

JOHN A. M'CALL HAD HIS GRAFT.

Borrowed Money From Insurance Co. of Which Was a Director Below the Market Rate.

HE PROVIDED FOR HIS BOYS

His Company Acquired a House on Foreclosure and His Sons Rented it For 4.25 Per Cent on Investment.

New York, Oct. 4.—That John R. Hageman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, borrowed $50,000 from the New York Life Insurance company at 1/2 per cent interest, a rate below the market rate, was brought out in the insurance investigation last week, but today President John A. McCall of the New York Life Insurance company testified that he in turn borrowed $75,000 from the Metropolitan at the same rate. This was in January, 1903; the loan was renewed in January, 1904, and ran until March, 1905, when the rate of interest was advanced to 2 per cent, at which rate it is still running.

Mr. McCall testified that he was a director of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, but not a stockholder. The fact of his being a director, Mr. McCall continued, did not deter him from procuring a loan at as low a rate of interest as possible, when it was to his interest to do so.

Somewhat of a sensation was caused in the late hours of today's session of the legislative committee, which is investigating the method of life insurance companies, when Nellie P. Fowler of Albany was called to the stand and disclaimed any knowledge of the whereabouts of cancelled checks of Judge Andrew Hamilton of Albany.

Mr. Fowler testified that he was associated with Judge Hamilton in the practice of law in Albany. The Hamilton account was again under investigation, and Mr. McCall had been excused for a few minutes while Mr. Fowler took the stand.

Mr. Fowler testified that he made deposits for Judge Hamilton, but not while the latter was in Europe. He had taken cancelled checks from the Albany Trust company early in September and had thrown them into his drawers in Judge Hamilton's desk. He had had no occasion to look at them again until last week, when he received the subpoena to appear before the committee.

He was asked to bring these checks with him, but when he looked for them they were gone. He had no knowledge, he declared, of where they could have gone or who could have taken them. Pressed by Mr. McKeen, he said almost anybody had access to the drawer in which the checks were placed.

Mr. McCall, resuming, was asked about a deposit to the credit of Judge Hamilton of $100,000 in April, 1905. Mr. McCall said the New York Life Insurance company had paid Mr. Hamilton no money, but suggested that part of it might have come from the state controller's office by reason of an assessment of tax money which would come to the judge by reason of his securing the repeal of the tax law which relieved the New York Life from payment of taxes. Judge Hamilton was to have one-third of the amount, that would rebate to the company, a sum of $37,500, netting Mr. Hamilton about $50,000.

Another interesting point was brought out by Mr. McKeen, and before the committee adjourned for the day, Edwin Devlin, the real estate manager for the New York Life Insurance company, was again called to continue his testimony of the last week relative to the real estate values of the company's properties in this country and abroad. Mr. Devlin had had to consult records and he presented a number of transcripts of the records.

It developed that the New York Life had acquired by foreclosure an apartment house in one of the most desirable residential sections of this city, and the cost with improvements deemed necessary, was $30,365, the net income from this property was found to be .62 per cent on the investment. Among the improvements was the throwing of two apartments into one of nine rooms with two baths. These were rented for $1,500 and $1,800 a month. It then developed that four of the tenants were the immediate family of President McCall, three sons and a son-in-law. Mr. Devlin was asked who fixed the rental of these apartments, and he said he discussed it with Mr. McCall.

Mr. McCall enlightened the day's proceedings further when he said that there was no record on the books of the New York Life Insurance company of the $110,000 paid the Republican national committee for contributions to presidential campaigns. While he had no personal knowledge that the money was paid, he assumed it was because he had told the treasurer to make these payments.

Earlier in the day Mr. McCall, in detailing the general legislation work of Judge Hamilton and the counsel he employed, denied any knowledge of the legislative proof which was disclosed in the examination of Alfred W. Maine, auditor of the Equitable Life Assurance Society last week.

