

THE CHINESE DISTURBANCE AS HENRY SAVAGE MANDOR SEES IT

In his published record, in two large volumes, of the recent events in China, Mr. A. Henry Savage Landor lays at the door of Buddhist monks the responsibility for the uprising and the disaster and bloodshed which followed. He writes:

You know enough about Hair Brushes to tell the difference between a dollar and a dollar and a half brush.
 So we'll leave it all to you.
 Think of the best dollar and a half brush you ever saw outside of this store then come and see these dollar ones and see if they are not as good.
 You know we import these direct ourselves—that is one reason why we can give you such good values.
