Hazel Kirke to-night and to-morrow.

Stake Priesthood meeting on Saturday at 11 a.m.

Board of Trade meets to-night at the Council House.

Madame Chaplain will give her concert at the Theatre on Tuesday evening.

County convention, to elect delegates to the Territorial Convention, on Saturday at 12 noon, at the City Hall.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Nineteenth Ward Ditch.—We are requested by the Watermaster, William to notify all persons interested in the Nineteenth Ward ditch that they are required to turn out on Monday, October 2nd, and clean it out for winter use.

A Lost Bundle.—Yesterday a widow who came in with the last immigrant company, while removing from one part of the city to another, lost a bundle of bedding on First West Street, between Third and Fourth South. A man with a team was observed to pick it up. The finder will please leave it at this office for the owner.

A Success.—The entertainment given in the 21st Ward Meeting House, last evening was a success, financially and otherwise. The house was crowded, many being compelled to stand. The performance was well rendered. The proceeds are to be devoted to the purchase of books for the Sabbath School.

Returned to his Post.—Mr. J. H. Nott, of the Eagle House, has just returned to business very much elated after an interesting visit to his farm. He is in ecstasies over the abundant crop of potatoes and cabbages, and as for pumpkins, no one ever saw the like before. He looks much the better for his trip, and is once more ready to hand out the groceries at S. P. Teasdale's.

The Commercial Street Case.—This morning James Carter, the brutal negro who was committed for an outrage upon a little girl yesterday, was before Justice Spiers on a charge of lascivious conduct with Mrs. Stevens and Annie Lemon. He was fined $50. Mrs. Stevens, for the same offense, was fined in the same sum, and Annie Lemon, $50.

Carter was also charged with resisting an officer, to which he pleaded guilty, and was fined $50.

Another Demand.—To-day Wm. Nelson, appointee of the Governor to the office of County Clerk, called upon Mr. D. Backholt, the incumbent of the position, presented his official commission and made a formal demand that the office and its appurtenances be handed over to him.

It is probably not necessary to state that Mr. Backholt did not rush out of office to make a permanent place for the ex-United States Marshal.

Theatre To-Night.—Hazel Kirke is one of those dramas, of a domestic character, the depth of whose pathos strikes the deeper sympathies of the heart. In the dramatic world it occupies a similar place to that of some of the simple yet masterly compositions in the musical. No matter how often performed, the public taste never fails upon it. It will be played to-night by the Madison Square Theatre Company. It is not necessary to amplify upon the play nor its performers. Both are of the highest class.

Arrival of Missionaries.—The S. S. Abysynia, which sailed from New York August 29th and arrived at Liverpool September 8th, brought the following named missionaries from Utah: Wm. H. Wright, Chas. Tietjen, Hans Poulsen, Charles E. Anderson, N. W. Anderson, John Capen, P. Christensen, L. H. Outson, Hans J. Brun, Anders Jensen, Halvor Olsen, Jeppe Monson, Jeppe Nilsen, Peter Kroge, Hans Anderson, Jacob J. H. Jensen, N. C. Staugaard, Nils Johnson and Christian J. Christensen. All but Wm. H. Wright and Peter Kroge are destined for Scandinavia. The company had an exceedingly pleasant voyage over the Atlantic, and arrived here in excellent health and spirits. Millennial Star, September 11th.

Emery County.—John Donaldson writes from Castle Dale, Emery County, Sept. 20th:

"The majority of settlers here are of a sturdy, able bodied men, thrifty and industrious, and the country is growing rapidly. Our population amounts to about 30 families. The late conference, by common consent, agreed to divide us into two wards. The upper place derives its name from Orange Seely; the having led the first company into this valley is called Orangeville Ward. The lower here are good in general."

The Denver & Rio Grande Western Railway is started up again, freighters and grading teams are passing by hundreds. Grain will sell for a good price this fall. Dewy, Res & Company's grist mill is doing good business, and their lumber mill is a great help to this valley. Lumber, first class, is 3 cents per foot; second class, 2 1/2 cents; shingles, $1.50 per thousand; in Tor Valley, about 27 miles from here."

