BREVITIES.

Light in the Main—Mid Ocean.
Mendelssohn is to have a monument in Leipzig.
Cheap living—Living on excitement.
If death is an evil, birth is a greater one.
The spice of a policeman's life—his watch.
A natural artist—One who draws his breath.
A Japanese newspaper has been started in London.
Intellectual children—Offspring of the brain.
The round of domestic life—A hoop skirt.
The pot death is in should be a pot of beer.
A fellow of reflection—The man in the moon.
Pyrotechnical remedy for crying infants—Rocket.
Italians are emigrating to South America by thousands.
Blessed is he who has a good pile and knows how to spread it.
Bad taste—pretty young girls kissing widowers' children.
Every day is a little life, and our whole life is but a day repeated.
When were the first sweatmeats made? When Noah preserved pairs in the ark.
Gov. Patton says that Alabama will raise $10,000,000 worth of cotton this year.
A woman was fined, at Nashville, for whipping her husband with a red-hot poker.
Small monkeys are much more fashionable than poodles now as pets with the Parisiennes.
There can be no objection to a broil in the house, as long as it is confined to the kitchen.
Fifty thousand dollars have recently been paid for the refitting of a gambling hell at Long Branch.
There are about 7,500,000 telegraph posts in the world, which it costs about $1,000,000 a year to keep up.
A little girl in Philadelphia drowned herself because her mother forbade her to wear her new dress.
Mr. J. B. Fellows is about to present Louis Napoleon with the fastest four-hand team in the world.
It takes seven men one week to dust the great organ in Boston. Their wages for the week are over $100.
Never call on women when they are absent from home; for they can't bear to be found out.
The New York Herald claims to have cleared $160,000 during the first half of the present year.
Paris is about crowning all the street lamps with blue glass, on which the passenger may read the name of the street.
The landlord of the Pequot House, New London, charges $5 a week for the board of pet dogs belonging to his guests.
Baltimore has removed about 70,000 cartloads of mud and sand, which the late visiting waters deposited in her streets.
Limestone water may be rendered comparatively soft by the addition of a small quantity of hartshorn or of carbonate of ammonia.
Before you could be sure that you are right yourself. He that attempts to cleanse a blot with blotted fingers makes a greater blot.
A homesick dog travelled alone, and doubtless on foot, from Kentucky to Missouri, 900 miles, and reached his own kennel by instinct.
A Connecticut officer procured the publication of a report that he had been run over by a horse car in New York, and killed, his object being to find the whereabouts of his wife, who had deserted him.
In Van Wert, O., while Saml. Niel, Postmaster of that town, was stooping to dip some water with a pitcher, out of a barrel, the pitcher was struck by lightning and broken to atoms. Mr. Niel was uninjured.
The editor of a religious paper objects to singing by choirs of churches while taking up a collection. He says: "We have sometimes seen brothers so absorbed in the singing during the collection, that, with their closed eyes, they could not see the basket as it passed."
There are two specimens of the mockingbird now in England. They are to be seen in the aviary at the Crystal Palace, near the Crystal Fountain. They are in full song, and warble the notes of the thrush, black-bird, nightingale, mock the railway whistle, the sawing of wood, and whistle some English songs.
France is trying a new gunpowder invented by a German artillery officer, named Schutzen. It is white; but half the quantity does an equal amount of work with common powder, makes little smoke, and leaves no trace after combustion. It may even be burned on white paper without soiling it.
Four-tenths of the adult males of Fochow are opium smokers, and they spend $432,000 annually for the drug. This is a fair representation of its use throughout the empire. The value of the opium imported into China for the year 1866 was $5,000,000, and we are sorry to say, it was imported from Christian countries, a fact extremely humiliating.—[Ex.]
