IN A TRACK OF DESOLATION

The Storm Spreads Death and Destruction Everywhere-Wires Down-Details are Few.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 21 .- A special to the Post-Dispatch, from Nashville, Tenn., says: The killed in Columbia number fifteen white and 22 colored. The track of the storm was through Macedonia, a negro suburb. The main portion of the city was not struck. An ice factory in the suburbs was wrecked. Much damage was done in Maury county, of which adequate report is yet unobtainable. Considerable damage resulted at Martin's mill in the county of the same name, but particulars are not obtainable. Several houses were blown down at Indian creek in that county. Twenty house at Dalias, Ala., and Huntsville, were demolished, but no lives were lost. In Williamson county near Franklin, the residence of Able Little was destoryed and Mr Little and Mrs. M. Hughes were badly hurt. At Boxley's store the storehouse was destroyed and three negroes killed. tin's mill in the county of the same

PATH OF THE STORM.

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 21.-Conductor Kibler, of the Granada Accommodation train, on the Illinois Central railroad, which arrived this morning, two and one-half hours late, reports that the path of the storm was first reached at Datesville, Miss., where considerable at Datesville, Miss., where considerable damage was done to property and several persons injured, but none fatally. There had been a heavy down-pour of rain all day. At 5:30 the storm burst in all its fuy, and for a mile and one quarter on the west side of the railroad track the wind levelled every standing object in its way. At Guy's station, one mile south of Love station, Tolin Guy's mill and residence were destroyed. The inmates of the dwelling miraculously escaped injury. Two negroes in a cabin nearby were killed. The damage done at Love station was not serious. From that point the storm took a northwesterly course and the next place to feel its force was La Grange, Tenn.

The storm seems to have started from a point to the seuth of Tunica, Miss., and within a few miles of that place. Telegaphic communication has been temporarily paralyzed, but so far Severe Storm in California.

San Francisco, Nov. 21.-A severe storm prevails over northern California storm prevails over northern California and telegraphic communication with some points has been interrupted. The Southern Pacific company has ordered out its snow plows on the Central Pacific line. This is the first time in ten years that a November storm has made such an order accessary. Snow is falling from Colfax to Reno, and at the summit it is seven feet in depth and still falling heavily. So far traffic has not been interrupted.

"MORMONS" AND INDITE. Account of a Fight Between Them Greatly Exaggerated.

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 21.—A message received here today from the San Carlos reservation says that no Indians have left the reservation, contradicting the belief that the Apache band, which has been on the warpath in Mex., came from San Carlos. There are no indications of uneasiness among the San Carlos Apaches.

A dispatch from Casas Grande, Mexico, states that the fight reported there between "Mormons" and a band of Inbetween "Mormons" and a band of Indians was grossly exaggerated. Near Colonia, Pacheco, whites fired on a few wandering reds who plundered eatables fro ma ranch house. One Indian is said to have been killed and another wounded.

Schalkburger's Death Discredited.

London, Nov. 21.—The remorted death of Gen. Schalkburker, acting president of the Transvaal since Mr. Kruger's departure, is discredited here. There is a mere rumor that he died at Pohannesburg November 5th, but the report lacks confirmation. ternoon on the overland limited, which is late owing to the stress of weather along the line. When these gentlemen get together they will review the situation and take final action upon the matter, which is of so vital interest to the citizens of Utah and the intermountain region generally.

Senator Clark, up to this time, has done no talking for publication. As a friend of his stated at the Knutsford this afternoon. "He is not in love with reporters," Consequently, when approached this morning by one of that fraternity with the request that he furnish an expression upon the all-absorbing topic of the Los Angeles railroad project, for publication, Senator Clark said, "I have absolutely no time to see anyone at all this morning," and the door of parlor B swung to on its

out. It is the expectation and hope of the war department that the coming Congress will, early in its session, enact legislation which will enable the department to replace the present volunteer force by a permanent force. In that case such of the men in the ranks as care to continue in the service will be re-enlisted as regulars, and any vacancies that may exist through the muster out of the volunteers will be supplied by original enlistments in the United States. It is believed these enlistments can be made in time to replace all the retired Philippine volunteers before the first of the next fiscal year without causing a hiatus. causing a hiatus.

SEQUEL TO INDIAN FIGHT. George Pepin Likely to Figure as Defendant in Divorce Court,

George Pepin, the individual who figured in Sunday's fight with the wooden Indian, and who later appeared in the police court on the charge of drunkenness, is now threatened by his wife with divorce proceedings, Yesterday a summons was served on the "scrapper," citing him to appear within ten days from date and show cause why Mrs. Pepin should not be released from her matrimonial obligations. The complaint, it is said, will be forthcoming next week. The main grounds of the sult will be drunkenness and cruelty. For some time past, it is said, the thumper of "poor Lo" has been addicted to the use of intoxicants, and while in his cups is said to ill-treat his wife. Although Mrs. Pepin will not admit it to be true, quite a number of people are inclined to the belief that George's escapade of Sunday last was the chief factor in starting the action for divorce.
