In Afternoon.

HE WAS A BAD DISH SMASHER.

Three Unhappy Women Secure Their Freedom in Judge Morse's Court

Yesterday in Short Order.

Three divorces resulted from the regular weekly divorce hearing yesterday afternoon in Judge Morse's court Lucy J. Wagstaff made quick work of her case. She filed her complaint against Fred G. Wagstaff yesterday morning charging him with drunkenness and cruelty. Yesterday afternoon she appeared before Judge Morse and told her story and was given a divorce as well as the custody of their two children and $30 per month alimony.

The principal offense committed by Wagstaff was coming home drunk and

GRANTED A SOUVENIR.

Edna Lamb Williams testified that

Edna Lamb Williams testined that her husband, Jesse F. Williams, de-serted her just a year ago yesterday. Hence she was granted a divorce as a souvenir of that occasion. They were married at Challis. Ida., on June 30, 1903, and she declared that her husband left her and went to the Indian Terri-tory just a year ago. He owns a left her and went to the Indian Terri-tory just a year ago. He owns a ranch valued at about $7.000, hence the court awarded Mrs. Williams alimony in the sum of $30 per month. She was slso awarded the custody of their child. Jean F. Birdell told the court of the cruch treatment she had received at the hands of Thomas F. Birdell and of his failure to support her but she did not have enough corroborative evidence hence the case was continued for one week. She declared that her husband kicked her out of bed and otherwise mistreated her.

SUIT ON PREMIUMS:

An action has been filed in the district court by the Maryland Casualty com-pany against the Century Gold Mining company to recover the total sum of 3430 alleged to be due as premiums on accident insurance carried by the com-pany for its employes. The premiums were based on a certain percentage of the total payrolls of the company and it is alleged that the company, misrep-resented the amount of the payrolls hence it owes the insurance company the additional sum mentioned above.

the additional sum mentioned above.

CATTLE WERE STARVED. CATTLE WERE STARVED. Max Fisher, Samuel Pepper and Bur-ris Beck, live stock dealers of Denver, have filed an action in the district court against the San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake Railroad company to recover damages in the sum of $1,280 for inju-ries to a shipment of 236 head of critie which were delayed while in transit and some were starved, others were smoth-ered and nearly all of them depreciated in value thus causing a total loss to plaintiffs of $1,280.

COURT NOTES.

The regular sessions of the juvenile court will be held on each Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday instead of Tuesdays and Fridays as heretofore.

Judge Morse yesterday as heretoiore. Judge Morse yesterday afternoon granted the petition for the dissolution of the Bruneau Irrigation company, which was organized on May 20. The company was incorporated for the pur-pose of establishing an irrigation sys-tem on lands near the Bruneau river in Idaho but the title to the water could not be secured to the satisfac-tion of the incorporators hence they tion of the incorporators hence they decided to dissolve and quit business. The company therefore existed only 11 days. Its capital stock was $200,060.

Church Potices.

Wagstaff was coming home drunk and breaking up dishes and furniture. He also choked his wife on one occasion so that she could hardly move her head for a week. Ada West was divorced from Silas West on the ground of non-support. They were married Feb. 22, 1905, and have a child five months old, the cus-tody of which was awarded to plain-tiff. GRANTED A SOUVENIR. Regular services of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints will be held tomorrow, Sunday; Fast meet-ings being held in the respective wards at 2 o'clock p.m.; Sunday school at 19 a.m., and meetings in the city ward assembly rooms and adjacent wards as follows:
