The vote for their acceptance being unanimous, the Elder, Priests and Teachers were then ordained. The Teachers were organized into a Quorum with Jacob Benzley as President, and John K. South and Peter McKinnon his Counselors. Two Quorums of Deacons were organized, and the officers ordained and set apart, but the ordaining of the members was left to the ward Bishopric. Most of the young mea or-dained Priests and Teachers have held the office of Deacon in this ward, and have been faithful in the discharge of their duties. At the close of the meeting, Elders Hart and Findlay accompanied by Bishop Calder, of Garden City, Bishop Kimball, of Meadowville, and Bishop McKinnon of this Ward, drove to Woodruff and met with the Saints there in the evening. Elder Hart in his remarks, reminded them of President Taylor's counsel to
