PARKER SAYS THERE

IS PLENTY OF LAW Baltimore, Oct. 5.-Judge Alton E Parker of New York spoke to a large au dience tonight in Richmond hail. Spcaking of trusts. Judge Parker said:

"There is already law enough. What is wanted is enforcement. Mr. Taft admits that most of the trusts have been formed within the past 10 years, but his party, though having the power, have not tried to curb any of them until quite lately.

his part, though having the power, have not tried to curb any of them until quite intely." Discussing campaign contributions, Judge Farker quoted the Roosevelt Harriman correspondence, and said that when Harriman contributed to the Re-publican fund Roosevelt considered him all right, but when his aid in this di-rection was not forthcomling the presi-dent placed him-but not until them-in the list of "undestrable clitzens." The declared that Roosevelt believed himself so impectable that he and those he favors cannot be smirched by contact with a corrupt corporation, but that the president has nothing but condemnation for every Democrat who may have had even the most remote connectical with any such, and this condemnation extends even to their friends. "If any man in the United States." he said. "has earned the right to be saved from such insults, it is William J. Bryan. When Roosevelt so sweepingly con-demned Hastell for his alleged connec-tion with the Standard Oil company, he perhaps forgot that in 1991 his (Roose-velt's) committee received $100,000 from the Standard Oil company for the cam-paign fund, and used it. And when chairman Cortelyou of the national com-mittee in that year went to the Standard Oil company by appointment to ask for money for the campaign fund he was not satisfied wild $100,000, but wanted more. It may be true that Roosevelt wrote to Cortelyou telling bim to send that $100,000 back to the Standard Oil company, but it is cequally true that Cortelyou did not send it back, but used it. And it is also true that he was nev-or punished by Roosevelt for not send-ing the money back. On the contrary, he was rewarded by being made post-master, general of the builed States and afterward secretary of the treasury."

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

New York, Oct. 5.—The local fans crowded every inch of space inside of the polo grounds today and cheered the New York team all the way to a very decisive victory over Boston by 8 to 1. Ames pltched the game of his career, holding the visitors to one hit in sev-en innings, McGinnity pltched the other two innings, and Hanifan, batting for Tuckoy in the eighth inning, hit to deep left ceter for a hong run, the sigle score for Boston.

starter for the race meet, with a party of 50 horsemen and jockeys, arrived yes-terday from Helena, Mont. From Idaho. Montana and Washington 6 mors are ex-pected within a new days. Today 12 carloads of ine norses were shipped from Helena on a special, and it is said that the annals are among the fastest in the United States. There are a number of great runners among them. After the race meet here they will be shipped to California for the winter's sport of kings. Manage: Murray says he has arranged programs that are sure to please the public. With such a bit held of horses and the generous purses offered it is safe to predict that the race meet will be the biggest ever held here. Th dis-tances in the fair races Mr. Murray will anonunce his program. That each event will be lifed to the limit there is no doubt, the large field of horses in-sures this.

hard for first monors, this inits, brought out another rousing demonstra-tion. Where the talent got a biff in the solar plexus was in the third race with Wel-don, a local horse, entered. Weldon, with Porter up, looked good to the crowd and was a strong favorite. But at no point in the haif-mile dash did Weldon ever threaten, even to come in within the money. Jockey Porter was suspended for three days on the strength of the poor showing of his animal. Weldon did not get off well at all and the judges had an idea the jockey hadn't done all he could for his mount. The officials selected by the fair man-agement are all experts and through the week, fast races will be started on time and run off in one-two-three order. The innovation of vaudeville acts between events made a hit. Starter Devin of Sacramento worked the gate to a chram and this made the starts bunchy. The summary: First race, half-mile dash, purse Sido-Duke of Oreleans (R. R. Rice, owner, Hullcut rider): Snagg Lator (G. Bossett, owner, Warren rider); Suste Gregg (E. W. Mooney, owner, Martin, rider); time, i53%. Sir Preston, *Ber-lin, Electric Light and Joe Duke also ran. Second race, seven-eighths of a mile,

MILER A GOOD ONE.

MILER A GOOD ONE. The mile run seemed to please even better. As in all other events the field got away well bunched and five animals ran neck and neck. Knowledge just did poke her nose out of line as they pass-ed the stand but this line-up held good while the oval had been covered. In a fighting finish, Knowledge came under the wire just a head to the good over Miss May Howdish, who was fighting hard for first honors. This finish brought out another rousing demonstra-tion.

Dyer, Tapplin); Neva Weish (T. B. and P. A. Morris, Morris); time, 1:35/2, Special Delivery, Cainrida, Wolfville, Dr. Short and Naney W. also ran. Third race, hulf-mile dash, purse $150-Tallen (Turner and Reese, S. Smith); Western (J. H. Souidice, Hull-cut); Ontario Oregon (J. Blanton, Blanton); time, :32, Billy Bagley, Bon-nie Brier Bush, Weldon and Laura F. M. also ran. Fourth race, one-mile dash, purse $200-Knowledge (J. H. Shouldice, Hullcut); Miss May Bodish (W. St. Vincent, Morel); Belden (C. P. Dyre, Aguayno); time, 1:54, Mrs. Nugent, Spondult, Black Dress and Chancel-lor Walworth also ran. Fifth race, one-quarter mile, dash, purse $125-Sarah Meyer (J. Blanton, Smith); Sam F. (Irwin Bros, McBeth); Teddy (P. M. Mauzuy, Martin); time, :25/2, Gray Bell, Koenigen, Louise and Judge Thomas also ran.

Rive races, were run and with animals of class entered in all; this made the contests fine affairs in spite of mud, which would have discouraged anything but the classiest sort of animals. Open air vaudeville acts run in be-tween the events were of an unusually good caliber and pleased the crowds. The opening day was good to the tal-ent, although a rap was given the wise ones now and then. Duke of Orleans, a favorite in the first, got away nicely and maintained a safe head around the track. This was the half-mile and gave out the tip that the card was to be a snappy one. The second race was a seven-eighths event. Wolfville and Salnrida were favorities. Salnrida took the lead and held it for three-quarters where Norfolk poked ahead a bit. On the turn Neva Welsh took the lead, but Salvy U. soon had it. This had everyone guessing and excitoment ran high. It looked like anybody's race as they came down the stretch, but 4,000 pair of eyes watched Norfolk forge slowly to the front.
