MORTALITY PREVENTED.—It would be a moderate estimate to place the number of cases in which Consumption is prevented by the timely use of HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR, at ten thousand per annum. No cough, cold, bronchial affection, sore throat, or other ailment of the organs of respiration, can ever degenerate into a mortal disease, if this palatable and absolutely infallible specific be taken in time and long enough persevered in.

PERSONAL.—Steele & Price, of Chicago, St. Louis and Cincinnati, we are pleased to say, are among the few who put into the market articles just as represented, perfectly pure, selected with care and combined in a manner to be perfect in their action and results. Their Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder and True Flavoring Extracts have been approved by the United States Government. The only way to force adulterated cheap articles out of the market is to encourage honest manufacturers.

GOOD MEASURE AND RUNNING OVER.—Dooley's Yeast Powder has already taken the precedent over others, from its well known strength and purity; but aside from these facts, it is put up in cans holding the FULL WEIGHT as represented, which is rarely the case with those of ordinary manufacture. Hence, Dooley's Yeast Powder is the best, purest, strongest and cheapest ever offered to the consumer, and every one who has used it will readily testify to this assertion. For sale in quantities to suit by all good grocers. d278.

Educational.—It will be seen by advertisement, in our Business Notice column, that the second term of the 20th Ward Seminary, Prof. K. G. Maeser, Principal, will open on Monday morning.

An elementary German class will be commenced on the evening of the same day at the University, under the same gentleman, whose ability as an educator is well known to be of a high order. A fine opportunity for young people to obtain an excellent general education at the seminary, and to learn German at the University.

Fractious Horses.—As a team and wagon were being driven up East Temple street this morning, when near the University building, one of the horses, a young and almost unbroken colt, commenced kicking and plunging most furiously. Two men and women were in the wagon at the time. The driver held the reins with great determination and steadiness, and baffled every effort of the horses to get up a first class runaway. Several bystanders assisted in unhitching the team, but the way that the colt jumped, kicked and plunged was a caution. The tongue of the wagon was broken, besides some other damage, and one of the animals hind legs appeared to be injured.

Theatre.—"Opera Mad" and "Jack Harkaway" were the attractions at the theatre last evening, and were received with considerable applause.

This evening, for the benefit of Laura Honey Stevenson, will be presented the beautiful dramatic version of the popular play of "Christie Johnstone, or, the Snowdrop of the North," consisting of four acts and a prologue as follows—

PROLOGUE.—The Dream.
ACT. 1.—Christie Johnstone.
ACT. 2.—The Rival Picnics—May Pole Dance with lively Post.
ACT. 3.—The Fire and Rescue.
ACT. 4.—The Wreck. Perilous Departure of Christie through the Storm to the Burning Ship.

L. H. Stevenson will appear as "Christie Johnstone," with songs, Mr. Graham as "Lord Ipsden," Mr. Thorne as "Charles Gatty," Mr. Marden as "Hon. Tom Hetherington," Mr. Forster as "Dr. Aberford." Mrs. Douglas, Mrs. Marden and Miss D. and G. Clayton and Miss Napper will also appear.

To-morrow a grand Stevenson matinee. Play, "Jack Harkaway."

Unfair Competition.—A good many merchants and dealers of this city complain about each other injuring business by an unfair system of competition, such as selling some special articles at and even below original cost, in order to draw custom, when the amount lost in that way is made up from sales on other goods. It is also affirmed that there is a disposition on the part of some to make "corners" of home produce, having bought up large quantities when the figures were low, and selling now at about the same figures as they pay to producers for it, with a view to forcing the market by compelling others to leave the trade, when the articles can be run up to a high figure in the event of a scarcity, after they have bought up all they can.

Nothing like fair play and legitimate business; any other policy is ruinous to the general interests of the community.

Couldn't Stand Fire.—This morning, about half past two o'clock, a lady named Magee, residing in the Twelfth Ward, was aroused by hearing a little dog, which is kept in the house, barking and growling, as if at an intruder. Upon getting up to ascertain the cause she found one of the windows raised to its fullest extent, which increased her agitation considerably, as she was alone in the house with three small children, her husband being employed at a job in the country. Having secured the window and looked around the place, to make assurance doubly sure that there was nothing of a foreign element in the house, she retired to bed again, but not to sleep. In about half an hour after this occurred a gentleman friend of this lady's husband, who had been stopping for a few days with the family, but had been detained by business until this early hour, was proceeding in the direction of the house and upon nearing it he perceived a person crouching at the gate leading to the house, who, upon seeing that he was discovered, ran in a stooping posture, across the street, as if for the purpose of concealing his identity. Thinking all was not right the gentleman hurried in the direction of the house and arrived just in time to send a few shots after the scudding figure of another prowler, whom he disturbed.

As the parties decamped in such haste that they left neither card nor address, the gentleman is concerned to know whether they took any of the pills so kindly sent after them, but if they failed to receive them all they have got to do is, whenever they find their old complaint coming upon them, just let them go back to that same place again about the same hour, and there will be a few in readiness for them.

THE ABOVE IS A SERIES OF LECTURES by "Veritas," intended to give the public a correct understanding of the Mormon question, and especially the Mormon Church and its relations to the Government. Every man should read them. They will enable him to vote intelligently on the subject. Every man, woman and child should read them. They will throw a flood of light upon the whole question. They will be worth more than four times their cost.

The writer has used, very generally, the language of prominent anti-Mormons in person, thereby thus avoiding the charge of misrepresentation.
