Regulation Papers Finally Arrived and Prisoners Were Arraigned-Released But at Once Rearrested.

Immediately after being released on habeas corpus proceedings in Judge Armstrong's division of the distriet court. Harry and Leora Morgan, were rearrested on a complaint charging them with being fugitives from justice. The warrant was served by Officer William Hilton. In the afternoon the Morgans_were tak-n before Judge C. B. Diehl, in the riminal division of the city court. The expected requisition papers from the governor of Oregon had not prived when the defendants were ar-Atty, William Newton, coun aigned. sel for the accused, contended his clients should not be held. that the Morgans started to leave the court room, at counsel's suggestion, they were seized by officers, and soon there was a mix up such as police head-quarters has not seen in many a day. Grarters has not seen in many a day. Capt. Burbidge laid hold of Mor-gan, and had no difficulty in getting him into the guarded passageway leading to the jail. Detective Day of Portland, was not so fortunate. Mrs. Morgan landed a blow on the detec-tive's face that nearly knocked him out. She struck everybody in sight. WOUNDS, BRUISES AND BURNS.

WOUNDS, BRUISES AND BURNS. By applying an antiseptic drossing to wounds, bruises, burns and like infuries before inflammation sets in, they may be healed without maturation and in about one-third the time roquired by the old treatment. This is the greatest discovery and trumph of modern surgery. Cham-berlain's Pala Balm acts on this same principle. It is antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness and prevents any danger of blood poisoning. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the in-convenience and suffering such injuries entail. For sale by all druggists.

First Session Held-The first se of the Utah Association of Optomeirists was held in the Atlas block jast evening. A legislative committee of three was appointed to handle the question of abolishing pedlers and irresponsible people claiming to cians, as follows: O. R. Diblee, J. Rushmer and C. R. Murchison, A banquet was given after the meeting at Franklin's by the Utah Optical con pany represented by Dr. R. W. Davnes.

Slim Attendance-There was nothlog done at the council committe meetings last night as only four coun eilmen showed up. Those preset committee present were Carter, Crabtree, Fernstrom and Hobday, Supt. W. P. Read of the Utah Light and Rallway company, there to ask the streets commit-to postpone the macadamizing of certain streets upon which the com-pany intends to lay double tracks. No action was taken on the matter at all hut it will be considered by the con and a report submitted to the council.

George Thompson Here—George W. Thompson, representing Santa Cata-lina Island Steamship company, is a guest at the Cullen where he was clerk 17 years ago. Mr. Thompson reports the Island in a prosperous condition as it is participating in the good times of southern California, and says one can count 500 houses in pro-cess of erection in Los Angeles, some of the buildings being eight storles high. Building permits to the amount of $1,000,000 monthly, are being issued, and more luniber is being un-loaded at San Pedro than comes into San Francisco.

number of both city and country there is no doubt that the farewell pre-sentation Monday night will be given before a full house.

Orpheum-Lillian Ashley, the girl who tells stories and sings songs at the Orpheum, announces that at the close of tomorrow's matinee she will hold : reception on the stage for the children present when candy and other goodies will be in order. Miss Ashley was around town this morning purchasing doll which she intends presenting te the little girl who tells her the best true child's story. If it is a good one she will tell it herself during the evening performance.

Grand-Theodore Lotch and his eading lady. Miss Josephine Defity, lrew a crowded house at the Grand drew a crowded house at the Grand last evening, in a presentation of "My Partner." The piece does not give either of the principals an opportunity to display the unusual talents which they are known to possess, but it can be said that each of them brought out about all that was in the story, and that too in a manner that was highly pleasing to the audience. The tale is woven from threads of California sold woven from threads of California gold field lore. Two partners in a placer claim, love, unknowing to each other, the same motherless girl. One of them wrongs her and the friendship of years is broken between the men. As the is broken between the men. As the wrong is about to be righted, the erring partner is slain by a meddler who hap-pens to learn of the secret. The re-maining partner, impersonated by Mr. Lorch, is accused of the erime and is avaid from the sellours of the last met saved from the gallows at the last mo-ment, after having saved the honor of the woman he loved.

The next engagement of the company will be "The Sign of the Four," a Sherlock Holmes story, in the playing of which Mr. Lorch has become fa-mons in the west. It will hold the boards for the first half of next week.

Lyric-Tonight's performance of "The Power of Truth" will be the last of this successful comedy drama, and a big advance sale indicates a crowded house. At tomorrow's matinee "The Two Orphans" will receive its initial presentation with all the necessary scenic and costame embellishments. A delightful afternoon's entertainment is guaranteed at modest prices within the reach of all.

AN AWFUL COUGH CURED.

"Two years ago our little girl had a touch of proumonia, which left her with an awful cough. She had spells of cough-ing, just like use with the whorning cough and some thought she would not get well at all. We got a bothe of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which act-ed like a charm. She stopped cough-ing and got stout and fat." writes Mrs. Ora Bossard, Brubaker, III. This remely le for sale by all druggists.