Accidentally Hurt.—About 10 o'clock this morning Mr. A. Barker, the noted base ball pitcher, had a narrow escape from being killed, at the Utah Central depot. He was engaged in switching, or "kicking" some cars. An accidentally misplaced switch caused a caboose and coach to run up the wrong track and collide with some cars that were standing on it. Fortunately Mr. Barker was standing in the open door of a car when the collision occurred, and was thrown backward into the interior. Had the door been closed he would doubtless have been killed. As it was his right hand was badly crushed, the middle knuckle being almost flattened and other portions of the member very badly bruised. The injury was surgically attended to by Dr. Richards.

The Religious Belief Test.—As stated in yesterday's News the persons selected for grand jurors in the District Court were put through a regular test of questioning in relation to their belief in the righteousness in polygamy, by Mr. P. T. Van Zile.

The prosecuting attorney asked Joseph W. Sumner, whether he believed it to be right for a man to have more than one wife. The answer being that he believed the revelation received by Joseph Smith on the subject of polygamy to be from God. He was challenged and excused. W. Campbell was similarly interrogated and answered that he had not made up his mind on the subject.

Question.—Do you believe in the revelation of polygamy as given by Joseph Smith in the Book of Doctrine and Covenants?

Answer.—I have never seen any such revelation on polygamy; have read the book through, but never saw such revelation. I have been taught that we can believe and practice any portion of the doctrine of Mormonism. I have never seen anything purporting to be a revelation on the subject of polygamy; have never read the revelation, and am positive that it is not in the book.

Mr. Van Zile asked him if he would believe it if he showed him the revelation, and then sent a messenger to his residence for a copy of the Book of Doctrine and Covenants.

Mr. Van Zile then asked him if he thought it right for a man to live in polygamy, and that would be juror answered, "Yes, if he thought it right and justified himself."

Question.—Does he belong to the Mormon Church, do you think it right for him to live in polygamy? Ans.—I do if he believes in it. Mr. Campbell was challenged and excused.

C. W. Tewkesbury was excused on similar grounds.

William Naylor was asked by Mr. Van Zile if he believed it right for a man to have more than one wife at a time. He answered: "I did believe polygamy right up to 1862. I believe all who entered into it since broke the law. I believe in the revelation of Joseph Smith, but don't believe in it against the laws. I never saw any one marry two polygamy."

Mr. Naylor was retained on the panel.

Thomas Pierrepont said, in answer to the belief-in-polygamy question: "I believe in the book of Doctrine and Covenants; I believe the doctrine of polygamy a true principle irrespective of any religious doctrine. I believe it right for men to enter into polygamy; I believe it is right for a man to live with more than one wife."

He was challenged and excused.

Edward Chelgrove, in answer to questions on polygamy, said he believed it right for a man to have and live with more than one wife. He also was challenged and excused.

Have You Seen It?—Have you seen the comet? If not you can obtain a splendid view of it by rising early to-morrow morning, and looking towards the east, when, if it be not cloudy, you will observe the tail appearing at about half-past four, over the depression in the mountains, immediately above Fort Douglas. The tail is of such a length, pointing upwards and southwards at an angle of about forty-five degrees, that it was "near five o'clock yesterday morning when the comet and tail entire were visible above the horizon. It appeared to be traveling directly towards the sun, but it is not so, having reached its perihelion—or point nearest the sun—several days ago, and is now receding; consequently will rise to view earlier each morning until it reaches its aphelion, should it continue to be visible. It is scarcely discernible with the naked eye after sunrise, now nearly an hour later, when it seems to blend with the rays of the sun. The earlier view of it gives a magnificent appearance to the aerial light of the tail, which later on is somewhat dimmed with the increasing daylight of morning. Comets are generally more or less deficient to sight, but this one presents a clear view of its nucleus, coma and tail, forming altogether a most brilliant object on the morning sky. This particular comet has been spoken of quite frequently of late in our telegraphic dispatches, and day before yesterday mention was made of its having been seen at 4 a.m. in Florida. It is expected to increase in brilliancy for the next several days; but as these heavenly bodies are very erratic in their course, it is advisable to "interview" it forthwith, and its display will well repay the trouble of "getting out early."

