

LEGISLATURE ENDS
IN THIRTEEN DAYS

Busy Sessions Will Mark Progress in Law Making From Now On.

VISIT TO LOGAN TOMORROW.

Both House and Senate Have Accepted Invitation, and Will Leave on Special Train at 7 O'clock.

In thirteen days the Seventh legislature will be officially dead, and that means that the remaining sessions will be busy ones. Both houses have already struck up the pace of the home stretch, and the grist of bills is being rapidly run through. Yesterday afternoon the senate sent a large batch of bills down to the house, and cleared committee rooms of enough business to insure a full calendar this afternoon.

The senate just before adjourning accepted an invitation from the people of Logan to visit that city Saturday, and another invitation from Pres. J. T. Kingsbury to visit the university next Tuesday.

The new bills were seven in number, and one of them was Gardner's anti-pass bill, which was published in full in a recent impression of the "News." It regulates the giving of passes within the state, in conformity with the interstate commerce law.

An "armor" bill introduced by Park's military affairs committee, aims to secure better care of the military equipment by paying the care taker a slight salary.

The list of bills is as follows: S. B. 133 (Committee on military affairs)—Relating to appointment and pay of company armorers. (Third reading today.)

S. B. 134 (Committee on military affairs)—Relating to the organization of companies of the National Guard. (Third reading today.)

S. B. 135 (Hulanicki)—Providing for the terms of appointive offices in cities. (County and municipal corporations.)

S. B. 136 (Williams)—Defining gambling and providing penalties. (County and municipal corporations.)

S. B. 137 (Gardner)—Regulating the issuance of railroad passes. (Railroads.)

S. B. 138 (Caldwell)—Appropriating money to double capacity of state fish hatchery. (Fish and game.)

When it came to passing bills through the house, the various fraternal and secret societies of Utah came in for lively discussion. Robinson's house bill protecting the public from imposition through the misuse of fraternal emblems by members of other not entitled to wear them, was finally passed but not until senators had been forced to speak at great length upon the need for such a bill.

Another bill to pass under fire was Walton's S. B. 23, appropriating $1,250 to former Sheriff A. L. Eastman of Rich county. It was once amended in the house, cutting down the appropriation very materially, but a conference committee agreed to recommend that the original sum be restored. The bill is now under consideration in the senate.

BILLS PASSED.
The list of bills passed is as follows: H. B. 127, by Robinson, prohibiting wearing of insignias of secret orders by non-members.

H. B. 31, by Cottam, revenue for common school districts.

H. B. 102, by Walton, registration of voters.

H. B. 145, by judicial committee—service of process from city courts.

H. B. 119, by Thompson, regulating sale of liquor.

H. B. 208, by Bower.

H. B. 22, by Walton, appropriating $1,250 to former Sheriff A. L. Eastman of Rich county for injuries sustained.

IN THE HOUSE.

Eleven Bills Passed, Including Patriotic Measure by Taft.

Once more it is hoped to effect a surprise introduction of bills in the house. Since the expiration of the time limit for introducing bills except by special consent, something like 40 new measures have been introduced, and it is understood several times will go in today. Among these the new juvenile court bill by Markes is expected to make its appearance. This bill has been gone over and revised several times, and is now said to include the very best features of any juvenile court law in existence.

It had been hoped to get all the committee reports in this week, so that beginning with Monday next morning sessions could be held; but in the light of the report yesterday administered by Speaker Joseph W. H. it was shown that in one committee alone, the judiciary—there were yet 60 bills to be reported on, and other committees in proportion. It is evident that several days will yet be required before the committees have completed their work.

And with this still piling in, it is difficult to see where the speaker will find the speaker said yesterday, it looks as if the session might last 30 days longer than it should if the work is completed.

ELVEN BILLS PASSED.

The judiciary committee was yesterday partially made up by activity in the house. Eleven bills received the stamp of approval of the judiciary, the representative body, and were sent up to the senate for its action. These were:

H. B. 100, by Westphal, relating to the date of expiration of commission.

H. B. 178, by Nephew Jensen, proposing an amendment to section 7, article 13, Constitution of Utah, fixing the rate of taxation.

H. B. 228, by Dyring, providing the manner in which disputes regarding county boundary lines may be finally settled.

H. B. 267, by committee on mining and smelting, substitute for S. B. 25 and H. B. 2, providing for the manner of locating and recording quartz and placer mining claims.

H. B. 87, by Clagg, relating to the sale of real estate for taxes and the distribution of the proceeds.

FOR CITY IMPROVEMENTS.

Engineering and Streets Committees Discuss Plans as Proposed.

The engineering and street committees of the city council last night discussed the plans for lighting and improving Main street as proposed by the city engineer. The plan of Councilman Martin in regard to building a conduit under the principal streets of the city for the accommodation of all public utility wires and pipes was also decided to have the engineers of the Utah Light & Railway company, the Salt Lake Public Service company and the Utah Gas & Coke company meet with the committee and talk over the plans.

