

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

Seventies, see notice for meeting.
Hours Made Trunk—Attention is directed to the advertisement of J. H. Clemetshaw, wholesale and retail trunk and valise manufacturer, whose place of business is at the corner of the Kimball block opposite the Townsend House. Mr. Clemetshaw has made his business a success, and he desires the support of the public, particularly of that portion interested in the establishment and continuance of home industries. He is a thorough workman and his prices are down to bed rock. When an article of home manufacture can be obtained at as cheap a figure and of as good a quality as any that can be imported, the home-made should certainly have the preference. Dealers and retail buyers, call on the manufacturer.

When a man gets so low down that nobody will lie about him, he had better turn over a new leaf.

The benefits conferred by the use of GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP are not confined to the eradication of cutaneous eruptions. It has also the power of transforming a coarse and cracked skin into the softness of velvet, the blended hue of the lily and the rose, and the sweetness of the violet. It is also a protection against the contaminations of disease, and defies the morbid effects of the contagious emanations of the worst pestilences.

Hill's Hair and Whisker Dye, Black or Brown, 50 cents.

PRICE OF GOLD.
 Corrected daily by Deseret National Bank.
 SALT LAKE CITY, November 10, 1877.
 Buying at $1.05; Selling at $1.05.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Thermometer 66 degrees F. in the shade at 1 p.m. to-day. Clear.

Religious Services.—Religious services will be held to-morrow afternoon and evening, in the several Ward meeting houses, commencing at two and six o'clock.

Home missionaries are expected to be present and preach in the evening meetings.

Manit Temple.—Elder William H. Folsom is up from Manit. We learn from him that the preparatory work for the erection of the Temple there is progressing finely. Last week 161 men were busily engaged. The second terrace wall is well advanced. Over 800 cords of rock have been laid this season. The grading of the building site is about half completed.

Grain.—On Thursday evening Miss E. K. Snow and Mrs. E. H. Wells held a meeting at Farmington, in the interest of storing grain against a day of need. The assembly was a large one, the young people of both sexes, being especially numerous represented, and considerable interest was manifested in the subject under consideration. Addresses were delivered by the two ladies named and by Bishop John W. Hens.

Short Route to Arizona.—H. Pearce, of St. George, writes that he has a ferry on the Colorado, south of St. George, and that there is a road open so that Prescott, Arizona, may be reached by that route in 270 miles from the former city. Also that any point in Northern Arizona may be reached in from sixty to eighty miles shorter distance than by any other road. Travelers southward should make a note of this.

Utah Northern.—A short time ago the good people of Cache appointed a committee, composed of Bishop M. W. Merrill and W. D. Hendricks of Richmond, and Col. T. E. Ricks of Logan, to confer with Mr. Dunn, superintendent of construction of the Utah Northern Railroad, in relation to the prices of grading. After consultation between Mr. Dunn and the committee, an average of eleven cents per yard, for six miles was agreed upon, and nearly the whole of that distance has already been let to small contractors. A large force of men and teams from Logan and the settlements north of there are at work on the grade, which is expected to be finished for the stipulated six miles some time next week. When that is completed it is probable that the people will undertake another similar distance to grade.

The old extension grade has been abandoned, and the line will now go by way of Soda Springs, as formerly intended.

The six miles on which the graders are now at work takes the line from the old grade, immediately north of Franklin, to Bear River, in a north-westerly direction.

More Organizing.—The Presidency of the Stake, met with the Elders, Friends, Teachers and Deacons of the Second, Third, Eighth, and Ninth Wards, last evening, in the Eighth Ward School-house, when the following organizations were effected:

Thomas Gerrard, President of the Elders' Quorum, composed of the Elders in the four Wards named above; Paul Olson and Jacob Piercy, Counselors; Theo. J. Angell, Clerk.

August Cutler, President of the Deacons' Quorum in the Second Ward; Samuel Peterson and Ernest Bassett, Counselors.

Herbert Picknell, President of the Deacons' Quorum in the Third Ward; John Berrell and David Sinclair, Counselors.

Albarn Woolley, President of the Deacons' Quorum in the Ninth Ward; Wm. W. Wilson and Wm. A. Taylor, Counselors.

The above brethren were unanimously sustained in the positions named, and were all set apart, excepting Theo. J. Angell, and Wm. A. Taylor who was not present.

The Deacons in the Eighth Ward were not fully represented, so the organization of that Quorum was deferred.

Returned Missionary.—This morning we received a call from Elder Joseph E. Horne, of Gunnison, Sanpete County, who returned from the Swiss and German mission, over which he presided, with the emigrant company that reached this city on Monday night.

