

MRS. CHADWICK STARTS FOR OHIO.

Declares that Her Sole Purpose in Going is to Face Her Creditors.

SAYS SHE WILL PAY HER DEBTS

Could Have Secured Bail—Many Statements that Have Appeared Are Absolutely False.

New York, Dec. 13.—Mrs. Chadwick started for Cleveland on the Buffalo limited train, which left the Grand Central station over the New York Central, at 8 o'clock tonight. Before leaving she declared that she would pay all her obligations, and that her sole purpose in going was to face her creditors. She said she could have obtained bail here if she had wished to, and that one of the most prominent men in the country had offered today to go on her bond.

Mrs. Chadwick left in custody of United States Marshal Henkel and two deputy marshals. Marshal Henkel said that he would leave the train at Poughkeepsie, but the deputies would go on to Cleveland with the prisoner. The train is scheduled to arrive in Cleveland at 11:50 tomorrow morning. Before leaving the United States marshal's office, Mrs. Chadwick, at the suggestion of her counsel, Philip Carpenter, consented to an interview with the newspaper men who were waiting. She was shortly before 7 o'clock when the reporters were admitted to Mr. Henkel's office, where Mrs. Chadwick was awaiting them. She was reclining on a couch and appeared particularly calm. She was the absolute mistress of herself and either smiled as she made her statements or gave way to an expression of bitterness.

"Many statements that have appeared are absolutely false," she began. "I have read statements in one or two papers that are absolutely false. I am physically and mentally broken down. I am not in any condition to make a statement."

"It is not true that I called to Dr. Chadwick this morning. Dr. Chadwick called this morning, and that gentleman will appear in the Cleveland Plain Dealer tomorrow morning. I am going home for the sole purpose of facing my creditors and the charges they have made against me. I am going home voluntarily, and not because I could not obtain bail. Since my arrest I have had offers of bail from many prominent persons. Isn't that so, Mr. Carpenter?" she asked, turning to her counsel.

"Yes, that's true," he replied. "Tolly bail was offered to me by one of the most prominent men in Cleveland by telegraph," said Mrs. Chadwick. "He said that he would bring him here to furnish any amount of bail that would be wanted."

"I have had at least half a dozen prominent persons offer me bail," she continued. "There was no reason why I could not get bail. I am not going to answer any questions," said Mrs. Chadwick when one of the reporters asked her to disclose the identity of the persons who made the offer.

"As I said before, I am a wreck. The way my son and maid have been harassed by you young men is absolutely embarrassing. I want it understood that I am going home simply because it is the place where I should be. I shall not give bail when I get to Cleveland. I have the best motive in the world for not doing so. The history of this case from beginning to end will be published in a certain newspaper."

"You will call names, won't you?" interrupted Mr. Carpenter. "I shall use names," corrected Mrs. Chadwick.

"I promised to give out my story, and it may take weeks to get it out. It may be, however, that it will be published tomorrow, next week, or in a month, but certainly not until all my obligations are paid. I have not tried to flee from anyone, not even from the newspaper men," she continued with a smile. "When you young men thought I was sick at the Holland House, I walked out right by you and went to the Fifth Avenue hotel, and afterwards took a cab back to the Holland house to bed."

"I left the Holland House one night and went out walking between two of the most prominent men in New York City. I had dinner with them at Henry's and came back and you did not see me."

"Every night that it was reported you had committed suicide you went out, didn't you, Mrs. Chadwick?" asked Mr. Carpenter.

"Yes, I left the Holland at 8 o'clock and went to the home of one of the most prominent men in New York and stayed there until 11:30. When I returned to the hotel the elevator man who took me upstairs winked at me and whispered: 'The newspaper men committed suicide.' I said to him: 'Let them say what they please. I will not say anything about my relations with Mr. Carnegie,'" she was asked.

"I am not going to be questioned," she replied. "I have nothing to say about Mr. Carnegie and nothing to say about anyone else. I want to say only that I have not been committed to return to Cleveland. If the grand jury had indicted me for murder, I would have gone back just the same. For the past week I have been wanting to go back. Isn't that so, Mr. Carpenter?"

"That's so," said the lawyer. "I was ready to go back a week ago last Saturday," declared Mrs. Chadwick. "I had all my things packed, but they wanted me to go down to Wall street."

Mrs. Chadwick would not say who meant. "The result was that I did not get better than I did a week ago, but am just nervous and I can hardly stand on my feet."

"I cannot express in words my gratitude for the many kindnesses shown me by United States Marshal Henkel. I think that a great many of you if it had not been for Mr. Henkel I would not have been able to get off today." Mrs. Chadwick was taken from the car shortly before 4 o'clock. An hour after Mr. Carpenter had gone to the office of United States District Attorney Burdett, he had his client would waive extradition. Marshal Henkel and Commissioner Shields were notified at the same time.

