FRAGMENTS.

HIGH COUNCIL to-aight at 7 o'clock in the Social Hall.

THRESHING has commenced on the ridge southwest of this city. NICE NATRASS was brought up las night for assault and battery.

A NUMBER of California tourists, on their way East, took a run down from Ogden this morning.

THE leaves are beginning to fall, and a faint suspicion of antumn tints is whispered from the hills.

Two or three drops of rain fell last they rolled by.

PAT FLIEGAN, Andrew Nathan and Tom Carr are to have an interview with the Police Justice to-day for being drunk and disorderly.

THE water in American Fork canyon, which has rendered the road impassable for some tline, has subsided and the road is now open.

THE University opens on Monday next. The students will appreciate the new quarters, with their cool, quiet and shady surroundings.

A citay horse, saddled, was found walking around the streets at I o'clock | dent of the Co-operative Store in Temthis morning. The owner afterwards pe, Arizona, reached this city yesterappeared and claimed his property.

THERE is talk that Mr. II. G. Whitney is about to accept a position as one of the regular editorial staff of the Salt Lake Herald. Our contemporary has not announced it, however.

A DEAD dog in suspicious proximity to a First South Street butcher shop, and another one just south of the Continental Hotel, were swept up by the inspector of nuisances this afternoon.

CITY Hall Park is a little gem, for its size. But a dusty-booted pedestrian last evening wondered why it was always locked up, as if its precincts were too sacred to be trod by any save the gardener.
