VICTIM OF ALCOHOL.

At the coroner's inquest held over the remains of Walter Johnsen, who committed suicide on the 10th inst., the decision was given that said person died from the effect of a pistol shot fired, with suicidal intent, by his own hand, during a melancholy attack caused by the excessive use of sleohol.

Suitable funeral ceremonles were held at understaker C. Thompsen's building yesterday.

Ogden Company in Deep Water-D. C. Eccles Flies Suit for Appointment of Receiver.

COAL SITUATION IS SERIOUS.

Two Schools Close for Lack of Fuelpistrict Court Hears Damage and Other Suits-News Notes.

Ogden, Jan. 16.-By the filing in the Second district court of suit by Atty. Joseph Chez for David C. Eccles against the Ogden Knitting company, the failure of what was supposed by many to be a prosperous business, comes to light, and Mr. Eccles asks the court for the appointment of M. Olswang as receiver of the company's property, which is valued at about $10,000.

Mr. Eccies asks for judgment against the company in the sum of $8,300, of which amount he claims $5,000 is due on notes signed by the company and the balance for cash advanced to keep up its running expenses. He sets forth in his suit that he believes the assets of the company will reach about $10,000, while the liabilities will amount to about $17,000; that the company is insolvent and cannot meet its obligations. Mr. Olswang has been running the business for several years. The hearing on the request of the suit for a receiver will be taken up by Judge Howell at his earliest convenience.

yesterday afternoon from general debility. The deceased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey M. Turner,
and was born in Kirtland, O., Dec. 22, 1837. Her parents accompanied the Church in its westward migration, and were with the saints in their settlements in Missouri and Illinols. In 1848 the family came to Utah and in 1849 to Provo, being among the very first settilers here. Here the deceased married Mr. Fleming, and they were among the first families to locate in the part of flown which is now the First ward.
There they have lived the greater part of the time. A fow years ago they, moved to Pleasant View, but on the death of Mr. Fleming, Mrs. Fleming again moved into the city. Mrs. Fleming was a devoted wife and mother, and a faithful Latter-day Saint, a good neighbor and a true friend, and the family will have the sympathy of a large circle of friends. She leaves three children, Mrs. William Elliott, Mrs.
John H. McEwan and Clavide L. Fleming, and numerous other relatives.
Funeral services will be held in the COAL SITUATION SERIOUS. Riverdale and West Weber Schools Close for Want of Fuel.

Ogden, Jan. 16.—The shortage of coal in Ogden is becoming alarming and unless some relief comes soon the suffering from the same is going to be great. Already the public schools at Riverdale and West Weber have been closed down temporarily for the want of fuel with which to heat the buildings and a number of the other schools are practically without coal and will have to close unless relief comes within a few days. The city council on Monday night could not hold a session because of having but a small quantity of coal on hand, sufficient to keep a little heat in the offices during the day time. A number of the larger business houses in the city are running their heating plants with a small quantity of coal, and many families throughout the city and county are without coal. The dealers will not take means the coal. Ogden, Jan. 16 .- The shortage of coal and many families throughout the city and county are without coal. The dealers will not take more orders, as they say the delivery of coal to them is so very uncertain that they cannot tell when they will get any coal. The situation is serious, and demands immediate attention.

Wiedell, the well known insurance agent and real estate dealer, in which plaintiff asks for damages from defendant for withholding certain insurance many from him force times the fendant for withholding certain insurance money from him for a time, the defendant Wiedell was hit quite hard by Judge Murphy, who was hearing the case. During the trial Wiedell got the idea that the court was not trying the case fairly and intimated as much, and that the court was arguing the case before the jury in favor of plaintiff. Judge Murphy resented the inference and imposed a punishment of one day's sentence in the city jail on Wiedell but withheld the carrying out of the punishment until the case is finally submitted to the jury, which will be some time today.
