Madam Swenson's recitals have become very popular in Ogden because of the excellent vocalists which the talented lady has under her training, and last evening's recital was only another delightful showing of the very rapid progress which her pupils are making in their vocal studies. Following is the program given last evening, each number was well rendered and seceived

TRAMPS HELD FOR ASSAULT.

The hearing in the case of George Powers, Mike McCormick and Fred Wilson was had yesterday afternoon before Justice Breeden. The evidence produced by the three boys on whom the victous outrage was committed was straightforward and convincing, al-though the men denied the charge. The court found them guilty and bound each of them over to the district court in $1,000 bonds, which they were unable to furnish, so will be kept in the bathing county jail awaiting trial.
