

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Machinery Arrived.—The machinery for the new silk factory has arrived, and will be put in the building in a few days.

Body Found.—The body of Amos Chase, who was drowned a few days ago in the Sevier River, was recovered yesterday morning.

Priesthood Meeting.—There will be a meeting of the Priesthood of this Stake, in the Salt Lake Assembly Hall, at 11 a.m., on Saturday, June 5th, 1886.

Reading Recital.—A reading recital of the play of "Extremes," by G. M. B. T. is to be presented by the Home Dramatic Club about the 4th of July, and will take place this evening.

Amputation Liable.—Mrs. E. Plant, the lady who was accidentally shot in the foot by a falling gun, in Walsburg, last Saturday, is now in Provo, under the efficient care of Dr. W. Pike. It is still feared, the Enquirer says, that the foot will have to be amputated.

"Macbeth"—A rehearsal of Shakespeare's tragedy of "Macbeth" was held last evening, preceding the arrival of Mr. Bandmann, who is to personate the character during his engagement. A letter received from the gentleman to-day states that his coming is unavoidably delayed for a few weeks.

Appreciative.—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Shearnan highly appreciate the sympathy extended to them by friends of all creeds and parties, on the occasion of the demise and funeral of their loved daughter Ella, and express freely their attachment and esteem for those who have been so kind to them in their bereavement.

Honorably Acquitted.—George H. Clark, of Pleasant Grove, who was arrested and examined before Justice Booth, on Friday last, on a charge of stealing a heifer from the Provo estray pound, was discharged from custody, it being proven that he bought the heifer and did not, as was alleged, obtain possession of it under false pretenses.

Married and Settled.—Mr. and Mrs. Richard Maeser (the latter recently Miss Mary Friel) whose marriage took place in this city last week, have settled in Provo, where the young husband will resume his occupation of school teaching, a position for which he is none the less qualified from having a loving partner to assist him in his duties and comfort and cheer his home success.

"Ten Nights in a Bar-Room."—This celebrated and justly popular moral drama is to be presented again to-morrow evening, in the 10th Ward Meeting-House, by the dramatic association of the ward, with new scenery and upon a new stage. The full strength of the company will appear. The cast is a good one and the result will no doubt be a repetition of last week's success.

Fatal Accident.—The following special was received this afternoon: Birmingham, U.T., June 2, 1886.

Mrs. Peter Tavey, wife of Peter Tavey, formerly of Salt Lake City, while coming from the depot in the transfer, last Friday morning, was thrown out by the sudden starting of the horses, and received injuries from which she died at noon to-day.

University Circular.—We have received a copy of the circular of the Deseret University for the year 1886-87, which a press of business has hindered our noticing before. From it we learn that the first term of the coming academic year, will begin on Monday, the 23rd of August. There will be, as heretofore, three courses of study, making a thorough graded system, viz. The Preparatory or Primary Department, the Normal Department, and the Academic.

The University is in a flourishing condition and is not only steadily increasing its patronage, but also its capabilities and conveniences for the dissemination of learning.

"Enquirer" Items.—A piece of marble has been sent to us by Mr. L. C. Combs, of Payson, purporting to have been taken from an extensive ledge recently discovered in the vicinity of Payson. The piece sent to us is an average sample of the vein. We have shown it to Mr. L. C. Fuller, an expert and marble mason of this city; and he pronounces it to be the very best working quality looking and most valuable article of Utah marble, and is made of suitable for mechanical purposes, being tougher and less glassy than that of the Provo Valley marble, concerning which so much has been favorably spoken of late.

As Mr. Elam McBridge, of Grantsville, and his little son, were riding down Spanish Fork Canyon on Saturday last, his wagon tipped over the dugway, rolled down into the river and, with the horses, was carried along for some distance with the stream. The wagon was loaded with bedding and several other articles of household furniture, all of which were captured and swept away with the stream. The horses, after going down the stream some distance, finally separated themselves from the wagon and gained the bank, though the wagon tongue was broken and one set of harness lost.

We are told that the cañon wagon road is in a bad and dangerous condition, and unless repairs are immediately made, it is feared that other casualties will soon occur.

Three Score and Ten.—A week or two ago we received, from a correspondent, a well written account of a birthday gathering in Bountiful, in honor of the 70th anniversary of Counselor Anson Call, of the Davis Stake of Zion. By some means the manuscript was mislaid, but having just been found, we hasten to make amends for the unavoidable delay occasioned. The party took place on Thursday, May 13th, at Bro. Call's new residence in Bountiful, where the worthy man was surrounded by a numerous host of children, grand children, great grand children and a large circle of happy friends and acquaintances. He was hale and strong, and brimful of good feelings to all. Among the guests present were the Hon. C. Layton, of Kayaville, with some members of his family, Judge Jos. Holbrook, of Davis County, Patriarch John Stoker, J. G. Sessions, Prof. Anson V. Call, Mr. Wm. Thurgood, of Bountiful, and many others, numbering in all over one hundred persons. The guests sat down to four large, well-laid tables, loaded with the good things of this life. The stars and stripes floated in the breeze from the tower of the residence, which flag, during the day, Counselor Call, in a brief and happy speech, counseled his children present to ever maintain, remarking that his father, Cyril Call, was a soldier in the war of 1812, his grandfather, Joseph Call, a soldier in the revolutionary war; his great-grandfather, a soldier in the French war, and his great-great-grandfather, John Call, served during the Indian war, and that his progenitors were among the earliest settlers of Boston. Quite a number of other speeches were also made, interspersed by singing, reciting, etc.

A very touching incident occurred during the festivity, which was the presentation to the honored host of a valuable walking cane, which bore the following inscription: Presented to Anson Call by his children and grandchildren on his seventieth birthday.

The presentation was made by Prof. Anson V. Call, of the Davis County School Board. The aged host was not prepared for such a token of regard, and for some moments could not express his appreciation of his children's kindness. Finally he responded and returned thanks in a fitting manner.

The day was very pleasantly spent, and in the evening the Bountiful marital band called and enlivened the scene with their stirring music. We congratulate Brother Call, though at this late day, and wish him a renewed lease of life and prosperity.

The "Fourth" Celebration.—The prospects for a grand celebration in this city on the 4th of July, are beginning to look a little shady. At a meeting held last night, it was proposed, in view of the general apathy respecting the project, to abandon the idea of the demonstration and let the entire matter go by the board. The subject was discussed by the few persons present, from different standpoints, some being in favor of going ahead and doing the best that could be done, since the sum of $1,500 had been subscribed to defray the expenses of the celebration, and many were in favor of having a genuine, good, old-fashioned time on the nation's birthday.

Against this it was urged that the people as a mass had no sympathy with the movement, that the committee did not represent the people and that they would not join in to make the affair general, and it would be an unwarranted expenditure of the means contributed, to get up something that would result in a failure. It was further mentioned that the reason the people did not sympathize with the project was on account of Governor Shaffer's proclamation against armed gatherings in Utah, which by a later order from a certain acting governor had been applied to 4th of July celebrations. A motion to relinquish the project was put and lost by a vote of 5 to 6, after which it was decided to call another mass meeting and lay the whole matter before the people once more, and have the question settled as to whether there was or was not to be a 4th of July celebration. This meeting will be held at the Federal Court House to-morrow evening, at 8 o'clock.
