LOCAL BRIEFS.

Col. W. T. Gunter of Fayetteville, Ark., father of W. T. Gunter of this city, died at his home on the 13th inst.

The State Historical society will hold its annual meeting this evening, to elect officers and transact such business as may be brought up.

Mrs. Charles Collins of Alta, who is at St. Mark's hospital afflicted with pneu-monia, is reported to be progressing nicely towards recovery.

There will be an interesting meeting of the Utah Indian War Veterans in the Thirteenth ward meetinghouse tomorrow evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

The Utah Press association will meet at the Kenyon hotel on the 20th Inst., to choose officers, and talk up the trip to New Orleans and Havana in May next.

Tonight at 7 o'clock the annual parish supper will be served at Unity hall, members, regular attendants and sub-scribers to the church being invited. Following the supper the annual meet-ing and election of officers will be held and later there will be an informal social.

A reception will be held Feb. 3 in the parlors of the First Methodist church in honor of the new superintendent of the Utah Methodist mission, Rev. Dr. H. J. Bishop Cranston will be present to introduce the new church official. and all of the churches in town are invited to be present. The committee of arrangement consists of P. A. Dix, J. C. McClain, Judge G. F. Goodwin, E. O. Lee and Alex. Eberhardt. There is a general feeling of relief at the depart-ure of Leilich, and the advent of the new man is looked forward to with much anticipation.

The police are now looking for one Frank Scott, aged 26 years, five feet seven inches in height, and wearing dark clothes. Scott, according to the police, has been acting as a booster for the Green Light gamblinghouse. Alfor the Green Light gamblinghouse. Al-though none of the gamblinghouses are supposed to be running, the pro-prietors have been paying Scott to act as a booster. A day or two ago he dis-appeared. With him disappeared green-backs to the amount of $90. The money belonged to "the house." Up to date the officers have secured no trace of the man man.

Judge King delivered his lecture on Voltaire at the Unity church last eve-ning before a large audience. The address was interesting and well received. Voltaire, he said, was a deist and not an atheist, according to the popular conception, and that he built houses of "Voltaire was better than his age in morals," he said. "We cannot judge a man who lived at his time by the high standards of morals which are now ob-served. He struck at superstition and pristcraft and not at Christianity. He pleaded for liberty of conscience and of thought and abhorred hypocrisy. His dying words were, 'I love my friends, do not hate my enemies and detest superatition."

MDS. SARAH L. MADIGER. southern Utah, and located in Kanab, where he has lived ever since. It was there that Sarah became acquainted with and married L. C. Mariger, and during her husband's incumbency as Bishop there, her home was always open to the authorities of the Church, many of whom shared her hospitality at a time when greatly in need of t. For many years she was connected with the Y. L.'M. I. A. and Relief society, and although the mother of a large family and hampered with 11 health, she never shirked in the performance of duy. About 1891 Mr. and Mrs. Mariger moved to Sait Lake, where the latter's health grew worse, at times being most critical. Through all her sickness Mrs. Mariger never murmured. Her last illness came only two weeks ago and she died surrounded by her mother, husband and all her children, a faithful Latter-day Saint to the end. The funeral will be held Wednesday, at 1 p. m., from the Farmers ward meet-inghouse.

A DAUGHTER'S GRIEF.

Shown at the Funeral of Mrs. Romney Yesterday Afternoon.

The poignant grief of an only daughter who had been a constant companion of her mother until death relieved her of her sufferings, characterized the services yesterday afternoon over the remains of Mrs. Jane W. Romney, wife of the late Joseph G. Romney. The funeral was held at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. F. C. Brown, 376 Fifth daughter, Mrs. F. C. Blown, are Fild street, at 2 o'clock, and was attended by a large number of relatives and friends. Touching music was rendered by a select quartet and the speakers were Elders Joshua Midgley, William B. Barton, President Angus M. Cannon, Longer Higher and Electron Porter James Higbee and Bishop Romney, a brother-in-law of the deceased. All spoke in high terms of the character of Mrs. Romney, of her many virtues and the goodly life she had led, and ex-pressed the conviction that the reward of the faithful awaited her beyond the veil. As the closing selection the quar-tet rendered, "Shall we meet beyond the river?" and as the strains of the se-lection died away, Mrs. Brown was so affected by the thought of parting with her mother that she became hysterical and it was with much difficulty that she was comforted by those around her. There were many beautiful floral emblems and the services throughout were decidedly impressive.

THE RALEIGH CASE.

Court Decides That Title to Property Vests in Defendants.

Judge Hall has rendered a decree in favor of defendants in the case of Emily P. Raleigh against Caroline C. R. Wells, Jacob T. Raleigh, the executors of the estate of A. H.