At the Tombs, in deference to the protest of Mrs. Chadwick, Warden Flynn permitted Henkel's carriage to be driven into the courtyard in order that the prisoner might avoid the battery of cameras. The party drove rapidly to $500 Reward For Women Who Cannot Be Cured.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering a $500 reward in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Protrusion, or Falling of Womb which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

"I used four bottles of your 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery,'" writes Mrs. Hester D. Steiner, of Mount Hope, Lancaster Co., Pa., "and can say that I am cured of that dreaded disease, uterine trouble. Am in better health than ever before. Every one who knows me is surprised to see me look so well. In June I was so poor in health that I could not get out of bed. Today I am cured. I tell everybody that Dr. Pierce's medicines cured me."

the federal building, and the woman was returned to the marshal's office, one by one herself and Marshal Henkel being escorted to the federal building. Arriving in the marshal's office, the woman almost collapsed.

Commissioner Shields was notified and he came to the office, cancelled the commitment and formally delivered her over to the federal authorities. She was then taken before Judge Adams of the United States circuit court, who signed an order for her removal to Cleveland.

Mrs. Chadwick was hysterical when she returned to the marshal's office and it required the combined efforts of the marshal and Mr. Carpenter to soothe her.

After her meeting with the reporters, Mrs. Chadwick waited in the marshal's office until time to leave for the Grand Central station, when she came out leaning heavily on Marshal Henkel's arm and that of Mr. Carpenter. With deputy marshals guarding them, the party walked to the elevator and descended to the street. There Mrs. Chadwick was assisted into the carriage and was at once driven away.

When the carriage reached the Hotel Breelin at Twenty-ninth street and Broadway, the party stopped and Marshal Henkel went into the hotel. Mrs. Chadwick, who was waiting with the maid, who carried several bundles. She, with Marshal Henkel and one of the deputies accompanied Mrs. Chadwick to the station. The maid accompanied Mrs. Chadwick to Cleveland.

Emil Chadwick is already there. Tickets had been procured in the afternoon and the party went at once to where the Buffalo limited, which was waiting and which was in a drawing room compartment in the last car, which is also equipped with berths.

WHY SHE GOES BACK.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Dec. 13.—"I am going back to Cleveland of my own free will and accord to face my accusers," said Mrs. Chadwick on the train. "I would have returned ten days ago had I not been asked by my lawyer to counsel to stay away so that I would not have to testify in the preliminary hearing against my good friends, Beckwith and Spear. When I get to Cleveland, I will make a fight for the securities that Mr. Reynolds holds and for the deed of trust. When I do make the fight, people will know that I never received one dollar dishonestly."

"Within the next few days I shall give out a most complete statement of all my transactions from beginning to end and I will tell everything that has occurred, and I will call things by their names."

"I wish to deny emphatically that I ever secured one dollar from Henry Phillips or from any Phillips. I further wish to say that while I have had money from Pittsburgh people, I have never had a particle of Pittsburgh paper. I see that it has been stated by Mrs. Chadwick to Cleveland."

Our Local Druggists, Druhl & Franken, Guarantee Vinol Will Cure Them.

Said Mr. Druhl of Druhl & Franken, "This is the season for coughs and colds, and for the benefit of Salt Lake City people I want to tell them the best means for a cure."

"Don't dose the stomach with cough syrups. It is no use; they only soothe a little—upset the stomach and do not heal at all."

"The best cure we know is Vinol, which contains in a highly concentrated form all of the healing, curative elements taken from genuine fresh cod liver, without a drop of oil or grease to upset the stomach and retard its work. It contains no sickening drugs whatever. Vinol is splendid for colds, or bronchitis, cough, it heals, cures and strengthens the sore lungs and bronchial tubes. It makes rich, red blood, builds up the appetite and creates strength; in fact, it is the best remedy we have ever sold in our store for chronic coughs, colds, bronchitis, and all lung affections."

"Besides the large number of Salt Lake City people who have been cured, we receive many letters like the following: 'Hon. H. Mason of Jacksonville, Fla., writes: 'A couple of months ago I contracted a severe cold, which it seemed impossible to cure. It settled on my lungs, causing a hard cough, which kept me awake nights, and soon weakened my system so that I was unable to attend to my duties. Vinol was recommended to me by a friend and I began to take it as directed. The second night I had only one coughing spell, and within a week I was not disturbed once during the night.'"

"Naturally my progress was fast after this, and my lungs healed rapidly, my strength returned, and I gained in flesh and health. In fact, this medicine restored me to a perfect condition, and now I feel much better and younger than I have for years. I certainly think it is a wonderful remedy to build up a run-down system."

"We ask every person in Salt Lake City who has a chronic cough or hard cold to try Vinol on our guarantee to return their money if they are not satisfied." Druhl & Franken; also Smith Drug Co.

that I decided to leave New York because I was afraid to face Mr. Carnegie. I fully expected he would go to Cleveland tonight."

"Positively, Dr. Chadwick never left me because of my financial difficulties or anything that was said against my reputation, or for any other cause. He has called me several times since my trouble in New York asking if he can do anything or if he should come home. I have insisted in every instance that he remain in Paris as his presence here is unnecessary and I deem it advisable that he continue the medical treatment he is receiving there."

