FRAGMENTS.

Union Passengers' meeting tomorrow (Monday) at 11 a. m.

The Nevada board and its friends are preparing themselves for a hard fight today. The outcome is a large one.

Deseret County Clerk J. H. Smith has issued marriage licenses to Marvin Foster and Helen M. Christensen, of Salt Lake, and Arthur White, of Salt Lake, and Ellen Graham, of Provo.

Attorney A. E. Pratt has just returned his legal papers from the House of Representatives to the Utah Territorial board of legislation.

All being well, banker William and Joseph Marshall Johnsons may be expected to report at U. S. Marshall Brigham's headquarters about this mid-night. William's duties, as the public already understood, is not a voluntary proceeding on his part.

TABERNACLE CHOIR CONCERTS.

Two of Them Will Be Given at Salt Lake Tomorrow—One at the Tabernacle on Sunday.

Great interest is being manifested on the part of the public concerning the concert to be given by the Tabernacle choir at Salt Lake tomorrow afternoon and evening for the benefit of that great musical organization. The concert will be of the most artistic kind. The well-known soloists, Messrs. Eason and Payer and Mrs. Payer will appear. Selections will be sung from the great concert program to be rendered at the World's Fair.

The choir will also give a farewell concert evening at the Tabernacle on Sunday evening next. An immense audience is expected to be present on that occasion. Very low rates have been made by the Union Pacific to persons in the surrounding counties to attend this performance. There will be a meeting of the choir and its friends at the Tabernacle at 5 o'clock this evening to make final preparations for their departure.

SCHOOL BOARD MATTERS.

List of Buildings to Be Rented for the ensuing year.

Superintendent Milnebaugh recommends the Employment of an Additional Force of Teachers.

The city school board met in special session last night, President Nelson presiding. The members in attendance were: Beatty, Balthasar, Haymond, Pennington, Daily, Young and Pratt.

The committee on sites and buildings recommended that the proposition for the sale of school sites made by Henry H. Pratt for $10,000 and J. E. Merrill for $20,000 be rejected.

The committee on sites and buildings submitted a form of modification to the Henry & Meyer Engineering company and the James Spencer-Bateman company prepared by the attorney of the board, notifying them that the alleged heating and ventilating plant in the Bryant school had been rejected by the board and requesting them to promptly remove the same from said building.

The main committee reported that they had received estimates for the building up of the basement rooms of the Bryant school building at $10,000 and $15,000, and recommended that the same be rejected.
