomach.

The gold and silver product of the United States for the last eighteen years has been about $72,000,000.

One of the fussyest scenes I ever listened to, was two old maids waiting on one sick bachelor.

No man should complain of being poor, or of hard times, who can afford to use rum or tobacco.

The disease of cattle called "Charbon" has reappeared in Louisiana, and is causing great uneasiness to planters.

In friendship, as in love, we are often happier in our ignorance than in our knowledge.

The latest innovation in New Orleans is a lager beer saloon for ladies, which is said to be well patronised.

Saratoga ladies are so obliging as to furnish reporters the size of their waists and the value of their diamonds.

The ice machines at New Orleans make thirty tons a day, and sell it for seventy-five cents a hundred pounds.

The spring-time of the day is the early morning hour. Nature unfolds its panorama, displaying new beauties with each successive sunrise.

A wag wickedly affirms that there was one genius and two hundred hetrogeniuses at the Dickens dinner in New York.

Of all monarchs, Dame Nature is the most just in the enactment of laws, and the most rigorous in punishing the violation of them.

Evry man and woman on earth, ought tew wear on their hat band, these words, in large letters: "Lead us not into temptashun."

"Wer'e in a pickle now," said a man in a crowd. "A regular jam," said another. "Heaven preserve us!" cried an old lady.

The body is the shell of the soul, and the dress is the husk of the body; but the husk often tells what the kernel is.

Abe having heard it remarked by a lecturer that "man is merely a machine," replied: "I suppose a lawyer is a sucking machine."

The more exalted our stashun, the more conspikuous our virtews, just ez a rich setting adds to the brilliancy ov a jewel.

An exchange suggests that druggists are indictable for selling blisters under the law against inflammatory placards.

There is a single fact which one man opposes to all the wit and argument of infidelity, viz: That no man ever on his death-bed repented of being a Christian.

"To keep away red ants, cover the shelf where they are troublesome with salt; then set on it butter, preserves, anything, with impunity. Did you ever see ants about a salt barrel?"

A child in Jasper county, Iowa, was lately bitten by a large spotted adder. He turned black and spotted all over like the snake, and died in half an hour in great agony.

As a remedy for mosquito bites, keep a vial of glycerine at hand, and apply freely to the bites. It will relieve the irritation and swelling at once. One application is generally sufficient.

An exchange says that a terrible accident happened in our city. A prominent Government official was seriously hurt yesterday by an accidental discharge of his duty.

In a recent thunderstorm in England a soldier was struck by lightning and made blind, and a woman who had been stone blind for eight years was suddenly restored to sight.

A lady advertises for sale one baboon, three tabby cats, and a parrot. She states, that, being now married she has no further use for them, because their amiable qualities are all combined in her husband.

One of the younger members of the French legation at Washington, is noted for his gallant and exquisite compliments. A few evenings since at a "german" at Governor Morgan's, he was introduced to a witty New York lady who had an ugly flat nose. The polite Frenchman discreetly complimented her on her dancing, to which she archly replied, "Ah! I have heard you are a flatterer, but you cannot find it in your heart to compliment me on my personal beauty, so you praise my dancing." "Madame," was the reply, with a Parisian bow, "you are an angel from heaven, but you fell on your nose."
