MRS. MARY GREGOVICH

Of Philipsburg, Montana, Tells How She Was Cured of Dandruff.

Mrs. Mary Gregovich, of Philipsburg, Montana, under date of Nov. 26, 1899, writes: "I had typhoid fever this sum-mer, consequently was losing my hair terribly, and my head in places was perfectly bald. Newbro's Herpicide had just come into use in Philipsburg, and the doctor strongly recommended it to me. After 3 or 4 applications my hair stopped falling out, and is coming in again quite thick. I used to be troubled greatly with dandruff, of which I am now quite cured." Kill the dandruff germ with Herpicide. Sold by leading druggiets. Send 10c, in stamps to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. tion, in the accepted sense of the word, was made by the Hoare brothers of the Salt Lake team, who kept the balls down and played with a straight bat. The ma-jority of the batsmen went in for happy-so-lucky "slogging," which brought in the runs but was not cricket. Top score was made by R. F. Hayward, who was event-ually caught when it seemed as though he were set. Andy McPherson was the particular bright and shining star for the Ogdens. He slammed out 25 when J. W. Young succeeded in getting through his defense and bowled him. W. Haddenham, who narrowly missed coming to Salt Lake with the Pioneers, was the wonder of the day. This old vet-eran pegged away with a slow ball of spood length and nailed W. Hoare after he had complied two runs. Hoare got even when Ogden took the bat, however, and with a slow break ball took eight wickets for 20 runs, or less than three runs per wicket-a performance that wold have been phenomenal in first class cricket. tion, in the accepted sense of the word

From George Collett. The races at the saucer last night were decidedly interesting, especially the ene-mile match between "Billy" Samuelson and George Collett, which resulted in a signal victory for the lad from Provo. Samuelson took the two first heats so that there was no need of running a third to-determine the winner. The first heat was rather slow on account of the pace-maker failing to get a good start. For a great_part of the distance Collett was somewnat in the lead, but the Utah boy kept a sharp eye on his movements and after permitting him to read the way till almost the danger line had been reached. Snumelson made one of his famous sprints and left his competitor 50 yards in the rear. The time was 2004. For speed the second heat was much better, this being hade in 20035 As in the first the Provo boy trotted along behind till the last lap, when he spurted to the front and finished an easy witner.

The girl who overdresses when she goes to business has ideas of impressing her friends with the importance of her position.

With this end in view she puts a bow of ribbon in her elaborate colffure, dons a silk blouse and a trailing skirt and proceeds on her mission thoroughly satisfied with herself. An elaborate white gown, a Galnsborough hat dripping with feathers and all the fascinating little waves of hair In the world make small impression upon the average man of business. He finds fault with her just the same, and generally he discharges her in the end when she begins to learn that there s a difference between being well dressed and overdressed. Neat, well fitting clothes are for office wear and

WHERE'S MOTHER?

Bursting in from school or play, This is what the children say, Trooping, crowding, big or small, On the threshold, in the hall-Joining in the constant cry, Ever as the days go by-"Where's mother?"

From the bed of weary pain This same question comes again; From the boy with sparkling eyes, Bearing home his earliest prize. From the bronzed and bearded son, Perils past and honors won-"Where's mother?"

Mother with untiring hands At the post of duty stands; Patient, seeking not her own; Anxious for the good alone Of the children as they cry, Ever as the days go by-"Where's mother?"
