

PROTECTION FOR IMMIGRANTS

We are glad to learn from late New York dispatches that an effort is making to organize a permanent committee, composed of some of our own citizens and persons accredited by foreign governments to their respective consuls...

EASTERN NOTES

It is reported that a son and daughter of the famous Davy Crockett are now living near Acton, New Hampshire.

The Atlanta Herald reports that half the cotton crop of Southwest Georgia has been cut off by the caterpillars.

Washington is beginning to bridle up again, and the boarding-house keepers are speculating on the prospect of a little back-pay.

The New London Telegram relates the following remarkable incident: David G. Stratton and wife, who were visiting relatives in this city at the time, both dreamed on a Sunday night of the destruction by fire of Stratton's and Birmingham.

The Newark Courier of Aug. 23 says: Yesterday afternoon an exciting scene was witnessed on the four o'clock train for New York on the Morris and Essex railroad.
