RAILROAD ACCIDENT IN IDAHO.

Another in Idaho, with Fatal Results in Athletic Club for Brigham City, Ida.

In Mendocino County, Cal., cattle traps are reported in great abundance. Thus far the amount of the damage which the sheepmen and state authorities have suffered.

Two boxes of Utah sugar were shipped to New York this week by the sugar company, says the Salt Journal. It is said that the amount of what can be sold in the market.

An athletic club has been started in Brigham City. The club will be composed of twenty members, all young men, and its members will be the ones most likely to be a running man who will contain many of the leading looks and perfections of the day.

Sugar's new fire alarm system has been weighed in the balance and found to be everything it was reported to be, and it is almost impossible after the thirty days' trial among the city, says the Tribune. It will be accepted, and the number of boxes will soon be increased, extending the system into every portion of the city.

An exchange says that a statue will be one of the exhibits from Mendocino at the World's Fair. It is estimated at $1,000 per cent silver to make the statue. It is simply to honor the miners, and both signs by Chinese laborers to require its removal at the close of the Fair. Several tall statues are contemplated to give us the miners.

A little girl named Hall came home last night, having been for a month under treatment at the City Hospital. She and her mother were going up and down, and carrying them when her clothing took fire. Her mother was in the park when hearing the noise, a party of the girls who were having a picnic in the bushes escaped with slight hurt.

J. Q. Parsons, the Utah mining magnate, is now on the river this week and will go to Sandy to take a look at the Klondike of the West and other properties in which he is interested, says the Tribune (Utah). He said, "I state that he is about to buy the mine he has held him in that short time, and will be buying the mine, involving the purchase of several hundred miners."

William Sennett and his partner left Salt Lake City, with a small boat loaded with their winter supplies. They will float down the Salmon River to the Middle Fork, thence down that stream for 20 miles, when they will open the winter in that location 40 miles away from any human being. They will pass to trapping and hunting—Sennett City (Utah) here.

Hilly Hill, comedian at Early's Standard Theatre, Boise City, Idaho, gave the audience a surprise when there was a bullet hole in his head during the stage door. He turned out of a dummy's head with a wicked looking chess knife when he fell through a trap door. He slipped with his face on the knife, but got a terrible gash. Some said he will never be able to appear again.

A fatal railroad collision took place on the road near Grand Island, Neb., to which the engineer and brakeman of No. 8 and of the freight train with which it collided lost their lives. The conductor and a brakeman were thrown from the freight train and killed. A man and woman were fatally hurt. The freight was coming west and had backed into a switch when had not been thrown back for the main track, and No. 8 gave them a hard head and collision.

An accident occurred on the Northern Pacific, between Coeur d'Alene City and Priest River, Idaho, on Nov. 22, very nearly caused the death of twelve persons. The truck on a car laden with ore broke down and threw it and two more freight cars over an embankment, and they dragged the taged and passenger cars along. The truck was about half passing the board, and all escaped without a scratch, except one man who was thrown against the forward end of the car and was bruised considerably. The wrecker and his helper, however, turned bottom upwards, and the seats in the couch were nearly all torn loose by the jar. The express and baggage men got out without a scratch, there being but a little baggage or express aboard.

A singular case of mistaken identity has brought to the attention of the Oakland (Cal.) police yesterday. Nearly a month ago the body of a man was found floating in the eddies near East Oakland. The deceased was buried as a "unknown." Statement is he was probably a member of the Theodore Miller gang, who recently fled to the East. It appears that there was no insurance on the life of Theodore Miller for $1,000 and the company in the East was called upon to pay the sum. The insurance company was unable to find the man, so they sent a telegram to Chief Sheriff to try and find out if Theodore Miller. The chief asserted that Theodore Miller was receiving letters at the time of his death, so he stated that he would go to the office of the coroner to see if the man was not the Miller. It turned out that the Miller whose body was buried is still living, and that dead man is unknown.

Terry Guillermo died on October 18, 1864, leaving a surviving husband, Jose Guillermo, to whom she had been married about two years. Guillermo knew nothing of his wife's history, but when he was discovered that she had nearly $1000 in the keeping of the California Gold Deposit and Trust Company. There was no will, and after the researches of legal counsel, it was decided that the estate was distributed to the husband. At the same time the late T. H. Stoughton was appointed to ascertain if there were any other heirs in Chile, where the native country of the deceased. No heirs were discovered, and yesterday Justice Gathenhill issued a decree to allow the remainder of the estate to M. Vazquez, a Chilean seaman, who had known the deceased for years, but had the knowledge that she had no relatives excepting her husband, now deceased. The hearing was adjourned, and in the interval of a further investigation by Attorney Lynch, who has succeeded Attorney Rixson as representative of