"I appreciate the statement of Mrs. Hetty Green. She told me feelings in this affair even better than I could do myself, and she evidently realized that I am what I am—an innocent woman. It is the acknowledged fact that I have raised more than $1,000,000, and if I had wanted to take even a small part of it and go away, could not I have done so long before this?"

Mrs. Chadwick was asked: "Is it true, as published, that the $6,000,000 securities held by Mr. Reynolds are worthless?"

"Now, you are asking me questions," she said, and she refused to pay more on the question of securities.

Chicago, Dec. 12.—The University of Chicago is the recipient of another gift from John D. Rockefeller, according to a report of the advisory committee of the Baptist Theological union.

Between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000 is said to be the amount of the endowment. The money, it is said, is to be used for the creation of a school of engineering.

Protests Against Alaska's Gov.

Washington, Dec. 12.—Confirmation of J. G. Brady, nominated for the office of governor of Alaska, was objected to in the senate today in behalf of Senator Fairbanks. Protests against Brady have been prepared by representatives of commercial interests of Alaska, and by many residents of the territory. There were no charges against him other than that he was not the choice of the people of Alaska. The nomination was ordered recommitted and hearings will probably be had before the committee on territories.

Sir Thomas Lipton Sued.

New York, Dec. 12.—H. H. H. Davies has begun suit against Sir Thomas Lipton for $50,000, alleging defamation of character. He also asks for $5,000 additional expenses, which he says, were incurred by him at Sir Thomas Lipton's suggestion at the Waldorf-Astoria and other places during the yacht race.

In the result of an action brought in London over a year ago by Sir Thomas Lipton against Mr. Davies, Davies was ordered to pay Sir Thomas Lipton $10,000 for an alleged overdraw for salary amounting to $50, which is now being arbitrated.

Ames Jury Discharged.

Minneapolis, Minn., Dec. 11.—The jury in the fifth trial of former Mayor Ames for bribery has been discharged, and was dismissed by Judge Elliott. This is the fourth time that the jury has been discharged having been overruled by the supreme court.

Favors Reciprocal Tariff.

San Francisco, Dec. 12.—Among the arrivals on the steamship Ventura was Auckland's senior member of the New Zealand Parliament, Hon. J. H. Witherford. He is on his way to Washington, where he hopes to interest the officials of state in a plan for a reciprocal tariff between this country and the Australian colonies.

Will Buy American Equipment.

Seattle, Wash., Dec. 12.—Chin Gee Hee, proprietor of the Quong Tuck company, returned yesterday from a trip to China, bringing with him an order for equipment for the construction of a new railroad to run from Sun Ning northward into the province of Canton. Ultimately the line will be extended to Fushan to connect with a line running to Canton.

Chinese capitalists behind the new railroad, natives of the district living in this country are aiding the Chinese of Sun Ning to put through the road. American equipment was chosen in preference to English.

PRISONERS ESCAPE.

Ten Convicts Cut Their Way One of Fort Baker Prison.

San Rafael, Cal., Dec. 12.—A break has been made at Fort Baker and 10 United States prisoners have escaped. The names of the escapees are Thomas Mills, Richard Wells, Charles Paulstetter, George F. Perry, O. S. Smith, Charles Stuart, S. Stevens, W. A. Clark, D. Thorne and Clyde Smith. They made their escape by cutting through the walls of the prison during the night.

A squad of soldiers are scouring the hills and Sheriff Taylor has a posse out. The prisoners are supposed to be armed and a bad result if they are caught as some of them are dangerous men. There is a reward of $50 offered for the capture of each prisoner.

Trusts in Germany.

Berlin, Dec. 12.—In the reichstag today during a discussion of a resolution asking the government to introduce a bill instituting a system of compulsory insurance for artisan workers, Count von Posadowsky-Wehner, home secretary, warned the representatives of the interests of the so-called middle class against awakening hopes in the minds of artisans for state aid, which can never be realized. Count Posadowsky-Wehner regretted that the tendency against combinations of capital had grown so strong in Germany. Laws against trusts and pools are demanded, but no state has yet given a satisfactory model of such legislation. "In America," he said, "a law against trusts exists, but we all know it is without effect. Whenever a law of that kind is made it must become effective in removing excess without checking trusts in whatever makes for progress and civilization. We must not make a law of which it can be said: 'You can drive a four-horse team through it.'"

Army Not a Barefooted Mob.

Mukden, Dec. 12.—Telegraphic reports and extracts from newspapers picturing the Russian army as a barefooted mob have been received here. Although there are occasional cases of this nature the condition is by no means general. In the summer many went barefooted on the wet ground and over the rivers, but now all have shoes and nearly all have fur coats. Some few retailers sell their outfits for drinks, but the number is insignificant.

Bravery Cross for Tolstol's Son.

Mukden, Dec. 12.—Count Tolstol's son, Andre, who is an orderly attached to Lieut.-Gen. Soboleff's Sixth army corps has received the St. George's cross for bravery in carrying dispatches. He particularly distinguished himself during the severe fighting of Oct. 14, while Soboleff's troops were preventing Gen. Oku's movement, which threatened to turn the Russian right.
