PRICE OF GOLD.
Correspondence by BANK OF DENVER.
SALT LAKE CITY, MARCH 16, 1872.
Buying at $1.00, selling at $1.01.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

SHARP RISE IN THE PRICE OF GOLD.
TAKEN FROM THE MARKET BY THE DENVER BANK, AND THE PRICE OF GOLD HAS RISEN TO $1.01 PER OUNCE.

THE DENVER BANK HAS BEEN THE CAUSE OF THE RISE IN THE PRICE OF GOLD.

LATE.—It is late in the day to begin a system of judicial penance, on polygamy and infidelity and imprisonment every man who has more wives than the law elsewhere allows.

THE ELECTION.—On Monday next, March 19, the electors throughout the Territory will have the privilege of casting their votes upon the State Constitution, and also for a Representative to Congress and Senators and Representatives to the Legislative Assembly of the State of Nevada.

Of course every lawful voter, male or female, who desires the welfare of the Territory, will be at the polls, to deposit his or her vote. This should be considered a matter of duty, and every one should make every necessary exertion to prevent his or her absence from the polls.

ATTENTION.—A citizen residing on North Temple street, says that the City Clerk acquiesces in the fact that the proper authorities, as it is filled with brush, old tin, boots, and other debris, which has accumulated at various points, and the City Clerk has refused to remove it, and the City Clerk has refused to remove it, and the City Clerk has refused to remove it.

THEATRE.—The performance to-night opens with the fine comedy, "From Frou," and finishes with that "fun-creating farce," "The Dead Shot," and there will be a dance by Mr. Matt Williams and Master Willie Clawson between the pieces.

The occasion is the benefit of Miss A. A. Adams, who is deserving of public notice for her fine impersonation of the excellent bill and the appreciation of the talents of the benefactor should draw a large audience.

RICHMOND.—A letter from Bishop M. W. Merrill, of Richmond, Cal., dated March 14th, says, "We have organized a card party club here. The people take much interest in it, and quite a sum of money has been sent out for seeds."

A Durham bull has been bought and will be here soon, and arrangements are being made for the purchase of more improved stock. The desire to improve our horses, cattle, sheep and swine is increasing among the people.

The lot on which our Hall stands is nearly fenced in, the walk leading to the entrance are paved.

THE MORMON CONTROVERSY.—At the present juncture, the Mormon controversy seems to depend on a question of veracity between Judge McKean and our quondam fellow-citizen, George Bates. McKean says the "department of justice" known as Utah is dissatisfied with the course of Bates in the Mormon prosecutions, and that Bates should resign. Bates, though he has receded from Washington an indication that his resignation will be accepted, refuses to resign, because, he says, no charges have been preferred against him, and the "department of justice" known as Utah is "entirely satisfied with his course in the Mormon prosecutions."

As McKean is widely celebrated for a consistent truth, it must be Judge McKean who has prevailed.—Chicago Times.

CAUCUS MEETING AT OGDEN.—The Junction, of a number of the citizens of Ogden met in the City Hall for the purpose of choosing delegates to the Convention which is to be held at the 21st District School House, on day, at 11 a. m.

The Chairman was requested by vote of the meeting to nominate three gentlemen as delegates to the Convention. The following names, which were unanimously sustained by the meeting: Robt. McQuarrie, Wm. Brown and Jeffrey Dinsdale.

A WIDE DIFFERENCE.—While pluralism is the common law of the Latter-day Saints, the proportion of practical pluralists among them is said to be not more than one in three or four. While pluralism is outlawed among us of the earlier dispensation, the proportion of practical pluralists is a thing we shall be compelled to permit every one to estimate for himself. Washington bears few of the appearance of a harbor for expurgates or anchorites. Its socialism is so constructed, or reconstructed, as to offer every desired facility to amatory enterprises, and whatever willingness of spirit there may be to resist temptation, the world has lived long enough to have learned that the most potent things in their dominion over men are their "weaknesses."

When a Latter-day Saint becomes erotically inclined toward one of the other sex, he marries her; takes her to his bosom and his bosom; gives her a good education, and a name; lives—as far as is consistent with transitory human things—her fortune and places her upon equal terms with the reputable matrons of the land. When a member of Congress—no, the special designation, will be extended to every man who is a member of Congress, and a member of Congress is a man who is a member of Congress, and a member of Congress is a man who is a member of Congress.
