Hill, to render an account of her guardianship. In the matter of the guardianship or Lawrence M. Peterson, minor; guardi-an's bond was fixed at $1,500.

Estate of Porter Hadden; order made confirming sale of real estate, Estate of Henry Hendrickson; order made approving and allowing semi-annual account.

Quite a sensation was created in court this morning upon the present-ment of the petition of Alma S. Gates of Salina, asking the court to require Emma J. Hogan to render an account of her guardianship of the estates of Nora Gates and Grace Gates, minors; that said Emma J. Hogan be removed as guardian of the estates of the said minors, and that petitioner be released as one of the sureties on said guardian's bond.

The petition alleges that the tates of the said minors amounted to $1,655 each; that the guardian, who is their mother, has been disregardful of the trust reposed in her and has mismanaged and wanted the estate; that she has put about $1,400 of the estate of the said minors in a mercantile bush-ness, in which the guardian is a copartner with one Michael Hogan (her present husband); that the said mercantile business is in a poor financial condition; that the said guardian has intendent of Schools Oscar van Cott, with J. M'CAMMON, IDAHO.

Shocking Death of Guy Moss-Close of a Promising Career.

Special Correspondence.

McCammon, Bannock Co., Idaho, March 14.--A feeling of gloom was cast over our ward last Sunday by the death of one of our most respected young men. On Sunday, March 11, at the close of Sunday school, Brothers Guy Moss and four or five of his companions, started from the meeting house on horseback; they had gone but a few rods when his horre fell, an other riding next to him fell over his horse and both horses fell upon him. He was taken home and every thing that could be done for his comfort was lone, but after suffering terribly about two hours he succumbed to his injuries shortly after 2 o'clock. He was 21 years of age; a good exemplary boy in every respect, well loved and re-spected by all. He had just returned from Logan where he had been attending a missionary course in the B. Y. college, and was preparing to go on a mission this fall. He took part in the exercises in Sunday school and dis-missed the school not ten minutes be-

The deceased was the oldest son of Commodore Moss and Annie M. Moss, and was born at Portage, Boxelder county, Utah, August 29, 1878, and left of attemption of the source a father and mother, a large family of brothers and sisters and many friends and relatives to cherish his memory.

brought no Mr. Stevenson. An officer appeared Saturday with an attachment on the stock of candies, cigars and stationery which Stevenson ran in connection with post offic The assistant, not liking the aspect of affairs, called in the bondsmen and made a hasty examination of the books and wired the post office department to send an inspector. I learned last night from one of the bondsmen that Mr. Stevenson was short twenty-five hundred dollars in the office department affairs, according to the inspector's report. Mr. Stevenson had also beat the Columbia Building & Loan association, also the Phoenix Insurance company of Denver, for both of which he was agent. He had also of which he was agent. He had also borrowed considerable money from res-idents of the town, one of his bonds-men, Dr. C. T. Gamble, told me that he loaned him $130, and there are several others. And now all his many friends are locating him anywhere from Cape Nome to South Africa.
