

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

THURSDAY, APRIL 19, 1894.

FRANCHISES.

Two English species of franchise will meet in the early of the month, and meeting house tomorrow (Friday) evening at the residence of Mr. L. H. Smith.

President Armstrong will deliver an address before the Monday Night club at the next meeting, which will be held on the 22nd inst. at the Congregational church. Mr. Chamberlain will be the American Address.

A religious concert, shortly after 7 o'clock this afternoon on Third Street, near Third Ward, where the annual school of the church, and several other churches will be held.

Constitutional Convention will be for the first time, and will be held on the 22nd inst. at the residence of Mr. L. H. Smith.

New Democratic Society. In the Eighteenth ward last night a new Democratic society was organized with the following officers: George O. Pratt, president; George O. Pratt, first vice president; George O. Pratt, second vice president; George O. Pratt, secretary; George O. Pratt, treasurer; George O. Pratt, executive committee; George O. Pratt, legislative committee; George O. Pratt, judicial committee; George O. Pratt, executive committee; George O. Pratt, legislative committee; George O. Pratt, judicial committee.

Crowding Bob Thompson Now. Billy Joseph of Philadelphia, a light weight pugilist who has been temporarily confined in that lake, says he is anxious to meet Bob Thompson in a fight and that he will do so at any time or place or for any amount of money the party will put up.

Will Fight No More. Henry Williams Jr. has, it appears, decided to retire from the pugilistic world of life. A few days ago he issued a challenge, published in this paper, to fight for the sum of $1,000 or any part thereof, and saying at the same time that he would fight in 142 pounds, Williams knows his change of heart in the following communication received at this office this morning:

"I wish that you would state for me in your paper that I have come to the conclusion that I will not fight any more. I therefore can't consider any challenge from anybody whatever."

Death of a Missionary's Wife. Sister Laura M. Christensen died on Monday afternoon at her home in the north ward, after an illness of two weeks' duration, of pneumonia and pleurisy. The lady was the wife of H. J. Christensen, who is now absent on a mission to Norway.

A Severe Shaking. On Sunday afternoon Joseph Ballif was thrown from a horse, and after being found lying in the road in an unconscious condition. The accident occurred about 10 o'clock, and the horse was found to be a powerful animal.

Notes and Personal. The first of the company played here on Monday night at a small house and the result of the game was a victory for the company. The company is not as good as the team accompanying it.
