

TARIFF EXPERTS CANNOT AGREE

La Follette Asserts Payne-Aldrich Bill Increases Rates on an Average 5.65 Per Cent.

SMOOT SAYS IT ALL DEPENDS

On Methods of Computation—Big Disputes Will Be Fought Out by Aldrich and Payne.

Washington, July 14.—Through Senator La Follette, the bureau of statistics of the department of commerce and labor has presented to Congress an analysis of the increases and decreases of the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill.
Summarizing this analysis, Mr. La Follette says:

"According to the figures supplied by the bureau, the bill as passed by the senate on the basis of the importations of 1907, leaves unchanged the duties on imports of the value of $49,085,000, or 64.35 per cent. Duties are increased on imports of the value of $149,169,499, or 21.52 per cent, while the decreases affect imports of the value of $8,300,000, or 13.48 per cent. The average increase of the entire bill is 5.65 per cent."

SMOOT'S STATEMENT.

Turning upon critics who have charged that they are revising the tariff upward, members of the senate finance committee deny today that such is the case. A statement was prepared by the committee's experts and was given out tonight by Senator Smoot.

Commenting upon statements made yesterday by Senator La Follette that the senate bill is 5.65 per cent above the Dingley law based upon the importations of 1907, Senator Smoot said it all depended on methods of computing.
Taking up the Dingley law from 1896, the year of its passage, Senator Smoot figured that the average ad valorem were as follows:

In 1898, they were 48.80 and in 1899, they were 47.07. In that year the importations of luxuries were very large.
In the succeeding nine years, from 1899 to 1908, inclusive, the average ad valorem were 46.24, 46.64, 46.78, 46.93, 48.78, 45.24, 44.16, 42.55 and 42.40.

The low ad valorem average of 42.55 in 1907, is explained by the panic and the falling off in importations of luxuries.

Senator Smoot, speaking on champagne and other wines and spirits, declared the average ad valorem would amount to just 43.44 per cent, which is lower than all except the last two years, under the Dingley law.

Mr. Smoot pointed out that by eliminating articles recognized purely as luxuries, the ad valorem average under the senate bill would be less than 40.01 per cent. This is less than any tariff bill in the last 20 years, except in 1896.
The ad valorem average of the last bill on all articles of necessity was given as 46.49 per cent.

Senator Smoot complained that articles transferred from the dutiable list to the free list are not taken into consideration by senate critics in figuring ad valorem averages of the pending bill.

Aldrich and Representative Payne, according to the senate and house, respectively, with President Taft serving as umpire, so as to prevent any drawn battles. This was decided today by the conference committee appointed by the two branches of Congress. No formal action was had in conference giving to the two leaders especial jurisdiction to make up the tariff bill, but after an informal discussion it was said that such schedules as lumber, coal, alices, oil, iron ore, and similar raw materials, could be best adjusted by the tariff leaders, who know the tempers of their respective houses concerning these disputes. Of course, any decisions reached by Messrs. Aldrich and Payne will be reviewed by the full conference.

President Taft, it is said, was somewhat dubious over the heavy increases made by the senate in the duties on champagne and other kinds of wines and spirits. The president feared that France, which supplies a large portion of the champagne used in the United States, might be affronted by the advanced rates. In the opinion of the senate conferees, importations of champagne used will not decline under the high duties proposed, and the importations are that the senate amendments will be adopted.

HOUSE MEMBERS OBJECT.

Objections were raised by the house members of the tariff conference today to the senate provisions in the maximum and minimum features of the tariff bill which gives to the president authority to employ such persons as he may desire to aid him in enforcing the tariff laws, and which will be useful to Congress in tariff legislation in the future. This opposition was all that prevented the adoption of practically all the sections dealing with the administration.

The provision which provides for the establishment of a court of customs appeals was adopted. The salaries of the five judges were fixed at $10,000 instead of $7,000.

When an adjournment was taken at 6:30 o'clock, the maximum and minimum provision had been agreed upon tentatively as a substitute for the house feature, with the exception of the provision for the employment of tariff experts. The house conferees took the position that the ways and means committee and the senate finance committee have the investigation of tariff matters as their special province.

Several of the senate conferees made the assertion that President Taft desired to have the right to employ such experts for the purpose of assisting him in the discharge of duties imposed upon him by the maximum and minimum features. They declared also that the president favors the appointment of a tariff commission. These arguments were not sufficient to induce the house conferees to abandon their objections.

The senate administrative act which was drawn to prevent under-valuation of imported articles not in common use was adopted. This feature provides machinery for the ascertainment of Many a Salt Lake City Citizen Knows How

Sure They Are.