While Mr. McKeen was engaged in looking up some documents, Chairman Armstrong took the opportunity to ask Mr. McCall if he had ever given any

A LOVELY COMPLEXION

New York Lady Proves That Every Woman May Have It By

USING CUTICURA SOAP

Mrs. R. Reichenberg, wife of the well-known jeweller of 146 Fulton St., New York, says: "I had a friend who was justly proud of her complexion. When asked what gave her such a brilliant and lovely complexion, she replied, 'A healthy woman can be sure of a fine skin if she will do as I do, use plenty of Cuticura Soap and water.' She insisted that I follow her example, which I did with speedy conviction. I find that Cuticura Soap keeps the skin soft, white, and clear and prevents redness and roughness."

Thought as to the feasibility of a standard policy that should be written by all companies.

Mr. Woodruff said that he had, and that he thought if some such policy could be devised it would be a good thing.

AMERICAN CIVIC ASSOCIATION MEETS

Cleveland, Oct. 4.—The convention of the American Civic association opened here today with about 200 delegates from all over the country in attendance. Mayor Johnson delivered the address of welcome.

Clinton Rogers Woodruff of Philadelphia, first vice president of the association, was then introduced to the convention.

Mr. Woodruff spoke of "A Year's Work," saying in part: "The American Civic association unites the humble worker striving to improve his or her own premises, his or her little cottage with its bit of ground, with the far-seeing idealist who, with a bold faith, plans not only the needs of the present generation, but for those of countless generations yet unborn."

"The progress of the past year has been great. Thus far, however, notwithstanding the growth of the movement in every direction and in every phase, notwithstanding the great increase in the number of organizations and in the number of individual workers, notwithstanding the great interest that is exhibited on the part of the great public, we must realize that the surface of improvement work has only been scratched."

"We have but to look around us on every side to see the need for still greater improvement, for still more vigorous and strenuous efforts, for still higher standards, to appreciate the immensity and the difficulty of the situation as it exists."

"We must not allow ourselves to be discouraged because of the gravity of the situation and of the difficulties which appear on every hand when we undertake any work in the line of civic improvement."

JUMPED OVERBOARD.

Captain Laughed When Suicide Told Him His Intention.

New York, Oct. 4.—The drowning of Charles Westhofer of Chicago, who jumped overboard at sea, was reported by the steamer Prinz Oskar, which arrived here today from Italian ports. Westhofer was a first cabin passenger on the Prinz Oskar and was 42 years old. While the steamer was near the harbor at Palermo, Westhofer went to the deck and said that he was going to jump overboard. He handed the captain some of his personal effects, asking that they be taken care of. Other passengers heard Westhofer's announcement, but they and the captain laughed about the matter as a practical joke. As Westhofer went to dinner with the other passengers immediately after this incident, no further attention was paid to his announcement. But after eating two or three courses he left the table, went to the deck and jumped overboard.

RESULT OF TYPHOON IN PHILIPPINES EXAGGERATED

Washington, Oct. 4.—In a cablegram to the war department today Gen. Gen Wright stated that the full results of the recent storm which passed over the Philippines are not known, the reports being still incomplete, but he expressed the opinion that the losses were exaggerated. With reference to the Leyte disaster, he says that the death of Hart has not been confirmed by mail advices. He, however, reported that Edwin S. Ely was among those who lost their lives on the Leyte, his nearest relative being given as Edwin E. Ely, 47 Monroe street, Peoria, Ill.

The department today received the following cablegram from Gen. Corbin giving particulars of damage by the storm:

"Telegrams dated Camp Daraga, Sept. 25 and Sept. 27, just received, report the following results there: Typhoon lasting from 11 o'clock at night Sept. 25 until next morning; five barracks and bakery blown down, totally wrecked; four barracks, post exchange, five officers' quarters, three non-commissioned staff quarters, forge house, one stable, one teamsters' quarters, badly damaged; roofs all blown away."

ALL DEPUTIES RECALLED.

Small Chances of Running Great Northern Train Robbers to Earth.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 4.—Sheriff Tom Smith of King county, 144 1/2 miles from Seattle, today received a cablegram from the chief of police of Seattle Monday night. This action was taken by the sheriff as he was convinced the robbers were no longer in hiding in the neighborhood of the scene of crime, but were either in this city or had escaped northward toward Everett or Bellingham.
