THE DESERT HOSPITAL, UNDER the most favorable auspices, is now open for the reception of patients. The building is moved to that large and commodious building lately occupied by the Deseret University, and the appointments are new and of the first order. The halls and rooms are thoroughly ventilated, and warmed by a forced hot water system. The food and drink are of the best quality, and every attention paid to the comfort and convenience of the patients. The medical department comprises a staff of the most valuable and experienced physicians and surgeons, and every instrument and appliance ever used in surgery and medicine. The hospital is located in a quiet and healthy neighborhood, and is a specialty made of the diseases of women, and correspondence is solicited from the afflicted.