Nothing uncertain about the work of Doan's Kidney Pills in Salt Lake City. There is plenty of positive proof of this in the testimony of citizens.
Such evidence should convince the most skeptical sufferer. Read the following statement:

A. Reynolds, living at 379 west
First North street, Salt Lake City, Utah, says: "Before I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at the F. J. Hill Drug Co., I had been troubled for a long time from kidney complaint and backache. I was restless at night and as a consequence would arise in the morning feeling tired and worn out.
Doan's Kidney Pills helped me in every way and I have not had any trouble since."

values where there is no foreign market to be used as a basis.

The senate conferees insisted that the removal of the identifying clause in the drawback provision is still in dispute, opened the door to fraud and that the three-year provision narrowed the drawback in such a manner that it would work a hardship to manufacturers who availed themselves of the drawback privileges. The conferences representing the two branches of Congress split upon this question, and it was laid aside. The house provision allowing a drawback to the amount of internal revenue tax paid on domestic alcohol used in articles such as perfumes and cosmetics, however, was agreed to tentatively. It will be incorporated in the drawback provision as finally adopted.

CORPORATIONS TAX VENES.

Reports that there is dissatisfaction in the tariff conference with the corporation tax amendment, and that it might be dropped out of the bill, reached the ears of President Taft today. In consequence Senator Aldrich and Representative Payne, the leaders of the senate and house in matters connected with tariff legislation, were called to the White House.

The conference was held late this evening. When Messrs. Aldrich and Payne left for their homes they were beyond admitting that the proposition to tax net earnings of corporations had been the chief subject of consideration.
The president could not be seen tonight. It is thought, however, that he made it clear that he has not changed his mind about the advisability of taxing the earnings of corporations for the purpose of producing additional revenues. He is reported to have said as much to a number of congressional callers today and to have interrogated a number of leaders as to the foundation for the report that this feature might be dropped out of the bill.

The tariff conferees were informed today that Atty. Gen. Wickham, who has re-drafted the corporation tax amendment, is ready to submit the amendment whenever the conferees are ready for it.

PRESIDENT SPEES END.

The president today demonstrated his conviction that the tariff bill will be in its last stages by the end of next week by the announcement that if the bill was not ready for his action by the time he would be obliged to cancel his engagement to attend the Confederate Veterans' reunion at Fisher's Hill, Va., on Saturday, July 24. Mr. Taft several days ago promised the Virginia senators that he would attend the Fisher's Hill gathering if the date would be arranged within the next 10 days.

Nearly all of the president's congressional callers today agreed that the tariff bill would be out of the way within the next 10 days.

STATE RESTS IN ELLA GINGLES CASE

MISS BARRETTE LET OFF EASY

State's Attorney Spared Her Recital of Charges Against Her and Defense Did Not Cross Examine.

Chicago, July 14.—The state closed its case against Ella Gingles today. It is expected the defense will rest by tomorrow noon and the case will reach the jury Friday.

The last witness to appear against the young Irish lace-maker was Agnes May Barrette, proprietor of the lace store, who has been pictured as the organizer of the plots against the girl.
Assistant State's Attorney Short spared Miss Barrette the recital of the acts which have been charged against her.

"Will you simply ask you," said Mr.
Short, "if you ever attempted to sell this girl into 'white slavery'?" If you ever abused or assaulted her in the Will-ington hotel or anywhere else, or if you ever did anything of the kind?"

"No, sir," replied Miss Barrette, tears streaming down her face. "It is a falsehood from beginning to end." Much to the surprise of prosecutor and spectators, P. H. O'Donnell, counsel for the defense, excused Miss Bar-rette without asking her any questions.

The state brought three witnesses from Canada, who had known the defendant. The testimony of a Canadian photographer was in downright contradiction to the testimony given by Miss Gingles. He told how Miss Gingles came to him, giving the name of "Miss Wilson," and had him take a picture of her in a lace gown. In her direct testimony Miss Gingles declared that it was a reproduction of a photograph taken in Ireland. The picture showed her in a dress belonging to her employer's wife, Mrs. D. S. Thornton, of Belleville, Ontario.

The presence of her former employer failed to unnerve Miss Gingles. She sat facing the witness and continually clapped and unclapped her hands.

"Do you know Miss Gingles?" inquired Mr. O'Donnell.

The witness replied that Miss Gingles was employed as a cook at his home, she having come from Montreal.

"Yes, a week after she came to my home."

Mr. Thornton then explained the nature of the girl's "lines" and detailed the necessity of an operation at that time. While he was speaking Miss Gingles bowed her head and seemed about to break down.

"Did you ever see Miss Gingles in a man's company?"

"Yes, sir," said the witness. "I saw her near our home and kiss him many times."