Good Bye, Old Shipmates.—There was a fair audience last night to witness the last presentation of "Old Shipmates." Despite some incongruities in the plot, and other defects that could readily be remedied, this is a most attractive play, and excellently performed in the main. Its most acceptable features are its intensity, heartiness, and the unflaggingly lively vein running through it from beginning to end. Mr. Mordant's acting is very fine, and most of the other members of the company also acquit themselves with credit, but Dan Denney is represented as too broadly absurd; too ugly and dirty in appearance and ridiculous in behavior. If that character were remodeled from the appearance and style of a wharf rat to a hearty and half way respectable seaman, the tone of the play would be raised. If Arne Omed Johnny were also, reformed, so that the character would have some in low comedy, instead of depicting himself after the fashion of a "unimpaired idiot," the drama would gain by the change. With these two exceptions the characters are good. Indeed few dramas put upon the stage are more pleasing than "Old Shipmates."

Wants a Situation.—Robert Brown, an experienced miller, who arrived with the last immigrants, would like to get a situation at this trade.

County Convention.—The delegates to the People's County Convention should be on hand Saturday at noon sharp, at the City Hall, with their credentials properly signed, and ready to attend to business.

The Ogden Appointees.—This afternoon at 3 o'clock, in the office of the Probate Court, the following gentlemen who have been appointed by the Governor under the provisions of the Hor Amendment, to various offices, presented their bonds to Judge Richards: M. H. Beardsley, Selectman; Thomas H. Black, Justice of the Peace, of Ogden Precinct; R. W. Cross, Clerk of the County Court; A. R. Heywood, Prosecuting Attorney, and Oscar Vanderhook, Sheriff. The bonds of E. W. Smout as Selectman and Thomas Slater for Justice of the Peace, for Slaterville precinct, were also presented by James N. Kintall. The gentlemen stepped up one after the other and submitted their bonds to Judge Richards, who took them and stated that he would take the matter under consideration and give an answer to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock. —Pilot

The Cappian Concert.—The concert to be rendered in the Salt Lake Theatre on Tuesday night is being looked forward to with considerable interest by lovers of music generally. We find the following in the Benton, (Montana) Record in connection with a report of a concert given by the lady in that town:

Signora Cappian has a rich, fine soprano voice of great compass and was heartily applauded and encored in every piece she sang. Before singing she said that as she felt very sad that evening, she would sing among which was the favorite one of Jennie Lind, (Mme. Goldschmidt) and then sang "On the Mountain." Her short discourse upon the advantages of general and musical education was listened to very attentively and approvingly by the large audience, and her marked foreign accent in speaking English made it perfectly apparent to every one that it was not her studied, but spoken thoughts as suggested to her while singing. It consisted principally in good advice and valuable hints as to musical education and the good influences it has upon not only the individual, but also upon the family happiness and independence, and consequently upon any community at large.

Dr. B. J. Kendall & Co.—Gentle—

I have a very fine mare that has tried every thing man could devise to cure it, but all in vain, and was about to give it up when a friend of mine in this city came to me and recommended Kendall's Spavin Cure, which I tried with grand results, removing that bone clear and clean. Then I sent 25 cents to you for one of your illustrated horse books, and I think there is no better book printed on the horse and his diseases. I have taken great interest in it, and have since sold eighteen copies for me to my neighbors, and will try and do what good I can by getting them for others. Yours truly,

G. W. MILLER.

TO THE PEOPLE.

The high tuition exacted by professors of music has placed its acquirement in the hands of comparatively few, and beyond the reach of many. Hundreds of dollars are sometimes spent in obtaining a knowledge of music, and many who are glad to continue lessons, having once made a good start, who are prevented by circumstances. The public demand a change. In the interest of THE PEOPLE we have arranged a system of classes for piano, organ, and guitar, whereby the youth of our city who have not already engaged teachers, can have an opportunity of learning music, without the prospect of either a thorough course at much less expense than by the old method of individual lessons. Those preferring the latter can also be accommodated at reasonable rates. We have noted with pleasure the good work of Brother Evan Stephens. His success should encourage us all to work for the good of the people at large.

Now we have it. Four of those large tin types, at the Gem Tent, corner of South and First, are for sale for 50 cents, formerly $1.00. Will remain two weeks longer. —Pilot
