A DISGRACE TO JOURNALISM.

IN noticing the reports of some of the Colorado excursionists, we alluded to an alleged interview with President Taylor by "A Bohemian" published in the Denver Tribune. We pointed out some inaccuracies in the account and attributed them to unintentional mistakes on the part of the reporter. We have since read another letter, by the same writer, in which he exposes himself as a contemptible liar and intentional defamer, and we take the present opportunity of posting him as a low-lived ruffian and a disgrace to his profession. This may be thought strong language, but when we give some quotations from his letter to the Denver Tribune, we think that all classes of people in this city will agree that if there is any fault in our expressions concerning him they are too mild, and do not approach full justice.

We pass by a number of absurd remarks about the "MorMons," and clip the following:

"I had the pleasure of meeting a member of the Edmunds Commission at the Continental, and in speaking of this law the Commissioner said the law is defective, and some of the members are bought off. As soon as a number of them arrived a large delegation of Mormons waited upon them, and the interviews and cash propositions seemed to be generally satisfactory to both parties.

'You see,' continued the Commissioner, 'that the law is defective in one particular, and that is in regard to polygamous marriages. The law now reads that if a man has been married to one wife more than two years he cannot be brought to trial for the commitment of the crime, and I am free to state that polygamous marriages are taking place every day. The way they work it is this: They are married, enjoy their unlawful practices, and keep it quiet for two years, and then give it out cold that they are married; and the law cannot reach them.

'Suppose, again,' continued the Commissioner, 'that the law could be made to reach them, we would have about the same result. The courts, juries and officers are all Mormons, and of course Mormons will not convict one another of what they are all guilty of. Even if the law had a larger scope we could not convict them.'"

Everybody here knows that the statements in those three paragraphs are not only absolutely untrue, but such as no member of the Commission could possibly have made. It is extremely improbable that the "Bohemian" met one of the Commissioners at all. If we are not mistaken there were none of them in the city at the time of the Colorado excursion. But be that as it may, there is not one of those gentlemen so base as to intimate anything of the kind manufactured by the vagabond from Denver. The Edmunds law, it is well known, has nothing to say about the length of time at which prosecutions for polygamy shall be barred. The "Bohemian" has heard something about the United States statute of limitations but does not understand its provisions, and in making up the falsehoods which he has attributed to the Commissioner, he has simply displayed his ignorance as well as his mendacity. It is also well known that instead of "courts, juries and officers" in Utah being "all Mormons," they are all non-"Mormons," the judges and officers being appointed by the President and Senate of the United States, and no "Mormon" being permitted to serve on a jury when a case of polygamy is tried.

No Commissioner is so densely ignorant of the law and the facts as the Denver "Bohemian" would make it appear, and the brute has not the ordinary intelligence of the tribe of "interviewers," of which he is unworthy, who manufacture reports of conversations with prominent individuals, and gain a precarious livelihood by their so-called "enterprise," for they have ingenuity and sharpness enough to make their statements plausible.

But what he has to say about a private "Mormon" party to which he claims to have been invited, is far worse than the palpable falsehoods that he has charged to the account of one of the Commissioners. He says:

"While staying with friends in this beautiful city, who are surrounded by Mormons, they being the only Gentiles in several blocks, I became acquainted with several Mormon ladies, and as a matter of courtesy, they wanted me to attend a social gathering. I accepted the invitation and was promptly on hand at 8 o'clock in the evening. The guests were entertained royally, so to speak, but the mode of entertaining would not be acceptable to the people outside of Mormondom. Large reclining chairs were the seats, and soon I found myself surrounded bevy of ladies who squeezed my hands, and one sat down in the same chair with me. Wine and cake were served and each guest partook of a large amount and soon the married ladies and some were present with their husbands, became more free in speech and actions. I began to think I had probably made a mistake, but on inquiry found out that it was the modus operandi of all parties by the Mormons. I have no hesitancy whatever in saying that the actions of the men and women that evening would have disgraced a Holladay Street bagnio. But what was still worse in regard to it was the fact that the hostess had four small children, the oldest being about 13 years of age, and they were in the parlor watching the actions and absorbing the conversation, which in its character would tend even to corrupt men. Another peculiarity was that the man who takes a lady to a Mormon social is not expected to take her home, and several married ladies who were present all left at the close of the evening's entertainment with a different gentleman than the one they accompanied to the social gathering. Such practices as these tend not only to corrupt the children who are eye-witnesses to all of it, but to older men as well. This is one of the evils of polygamy, and to do away with one it is absolutely necessary to do away with all."

