In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court, at my office in Salt Lake City, this 7th day of June, A. D. 1880. D. BOCKHOLT, Clerk.

Financial Statement for the fiscal year ending May 31, 1880, presented by the County Clerk, filed June 7, 1880. E. SMITH, Probate Judge.

Audited and approved by the Court, this 27th day of September, A.D. 1880. E. SMITH, Probate Judge. F. M. WELLES, Selectman. REUBEN MILLER, S. R. BENNING.

The promised sermon of the Brooklyn phenomenon, T. De Witt Talmage, was actually delivered yesterday before an audience of five thousand, so the dispatches tell us. In the course of his harangue he insisted on having all polygamists sent to prison. If his ecclesiastical soul feels relieved after this delivery, he will have perhaps done all he expected to do. It would be uncharitable to think he had done less than this, but he has certainly done no more.