A DIFFERENCE.

It Paid This Man to Change Food.

"What is called 'good living' eventually brought me to a condition quite the reverse of good health," writes a N. Y. merchant.

"Improper eating told on me till my stomach became so weak that food nauseated me, even the lightest and simplest lunch and I was much depressed after a night of uneasy slumber, unfitting me for business."

"This condition was discouraging, as I could find no way to improve it. Then I saw the advertisement of Grape-Nuts food, and decided to try it, and became delighted with the result."

"For the past three years I have used Grape-Nuts and nothing else for my breakfast and for lunch before retiring. It speedily set my stomach right and I congratulate myself that I have regained my health. There is no greater comfort for a tired man than a lunch of Grape-Nuts. It insures restful sleep, and an awakening in the morning with a feeling of buoyant courage and hopefulness."

"Grape-Nuts has been a boon to my whole family. It has made of our 2-year-old boy, who used to be unable to digest much of anything, a robust healthy little rascal weighing 32 pounds. Marked certainly owes a debt of gratitude to the expert who invented this perfect food." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. "There's a Reason!"

career ahead of her if she falls into the right hands. She has face, figure, temperament, and apparently the judgment that will make her an artist. It will be worth the while of theatergoers to keep their eyes on her professional unfoldment. Mr. O'Meara was conscientious as the pastor, but that is the most that can be said of him. Paul Seardon as the lieutenant had a hard time of it in his ill fitting uniform, but he was earnest, open faced and frank. Roy Clements, the actor who in the "case," did the best work of the evening aside from that of the star, "Magda," goes again tonight and tomorrow night with a Saturday matinee.

Grand—A large audience was in attendance at the Grand last night to witness the opening performance of Ward's minstrels. It was an all-white company, though some of the members, of course, were blacked up for the occasion. The orchestra was exceptionally good, and the most pleasing features of the evening, were the singing of the boy soprano, Carl Fletcher, the performances of Prof. Horner's dog, and the most pleasing tortions of Manveo. Master Fletcher is possessed of a decidedly sweet and true voice and his solos won for him the most enthusiastic applause during the evening. The little rascals were trained to a marvelous degree of perfection, and Manveo—well if he has a heart in his body, the dog was not apparent to those who witnessed his maneuvers last night. The remainder of the performers were a good average of minstrelsy. Some of the jokes were not new, but then, a few jokes like wine, improve with age. All in all the show was satisfactory to perhaps most if not all of the persons present. The same bill finishes out the week.

Orpheum—Tonight's society night at the Orpheum where the boys and girls are the main attraction. The bill is a good one. Next week Fred H. Hallen and Molly Fuller will be the headliners.

WESTERN MARKET LETTER.

Special Correspondence.
Kansas City Stock Yards, Feb. 28.—The advance for the week. The run was less cattle market closed last week in fairly good shape, all classes making small gains. Prices today are steady, with some improvement in the country grades showing the most strength, as usual. Fed steers make up a large proportion of the demand, but the aggregate of that class is not excessive, and the supply appears to be backing up a little each week. Supply of cows and heifers is hardly equal to the demand, and call for country grades at all times, so that the general outlook is good, from the seller's standpoint. Top fed cattle here in the last week sold at 6.00 to 6.40, bulk of corn fed steers at 4.50 to 5.50, cows 3.00 to 4.50, heifers, 2.50 to 4.50, a few choice heifers at 4.50 to 5.25, bulls 3.00 to 4.15, calves 2.25 to 3.50, stockers 2.75 to 4.00, feeders 4.00 to 5.15. A shipment of Idaho hay fed steers, 1,000 pounds, sold to go to the country late last week at 4.50. A reference from the range country have been scarce lately.

Sheep receipts have been liberal for the past week, and the run is good today, at 15.00 head. Prices declined 10 to 20 cents last week, and the market is 10 cents lower today, but is active and the demand equal to the supply. Receipts have been falling short of those of this period last year, and killers have had difficulty in securing enough for economical shipment of their product. In view of the heavy slaughter of cattle and hogs this month, Good lambs are selling today at 1.00 to 1.25, one lot of good to choice lambs at 1.25 today, similar to the lambs shipped in by Mr. Fulkerson last week, from Provo, weighing 51 to 64 pounds, and selling at 75c to 7.50 on different days. Lambs weighing 45 pounds or less are selling at 65c to 7.00. Yearlings sold at 6.25 to 6.40, weathers 5.25 to 5.50, cows 4.00 to 5.10. A few feeding lambs sold readily last week at 4.25 to 4.75.

OBITUARY.

Marjette W. Mayfield, wife of W. O. Mayfield of Farmington, died at her home Feb. 28, inst., aged 71 years. She was the mother of seven children, five of whom survive her. Funeral services will be held at the residence in Farmington today. Deceased leaves a large circle of friends throughout the state. Her husband lately lost the sight of both eyes.