A Musical Event.—Max Strakosch the great, looked in upon us this morning. He comes in advance of the Kellogg-Cary Company, who will start to-morrow, Sunday, morning, from Frisco for Salt Lake. There is no mistake about their coming, this time. Their appearance will be the greatest musical event in the theatrical history of Utah. Crowded houses are expected, so seats should be secured at once. We saw a telegram to the Director which says that the receipts at the concert last night were $3,000. For particulars of their performances here, see advertisement. We clip the following from the Sacramento Record-Union of the 3rd inst.:

"The second concert of the Kellogg-Cary troupe drew a larger audience than the first one, despite the threatening aspect of the weather. But few seats in the spacious edifice were unoccupied. The audience was, if anything, more enthusiastic than at the first evening. Certainly the troupe has every reason to be proud of the reception given it by Sacramento audiences. On the other hand, the members of the company have been very generous in responding to the cheering, and on each evening the entire programme has been doubled. Last evening, both Miss Kellogg and Miss Cary responded twice to the encores on single numbers of the programme, making six full selections given to two numbers, a thing unusual, and a very heavy tax upon the vocalists. The masterly playing of Hugo Mansfield, and his rare skill as a pianist received the warmest acknowledgment on the part of the audience. Of the vocalists, nothing remains to be added to our comments of yesterday, except to say that the impressions therein reflected were fully justified by the singing of Misses Kellogg and Cary last evening, while the gentlemen of the troupe appeared to much better advantage."

Prices Current.—We have been asked by numbers of country subscribers to give regularly the prices current of produce. We have made several attempts in that direction but found it a matter attended with considerable difficulty. In fact to publish such figures with any degree of accuracy in a city or country where there is no board of trade or other organization for the regulation of prices, it is next to impossible to publish a price list that would not be necessarily frequently fallacious. The produce market here is a kind of haphazard concern. Like the weather at some seasons, it is apt to be up to-day and down to-morrow. Changes frequently occur even in an hour, and sometimes the prices are anything but even, people bringing their produce into market and generally selling it for any price they can get. It would be as well for a newspaper not to give the prices at all than to take the risk of quoting rates when they are the highest, leading people from the country to crowd to the mart, reaching here probably after a sudden decision. The paper that publishes or rather attempts the publication of the prices current of an exceedingly spasmodic market will be likely to secure the reverse of the blessings of a good many people occasionally.

Thriving.—Hyrum, Cache County, gives a remarkable showing of the benefits of home industries. It is only a small town, but has two saw mills, a lath and shingle mill, and a cheese factory that turns out a very superior article. It has also two lumber yards, one at home and the other at Logan. The consequence of these enterprises is that the place has been recently built up with astonishing rapidity. It is a town of fine looking, comfortable dwellings, a credit to its inhabitants.

Free Lecture.—Mr. Francis D. Egan, for many years Rector of St. James' Episcopal Church, San Francisco, California, will deliver, Sunday evening, at seven o'clock, in the Catholic Church of this City, a lecture on the "Reasons Why he Renounced Protestantism." Mr. Egan has become quite celebrated in the lecture field, no less for the interesting subject discussed than for the original, logical and eloquent manner in which he treats it.

Re-Organized.—On Thursday night the Firemen's Mutual Improvement Association elected their officers for the ensuing year, as follows: President, R. Simpson; Vice-Presidents, Alma Kandle and Joseph Sausbury; H. H. Golder, Secretary and Treasurer; Board of Directors, Geo. Openshaw, Rufus Hardy, Cyrus Drake, Frank Platt, John Busby, Andy Stevens, George Timpan.

Missionary.—Elder O. H. Eggleston, of Ogden, called upon us to-day. He recently returned from a mission to the State of Michigan, where he was busily and successfully engaged in the ministry about eight months. Since his return, he has suffered severely from the effects of a fall from a building in Ogden, on which he commenced work soon after his arrival home.

Lehi.—A co-operative furniture factory at Lehi is doing a very fair business. The goods turned out are well received, and excellent. The only article in which it cannot compete, in quality and price, with importations is that of chairs.

Logan Temple.—The northern wing or extension of that building is now receiving the parpeta and roof. The latter will be covered with matched flooring lumber and finally with painted canvas.

Returned.—Brother George C. Lambert, who has been to Cache with the native Indians and returned last evening, after a successful trip.

Preaching.—President John Taylor is expected to preach in the 14th Ward Assembly Rooms to-morrow afternoon. Services commence at two o'clock.

Returning.—We understand that Elder Thomas G. Weber, recently laboring in the Swiss and German Mission, is on his way home.

District Court.—Saturday, Nov. 10th.
 Annie Hoge et al. vs. Edward Stevenson; dismissed at plaintiff's costs, for want of prosecution.
 M. Williams et al. vs. B. F. Cummings; same order as above.
 Bill of costs of Sumner Howard for the September term of court, $2,020, approved.
