DESERET EVENING NEWS.

Wednesday, January 3, 1894

FRAGMENTS.

The newly-elected members of the board of education, five in number, will take their seats tomorrow night.

It is stated that the dangerous manner in which coasting is carried on will receive early attention at the hands of the new City Council.

Notice has been given by Chief Justice Zane that on Monday, Jan. 8, names will be drawn from the jury box for the grand jury at the February term of court, also names for petit jurors.

A Lehi resident of Democratic and Republican antecedents says he was sent to different parts of the city last night and this evening with notices to the effect that the annual report, for the reason the bookkeeper of Mr. Westenskow receives a certain expenditure of the police money. The duty of making the annual report reverted to be imposed by law upon the mayor, who is fully qualified to perform, in a perfect and full manner, that duty. He made no assistance and has not asked for any.

Respectfully submitted,
H. S. Harris, Mayor.

APPOINTMENTS.

The Mayor sent in the following communication:

To the President and City Council:

I hereby appoint Albert W. Hayhurst, auditor of public accounts; Arthur Pratt, chief of police; John J. Townsend, captain of police, and James G. McAllister, inspector of provisions, to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of A. S. Rondell, and these appointments are hereby submitted for confirmation.

The appointment of Mr. Pratt was confirmed, all the members voting "aye" except Remington and Watson.

Captain Donovan's appointment was also confirmed, all the members voting aye except Remington.

Action on the other appointments was deferred one week.

ANOTHER VETO.—NO MONEY TO PAY.

The following was read and laid on the table temporarily:

Sir—I herewith return disapproved the appropriation bill passed by the Council on the 20th inst., because there is no money in the treasury with which to meet the same, and it warrants are issued for same they will be beyond the limit fixed by the twenty section of the act of Congress creating municipal indebtedness. See Revised Statutes of Utah, page 95.

ANNUAL REPORT.

The annual report of the chief of police was referred to the committee on police, in effect it set forth the following:

Number of arrests	2,703
Loss and stolen property recovered	$1,000
Loss and stolen property not recovered	2,000
Number of police horses	6
Number who died during the year	0

DEBT LIMIT.

Councilman O'Meara presented the following, which was laid on the table for one week:

Whereas, The City Council of Salt Lake City, Territory of Utah, endorses the early passage of a bill through the United States Congress, increasing the bonding indebtedness of this city from 4 per cent to 6 per cent, and

Whereas, Sufficient improvements are under way and in contemplation makes it imperative on her to do so, that she may cope with her sister cities in growth, as well as to enable her to give employment to hundreds of unemployed here, like wealthy working men who are dependent upon their daily labor to keep their families from want and suffering, therefore, be it

Resolved, That it be the sense of this body that our honorable Mayor be requested to proceed to Washington at as early date as is convenient, and that the Hon. Representative, A. L. Hamlin, be also asked to call on said Mayor, and that the Mayor be requested to use the Senate resolution and to defray the expenses of the trip.

MISCELLANEOUS.

A committee of three, consisting of Ald. Clawson and Morris, were appointed to secure furniture for the council chamber.

The claim of Allied Press for furnishing for minutes contained while waiting for the city was referred to the committee of accounts and audit, consisting of Messrs. Griffin, Clawson and Morris.

The appointment of standing committees was passed for the time being, and the council adjourned for one week.

NEW CITY COUNCIL.

W. S. McCornick Duly Installed as President.

PRATT IS CHIEF OF POLICE.

Captain Donovan Succeeds Russell—Other Appointments—Four Vetoes from the Mayor.

The newly elected members of the Salt Lake City Council were duly installed into office last night. All of them were present and they at once set about to the unpleasant transaction of business.

Chairman L. S. Hills Young was chosen temporary chairman and made an acceptable speech of the usual conferred. Lyle Cornelius McCornick was unanimously elected president of the new Council. He too made a speech and upon the motion of Mayor Baskin and Treasurer Dyke was applauded.

His honor, the Mayor was present and was invited to a seat at the side of the president. He referred to the considerations and called the new Council into being and the duties that were before them. It was not a pleasant thing to have those who should be employed by the city out of employment and an indictment of politics. Unless relief or a financial movement could be obtained to some extent the coming season could not be said to be very. The rate of taxation might be considered but when it road were done it would not be possible to compass the improvements under way. In his opinion, the only thing to do was to ask and secure the power necessary to increase the city's bonding capacity.

THE PROFESSION.

M. C. Bernheim asked for relief from a tax sale. City attorney.

John Williams asked for a few merchants' license. Committee on license.

Andrew Pickering asked that an electric light be placed at the corner of Ninth West and Second South street.

UNDER GOOD PROTECTION.

