WOULD HAVE BIG POULTRY SHOW

Utah State Association Plans to Get Large Turnout of Exhibitors.

MORE CHICKENS ARE NEEDED.

At Present Over Eighty Per Cent of Eggs and Poultry for Home Market Are Imported.

A movement that has been in progress for several years, is now reaching a definite form in the Utah State Poultry association. It is a plan to get rid of some of the things that stand against poultry raising in Utah and to put the industry on a successful basis, to supply the great western demand for eggs and chickens.

At present 85 per cent of the chickens and eggs consumed in Utah is imported from outside states, and the fact that there is no remote possibility of supplying the market is responsible for a close unity among chicken raisers and breeders.

A large meeting was held last night at the Commercial club building, at which plans were drawn up for presentation to the coming legislature. One is to ask for an appropriation of $3,000 to be expended in state prizes for the highest standard of excellence in breeding secured at the various fairs. Another is a bill to make chicken stealing a felony, as at present the greatest objection to the industry as a business proposition is the constant danger of losing the flock on some dark winter's night.

Last year a highly successful poultry show was held. It brought out over twice as many as any previous show. Within the next few months it is planned to hold another show, and the preliminary interest indicates that this one will be much larger than last year's. Within the past few years interest in poultry raising in Colorado has increased, and the industry now ranks among the big money makers of the state. In California there are great chicken ranches, and the poultry department of the state university is one of the best in the nation.

At the meeting last night Dr. C. G. Plummer presided and most of the evening was spent in discussion of the best ways to wash birds for the show room.

SANITARIUM PLANNED.

Detroit Capitalists May Build at Beck's Hot Springs.

W. M. Wantland of this city stated last evening, that he had just completed a deal for Detroit capitalists who are planning to build a sanitarium at Beck's Hot Springs, where $200,000 may be expended, and the institution made a completely equipped one, with all the best and latest modern appliances and furnished with the best medical attendance. When the sanitarium is completed, it will be a great asset to the city, and the property has been recorded, arrangements will be made to erect the desired plant as early as possible.

MAKES STRONG PROTEST.

Archdeacon Ball of Episcopal Church Writes to Mayor Thompson.

Archdeacon William D. Ball of the Episcopal church has written a letter to the mayor protesting against the violation of the bicycle ordinance in this city, in which he says: "I was knocked down and stunned near the corner of East First South and Second East streets by a little boy on a bicycle, from the effects of which I was a sufferer for several weeks. A month ago I was in a hospital, and during that time I was thrown down three times within the space of half an hour on the same street—east First South. In two of these instances was within a couple of seconds of being struck. I at once made a formal complaint to Chief of Police George A. AMUSEMENTS.

Theater—Harry Beresford and his company will give the first presentation here of "The Woman Hater" tonight. The engagement lasts tomorrow afternoon and evening.

Opheum—Tonight will be the regular "society night" when there will undoubtedly be a good turn out.

Grand—After an absence from Salt Lake of several weeks, Mr. Theodore Lorch returned to the Grand last night, on which occasion "Beware of Men" was presented to a large and appreciative audience. Always a favorite here, Mr. Lorch loses no friends in his impersonation of Rev. Oliver Churchill, but adds to the laurels he has already gained. The character is entirely different to that usually assumed by the young actor, but is sustained with a few exceptions, and the audience was liberal in the applause accorded the players and the play. The same bill finishes this week, and the Wolfe Stock company, next in the "Parish Priest," for the first half of next week.

Lyric—"The Little Minister" is in its closing performance at the Lyric and tonight and tomorrow afternoon and evening witnesses the end of the run.

DEPUTIES MAKE ARRESTS.

Two Men Charged With Burglary Finally Make Confession.

After an unsuccessful attempt on the part of the wife of Stephen Leatham to save him and her brother from arrest and to remove some of the property stolen by them, Leatham and Joseph L. Hammond were arrested yesterday afternoon by Deputy Sheriffs Steele and Emery, and are now in the county jail charged with burglary in the first degree.

Angus Clift, a carpenter, missed a lot of valuable tools from his shop and suspected Leatham and Hammond, who had been working for him. A search warrant was issued and the deputies went to the premises and searched the premises. While searching through the woodshed they found a lot of giant powder and Mrs. Leatham, who is only 17 years of age, was found to have the powder away and fire it off, as she was afraid to have it around.

The deputies agreed to do so, and while they were taking the powder away, Leatham and Hammond, who were at work, and warned them the officers were after them and then took a sack of the stolen tools and started to make way with them. The men were arrested just as they tried to leave the ice-house, and after being confronted with the evidence of their guilt, confessed the crime and told where some more of the tools were hid.

KENNEDY ARRESTED.

Smooth Swindler Landed in Jail by Salt Lake Officer.

After being the object of a search that lasted more than two weeks, J. D. Kennedy, who sometimes calls himself George E. Stevenson, was arrested last night by Detective Wheeler, and now occupies a cell at the city jail. It is alleged against Kennedy that he went to Sugar City, Ida., and represented himself as being a prospective Reuburg merchant, and that he secured $125 on a worthless check. Kennedy is wanted also in Ogden, and by the time that he is called to account for the various acts of wrong doing charges against him he will have been kept busy for some time.