We do not know what kind of company the "Bohemian" strayed into, but the foregoing does not describe any "Mormon" family or custom. If he was invited to share the hospitality of any lady or gentleman in this city, and has thus shamefully abused the courtesy extended to him, he is unfit to be recognized by any respectable person, "Mormon" or "Gentile." But we believe that he has invented the whole thing from first to last. It is the offspring of a prurient mind. It does not describe any custom or habit of the "Mormon" people. The statement that "the man who takes a lady to a Mormon social is not expected to take her home" and so forth, is a falsehood, and his insinuations proceed from a base and filthy soul. The fellow is a dirty dog, and we ask the Denver Tribune to make inquiries of other representatives of the press that visited this city at the same time, whether they saw or heard anything while in this city to justify the vile assertions of the "Bohemian" who has befouled the columns of the Tribune.

We expect attacks upon the creed and social system of the majority of the people of Utah. We find no fault with journalists who oppose us on the ground of principle. But we think that a respectable paper like the Denver Tribune is letting itself down to a very low level in publishing the falsehoods of a creature who must be steeped in degradation and lost to all sense of honor and decency. One more quotation and we have done with him:

"In company with several others I attended the Tabernacle Sunday and heard George Q. Cannon and President Taylor orate to the people. The substance of their sermons were to the abuse of the Gentiles, talking about crops, irrigation and such matters, and telling the people to do with less meat, furniture and other luxuries of life that they could give more to the church, in excess of the tenth that they now give."

We appeal to the gentleman of the Colorado press who were present on the occasion referred to, whether anything of the kind asserted by "Bohemian" was mentioned by either of the speakers. Prest. Cannon's discourse appeared verbatim in Pomeroy's Democrat of July 28th, and has been published in this paper, and there is not a line in it that refers to either of the subjects claimed to have been preached upon.

It is plain that "Bohemian" has attempted to write a letter that he imagined would suit the popular taste and the common notions about "Mormon" affairs. He has only shown that he is not fit to be called a journalist, that he ought to be "sent to Coventry" by every member of the profession who has any regard for decency, and that the Denver Tribune made a great mistake in sending here as its representative an unprincipled and dissolute "Bohemian" instead of a man.

Miracles at Montreal.

MONTREAL, 2.—Three miraculous cures are reported to have occurred on the pilgrimage of the Ottawa people to the shrine of St. Anne de Beaupre. One was of a girl named Lavina Dorion, who lost the entire use of one of her legs several years ago by accident. The other cures are those of two children 6 years old, who had never been able to walk. Father Caballo vouches for these.

$16,000,000 Mortgage.

CHICAGO, 2.—A mortgage for 16 millions was recorded yesterday at Springfield, Ill. Cyrus C. Hines, of Indiana, and the Union Trust Co., of New York, loaned the money to the Ohio and Mississippi Railway. The object of the mortgage is to enable the company to regain custody of its property which has been in possession of the courts under foreclosure proceedings since 1876.

5,654 Tons of Silver Coin.

WASHINGTON, 2.—The clerk of the committee on ways and means has furnished the following analysis of the public debt statement for July: The close of the first month of the new fiscal year shows a reduction in the public debt since 1st July $3,000,000 in round numbers. The reduction is produced by payment of $3,000,000 for accrued interest and an increase of about $5,000,000 in the available cash balance, which is now $155,727,196. The treasury has now nearly $203,000,000 in gold coin, and the gold bullion has increased during the month by nearly $5,000,000. Against this gold fund there is outstanding $6,603,000 of gold certificates. There is an increase of $261,000 for the month in the accumulation of standard silver dollars. In the Treasury this increase goes steadily forward. The number of these pieces now held being over $115,000,000 against which there is outstanding nearly $74,000,000 in certificates. Of the $2,380,000 silver dollars coined in July, one-half went into the Treasury, including $28,0000,000 of fractional currency. The weight of the silver coin now in the Treasury is 5,084 tons. The receipts for the month, compared with those of July 1882, show a falling off of $4,250,000. This loss is mainly in internal revenue receipts. The operations of the new tax law by which the tobacco tax has been reduced one-half, and certain other taxes abolished, will explain the loss in custom receipts.

