Mrs. Percy Somers Cocks and Mr

Francis Leon Woodmansee, assisted by Mr. George Skelton, gave a delightful musical recital last night at the Congregational church, a large audience asembling to enjoy the evenin program opened with Mascheroni's "Ave Maria," with violin obligato, Mrs. Cocks rendering the song in delightful Mascheroni's style. This, with the three charming songs by Mr. Woodmansee, and "The Year's at the Spring," were perhaps the favorites, though the three ballads, "Kathleen Mavourneen," Moore's "Fare-well, But Whenver You Welcome the Hour,' 'and the pretty Irish love SONK were greatly enjoyed. Mr. Woodman-see's rendition was marked by the bril-liance and artistic finish which usually distinguish his playing, and Mr. ton's violin renditions were especially appreciated, Grieg's Sonata for plane and violin giving his talent excellent play. The entire program was delight-ful and much enjoyed by those present. Mrs. Thomas Jennings and Miss Hat
