The Mexican Robbery NOGALES, May 13. - This afternoon Mexican officials arrested two Mexican customs guards on suspicion of being implicated in Friday's train robbery. American officers also arrested an American named Taylor, owing to the fact that the hat which one of the robbers lost was recognized as one which Taylor wore here yesterday. This evening the Mexican officials who had been in pursuit of the robbers arrived here with four prisoners whom they had captured. The funeral of the dead conductor and fireman was held this conductor and fireman was held this afternoon. The express messenger Hay and passenger French are still alive, but it is not believed they will recover. All places of business have been closed here today.

The Taylor man arrested yesterday on suspicion of being one of the parties connected with the Sonora train robbery on Friday night, made a partial confession. He says a man named Conrad Rolling was at the head of the robbery. Rolling left the town yesterday merning for a camp 30 miles from here. A special train carrying officers with mounts left today in pursuit of the robbers. suit of the robbers.

Criticism on Dillon's Sentence. LONDON, May 13.-The Daily News accuses the government of playing a discreditable trick in doubling Dillon's santence, their object apparently being to prevent a reduction of the sentence on appeal. It by the opposition to demand of Parliament to institute an inquiry into the whole administration of the crimes act, the precedent fur-nished by Jones, who demanded a sim-ilar inquiry regarding the land act of Morcocco Appologiz

LONDON, May 13 .- A dispatch from libraiter, concerning the settlement of the dispute between the United States and Morrocco says: After the withdrawal of the claims for money an apology was tendered to the American consul and orders were given for the immediate release of the persons whose arrest gave rise to the trouble.

ST. Louis, May 13.-At ten o'clock yesterday morning a levee situated outh of Alexandria, Mo., broke in several places and a vast volume of water began pouring into the town, which was completely inundated. Spasmedic attempts were made to check the irresistible flow, but within a few minutes the laborers were quiet, and accepted the inevitable. It required less than an hour to inundate the whole town which is covered with quired less than an hour to inundate the whole town which is covered with water from two to six feet, submerging almost every foot of ground. The occupants of the parts worst inundated sought refuge in the upper stories of their buildings, where they will be imprisoned until the subsidency of the hood. In the main streets water is fully three feet deep, circumscribing the movement of the population and the movement of the population and rendering all transportation from one point to another impossible only by means of skiffs or rudely constructed rafts. The sidewalks are overflowed and skiffs are landed in doorways at private residences. Business is en-tirely suspended. There has been no loss of life nor great damage to property within the town. At this point the Mississippi is fully seven miles wide and within range of vision one vast expanse of water greets the eye. The area of farming land in the Mississippi control of the minute of the control of the minute of the control of the contr souri bottoms that is submerged is es-timated at 75.000 acres, and the con-tinuance of the flood will result in an approximate loss to the farming community in that region of at least $30,000. A high wind is prevailing today, which caused the waves to wash openings in the Warsaw levee which affords prostection to some 63,000 acres of fertile Illinois land.

The Emperor of Brazil, MILAN, May 13.—The chest affection with which the Emperor of Brazil has the patient now shows symptoms of paralysis, and is suffering from dia-betes. He is kept up with strong coffee. A telegram from the Princess Imperial concerning the sholition of slavery in Brazil, caused him to raily.

Preparation for Defense. LONDON, May 13 .- The government had ordered two modern thirty-ton guns to be mounted on the 'central bastion, facing the sea, at Sheerness. Other measures of defense will be adopted on the Thames.

Heavy Loss from Fire PHILADELPHIA, May 13.—A large brick building which contained the steel works and rolling mill of Disston's extensive saw works at Tacony, was totally destroyed by fire at an early hour this morning. Loss $300,-000; insurance $190,000. About 2000 employes will be more or less affected

At 10 o'clock the race was declared closed. The scores of those who made 525 miles or more, and who are entitled to a share of the gate receipts, are Littlewood 611, Guerre 569, Herty 573, Noremac 533, Golden 529. The re-ceipts for the week were about $18,000, of which Littlewood received $4000 and Guerro about $1800.

Boulanger's Tour. Paris, May 13 .- Exciting scenes were witnessed along the route taken by General Boulanger in his travels through France. The police had the greatest difficulty in clearing the road the house-tops were crowded. Many threw eggs andflour at the General. At Valenciennes General Boulanger held valenciennes General Boulanger acid-a public reception. Crowds of people filed through the hotel, all classes being represented. In the throng were many school boys and women with bables in their arms. The General had a kind word for all. At Antzien two-anti-Rom'angists, at a window excited anti-Boulangists, at a window excited the animosity of the crowd, who threatened to burst in the doors and chastise the offenders unless they de-make his report on his work in Africa When the bishop stepped in front of the stage the people arose to their feet and applicated for several minutes. He said his success in Liberia was wonderful and read a statement comparing the state of affairs in Liberia in 1884 and 1888. Schools, schoolars, teachers and ministers have increased in numbers. A LUCKY MAN. Stone in the Kidney expelled after using Dr. David Kennedy's Favorte Remedy' about two weeks.

ver been brought to the notice of the public s that of Mr. J. S. Beach, of Stone Ridge Waster Co., N. Y. Mr. Beach had suffered since October 18th, 1874, from the presence of Calculus or stone in the right kidney. No less than seven physicians were employed at different times, to whom Mr. Beach paid hundreds of dollars for medical treatment with only temporary relief from his agony.

By the urgent solicitation of his friends he was induced to try Dr. David. Kennedy's "Pavorite Remedy," made, you remember, at Rondont, N. Y. He experienced marked improvement from the first day he began to use the medicine. On the 15th September he voided a stoness isrge as could be passed through the natural channel.

Mr. Beach concludes a long letter to Dr. Kennedy by saying: "It will always afford me pleasure to recommend the "Fayorite Remedy" to those who may be suffering from difficulties of the Kidneys and Bladder, or any disorders arising from an impurestate of the blood. "The "Favorite Remedy," is sold by all druggists. Price only $1 as bottle. The Doctor's only address where he manufactures his "Favorite Remedy," is condout. N.