Driving the Last Spike on the Northern Pacific.

A large party will leave New York August 29, as guests of Henry Villard, Prest. of the Northern Pacific railway, to witness the opening of the road a few miles west of the Mullen Tunnel. The party will stop a day each, in St. Paul and Minneapolis, reaching Helena, Mt., on the evening of Sept. 7. The party will go to the Junction of the tracks in the morning. Wm. M. Evarts will make an address and Villard will drive the last spike that will unite the two divisions of the road. It is expected that President Arthur will be present, having by that time finished his tour of the Yellowstone Park. All the ex-presidents of the road will be present except the first, Josiah Penham, who obtained the charter, and died in '63, before a shovelful of dirt had been dug for its construction. The other ex-presidents are ex-Governor Geary Smith, of Vt., Gen. Geo. W. Cass, of New York, C. H. Wright, of Philadelphia and Fred. K. Billings of New York. A number of prominent English and German guests and public men will arrive on August 20th, to join the party. After the ceremonies some of the party will return east and some will go over the road to Portland, Puget Sound and through the Williamette Valley, returning on September 20th.

The President's Regal Reception and Royal Run Over the Rails.

SALEM, Ind., 9.40 a. m., on board the presidential train.—The special containing Prest. Arthur and his party bowled out of Louisville half an hour late, and after crossing the long bridge which spans the Ohio River at Jeffersonville, quickened pace under the foothills of Southern Indiana. The leave taking which the President had of Louisville was in a measure informal, although the great concourse had congregated in and about the depot. The train is decked out in royal fashion. The transit of the special train has evidently been well advertised, as was evinced by the great crowds along the entire route. Every crossing had its quota of spectators, and rail fences on the outskirts of some of the villages in the lower portion of the state were literally decorated with natives. Owing to the delay in starting, no stops were made after New Albany until Salem was reached and the train passed through all intermediate villages at a flying rush. No place appeared so modest that it failed to possess a piece of ordnance, and accompanying the cheering of the assembled crowds was the detonation of the artillery. The President throughout the early portion of the run sought seclusion in his coach and failed to make an appearance on the platform. Accompanying calls for the President, at nearly every station, a disposition was evidenced by the crowd for a look at Secretary Gresham, and there were repeated and hearty calls for that gentleman. It had been the original intention to make a short stay at all the leading stations, but owing to the delay in getting off at Louisville and the desire to reach Chicago on time, the plan was abandoned. Chicago will be reached at 7 o'clock this evening. It is now contemplated that a stay of half an hour will be made at Vernon, where special trains from Indianapolis, Michigan City and other northern Indiana cities, will bring crowds to view the Presidential party.

ALEXANDRIA, 2.—Two deaths from cholera occurred here yesterday. The total number of deaths from cholera in Egypt since the first outbreak of the disease to date is 11,000.

Another Earthquake at Ischia.

Naples, 2.—King Humbert yesterday visited the scene of the earthquake at Ischia and went over the ruins of the destroyed towns. He expressed the deepest sympathy with the sufferers and directed the distribution of money and provisions to those in need. Another severe shock of earthquake was felt on the island last evening, which put a stop to the work of searching the ruins for bodies of victims. It is believed by some that persons buried under the falling buildings at the time of the earthquake are still alive in the ruins. The use of lime on the ruins is therefore opposed.

Berlin, 2.—The Emperor William has directed that the four hundredth birthday of Martin Luther be observed by all Protestant people. The students of the universities will celebrate at Erfurt, Aug. 8th, the entry of Luther into that town.

Deceased was born in Knox County, Ohio November 25th, 1814. She was stricken with paralysis during the month of October, 1880, from which she never fully rallied, though at times she seemed much improved.