The following was referred to the committee on public grounds:

Your petitioner respectfully represents that the city of Salt Lake is really in need of a grand Union depot, centrally located, and if your honorable body will have to the petitioner the Pioneer Square for a term of ninety-nine years, with a nominal rental, he will at once proceed to incorporate a depot company, company with a capital of $100,000, and without any question of doubt, design and erect a depot company would a grand depot on said square which, from its central situation, that will be second to none throughout the West.

Very respectfully yours,
H. C. Adams.

FRANCHISE VETO.

The following from the Mayor was laid on the table temporarily:

I herewith return disapproved the bill No. 70, granting to Francisco to A. L. Hudson, his heirs and assigns, passed by the Council on the 20th instant, because I doubt the propriety of granting the right to multiply poles in the paved districts and because there are not sufficient safeguards provided in the bill. Poles should be a cause making the failure of the grantee to keep the conditions of the ordinance a ground of forfeiture of the grant.

H. S. Harris, Mayor.

WASTLAND AVENUE.

The following veto from the Mayor was sustained:

I herewith return disapproved the resolution of the Council appointing C. D. Wastland, at a salary of $3 per day, for the period of two weeks, or longer if necessary, to assist the auditor in making his annual report, for the reasons that the appointment of Mr. Wastland involves a useless expenditure of the public money. The duty of making the annual report reverted to be imposed by law upon the auditor, who is fully qualified to perform, in a perfect and full manner, that duty. He made no assistance and has not asked for any.

Respectfully submitted,
H. S. Harris, Mayor.

M. I. A. Circular Letter.

To the Young Men of Israel,

Dear Brethren—The manifold duties in our associations as shown by the calls for numerous reports, is very encouraging, as it speaks useful home reading and recreation, weekly prayer-circle meetings, and general improvement of the entire associations, while the study among educational talents in the midst of the people and thirteenth district, also in the various grades of the different authorities of the Church.

The universal system of education, through our young men, is carried to every home in the land, and may do genuine proper recognition and appreciation by using about the means for which the associations were established, namely, testimony of the truth, development of the spiritual capability, and a practical knowledge of Theology, History, Science and Literature.

For the benefit of those associations that have complete Part I of the Manual, one of lectures are prepared and published in the current numbers of the Contributor, the direct organ of the associations and superior of the thoughts of our young men. We would call attention to these advanced lessons that there may be no cessation of interest to the line of progressive debate work.

LIBERTY PARK'S FOUNDER.

Peter Lauer Helped Plan the Trees, in Employ of President Young.

Correspondence Deseret News.

Harrisville, Utah, Dec. 29, 1893.—In your weekly issue of Dec. 23, 1893, under the heading of "A Modern Moses," and near the center of said communication, the following paragraph occurs:

"President Young was foremost in everything. To him is given the credit for the many shade trees that we now enjoy in Salt Lake City. He planted that forest in the park."

I wish to say that I never put Liberty Park, but I reflect upon the time I received my first cash pay, for my work in Utah, and that to President Young's sons, I think Apostle Lodge's foreman was manager. Mr. Goddard, was I think resident in the Twelfth ward, and a gardening, I think also. When my memory, which I think came to Utah in Young's handcart company in 1856, when I did, and never planted the trees in May, 1856, and when that letter arises, and I fully remind Will H. J. Faust, that President Brigham Young to-day, was the leading entire mover for Utah's welfare and establishment.

By all means let a monument be erected to his greatness, that generations yet unborn may know wherein to thank for the settlement of these peaceful vales, and for the shades of that beautiful park. Yours Sincerely,
Peter Lauer.

Wonderland.

An entire change in the program occurs at this place of amusement tomorrow. New and novel acts will be given in the high class, while in the theatorium the capable stock company will produce the ever-pleasing melodrama Under the Gaslight."

This is an old time favorite. Special care has been given to the cast and stage settings and an enjoyable performance will be given.

The attractions at this house are always up to the standard, the management cater to the respectable element, and Wonderland has forged right to the front as one of our home institutions.

Old Folks' Party at Alta.

Many ward of the Summit Stake, of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, gave a free dinner to all the old people of the district on New Year's day. For some time it seemed that the efforts of the Priesthood were not sufficient to cope with the difficulties that beset their path to this remote but by the kind and generous aid of the Union people in this section of the valley they were able to provide a good supply of everything necessary for this purpose.

At 12:30 p. m. the tables were loaded with an ample supply of the delicacies of the season and were presided over by the aged mothers of Israel, accompanied by A. E. Broadbent, and it is good to say.

After the edibles were removed the progress was free and the remaining adornments of singing and dancing commenced. The whole affair was conducted all through to the joy and satisfaction of all present. H. E. H.
