SPRINGTOWN, March 12, 1867.

EDITOR DESERET NEWS:—

Our people, in Sanpete, are considerably anxious about schools. We have now very good ones in every settlement, but we want just about twice the number that we now have; and the only reason why we have not all we require is, the lack of competent Teachers. We would like young or middle aged men of good character, not particular whether they are Jews or Gentiles, if they are morally upright men whose orthography and pronunciation are correct—who can pass an examination in reading, writing, geography, arithmetic and grammar. Qualifications in other branches would not be the least objectionable, but a good practical knowledge of the foregoing branches will be strictly necessary. We would prefer men of our own religious faith for teachers, if they can be obtained; but if not, teachers of any other faith, with good moral character will be accepted.

Some think that any sort of teacher who may want a home and employment will do for Sanpete; but it is a mistake. We want faithful and qualified men, and are willing to pay such for their services. A few competent female teachers could also find situations here. Any persons knowing that they can fill this bill in regard to qualifications, need have no hesitancy in coming. They can apply to F. C. Robinson, Esq., Manti, Superintendent of Common Schools in Sanpete County.

Very respectfully,
ORSON HYDE.

SPRING LAKE VILLA, March 20.

EDITOR DESERET NEWS:—

Heretofore I have put in early garden by the 20th of March, but now we are in snow nearly a foot deep, and no prospects for gardening right soon; yet I think the present cold weather may tend to insure the coming season's fruit crop, and when Spring does come it may burst upon us with all its business and pleasantness at once. As it is, we have a little more time to read the DESERET NEWS, Telegraph and other papers that come to us each week, and keep ourselves warm by a cheerful fire.

We had some severe sickness during the past winter, but all are again upon their feet, with hopes of full recovery.

Our family school taught by br. William Reed of Payson, has just closed, with only one shade of unhappiness, which arose from his having left us; the children wept at his departure.

Our Sabbath meetings are interesting; and the teachings of those occasionally sent to us by the Bishop are instructing. The children are earnestly enquiring when the Sunday school will begin again.

Last Sabbath evening I met with the Teachers quorum at Payson, which is the Ward to which we belong, and I was highly pleased with the Spirit of our meeting. Br. John Fairbanks is a live Bishop, and he has some good men around him for helps. Payson seems progressive.

It has been a very severe winter here on sheep, and much loss has been sustained in this vicinity, as, owing to Indian troubles last season, they were too much crowded together through the summer, and now, with plenty of feed and care, we may not save one half of our flock.

Altogether we feel that we have a pleasant and comfortable home, for which we owe gratitude to our Father in Heaven.

Yours,
B. F. JOHNSON.