"Did you take Miss Gingles back after she had recovered at the hospital?"

"Yes, sir," said the witness. "I took her back to my home."

"Where was the silverware?"

"Locked up."

"At the time?"

"In the attic."

"Why did Miss Gingles leave?"

"She said her sister was dying in Chicago."

The witness then told of a visit made at his home at Belleville by Atty.
O'Donnell and repeated the conversation they had regarding Miss Gingles.
The statements of Thornton plainly irritated Atty. O'Donnell, who made frequent interruptions.

On cross-examination, Atty. O'Donnell endeavored to confuse the witness in regard to incidents with the visit.
The court sustained objections to several of the attorney's questions. In one instance taking occasion severely to rebuke the lawyer for ignoring a ruling.
Dr. W. G. Gibson, who attended Miss Gingles in Belleville, Ont., testified regarding the physical condition of the girl at that time.

PITTSBURG'S "SURPRISE STRIKE" A BLOODY ONE

Pittsburg, July 14.—Six wounded, two fatally, and 15 seriously injured by flying bricks, iron slag and clubs, sums up the result of the first day's "surprise strike" by the men employed in the Pressed Steel Car company's plant at McKees Rocks today. The rioting, starting shortly after noon and continuing late tonight, came without much apparent reason on either side.

The striking men, comprising the foreign element, claim that since a pooling system of pay had been introduced they have been receiving less pay for the same number of hours they worked previous to the change.

The men employed by the Pressed Steel Car company are not members of any particular union or organization, and their strike does not in any way affect the union organization here. The authorities now believe they have the situation well in hand.

Tonight the company attempted to bring the strike breakers by steamer to the works, but the rioters lined the banks of the river, armed with bricks, slag and revolvers. The steamer was returned by sheriffs on the boat, but the landing of the men was prevented by the rioters.

SAVED FROM DEATH.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 15.—In an hour's battle with the big breakers of the ocean, the schooner "Leviathan" inlet yesterday, Fred Nathan, treasurer of the Broad street theater of Philadelphia, and Fred Robb, assistant treasurer of the Chestnut street theater, and Jacob Driscoll, a pilot, were saved from death by plucky volunteer life-savers after Nathan's yacht, Yvonne, had crashed aground on the bar and capsized.

The bravery of Robb, who held Nathan to the wreck until the life-savers reached them, prevented the owner of the yacht from being washed overboard and drowned after he had been knocked unconscious by the breakers which swept over him.

S.S.S. PURELY VEGETABLE

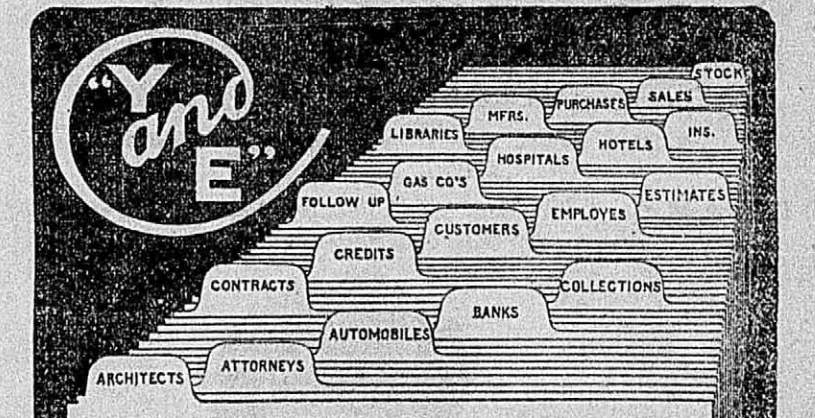

The absolute vegetable purity of S.S.S. has always been one of the strongest points in its favor, and is one of the principal reasons why it is the most widely known and universally used of all blood medicines. A great many of the so-called blood purifiers are really nothing more than strong mineral mixtures which act so unpleasantly and disastrously on the delicate membranes and tissues of the stomach and bowels, that even if such treatment purified the blood, the condition in which the digestive system is left would often be more damaging to the health than the original trouble. Not so with S.S.S.—it is the greatest of all blood purifiers, and at the same time is an absolutely safe and harmless remedy. It is made entirely of the healing and cleansing extracts and juices of roots, herbs, and bark, each of which is in daily use in some form by physicians in their practice. Years of work and research have proven S.S.S. to contain everything necessary to purify the blood and at the same time supply the system with the purest and best tonic effects. S.S.S. cures Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Scrofula, Contagious Blood Poison and all other blood troubles, and it leaves the system in perfect condition when it has purified the blood. Book containing much valuable information on the blood and any medical advice desired sent free to all who write.
