

OUR PRESBYTERIAN GUESTS

They Attended the Tabernacle Services in a Body Yesterday.

ENJOY MINISTRIAL MEETING AT THE THEATRE.

The Rev. Dr. Roberts Makes a Calamitous and Utterly Contradictory Statement.

Between the hours of 2 and 6 yesterday morning nearly seven hundred men and women distinguished themselves by their presence at the Tabernacle services.

The audience was composed of the most distinguished members of the city, and the services were of a high order. The Rev. Dr. Roberts, of New York, delivered a sermon on the text, "The Church of the Future," in which he made a statement which was entirely contradictory to the statement made by him in the morning.

He said that the church of the future would be a church of the future, and that it would be a church of the future. He said that the church of the future would be a church of the future, and that it would be a church of the future.

He said that the church of the future would be a church of the future, and that it would be a church of the future. He said that the church of the future would be a church of the future, and that it would be a church of the future.

He said that the church of the future would be a church of the future, and that it would be a church of the future. He said that the church of the future would be a church of the future, and that it would be a church of the future.

He said that the church of the future would be a church of the future, and that it would be a church of the future. He said that the church of the future would be a church of the future, and that it would be a church of the future.
